except in so far as mankind grow in the realization of its lofty principles that there has not been and will not be any improvement on the ethics and spiritual truths revealed by Jesus the Christ but that they will remain forever the standard of faith and practice I assume also that Christianity has elements which are not to be found in any other religion such as original teachings divine revelations and sublime truths I know it is the fashion with many thinkers to maintain that improvements on the Christian system are both possible and probable and that there is scarcely a truth which Christ and his apostles declared which cannot be found in some other ancient religion when divested of the errors there incorporated with it This notion I repudiate I believe that systems of religion are perfect or imperfect true or false just so far as they agree or disagree with Christianity and that to the end of time all systems are to be measured by the Christian standard and not Christianity by any other system

Beacon Lights of History Volume I: the Old Pagan Civilizations John Lord,2015-12-19 John Lord was a 19th century American historian who wrote several comprehensive histories about antiquity including this one about ancient civilizations and their religions From the preface It has been my object in these Lectures to give the substance of accepted knowledge pertaining to the leading events and characters of history and in treating such a variety of subjects extending over a period of more than six thousand years each of which might fill a volume I have sought to present what is true rather than what is new Although most of these Lectures have been delivered in some form during the last forty years in most of the cities and in many of the literary institutions of this country I have carefully revised them within the last few years in order to avail myself of the latest light shed on the topics and times of which they treat The revived and wide spread attention given to the study of the Bible under the stimulus of recent Oriental travels and investigations not only as a volume of religious guidance but as an authentic record of most interesting and important events has encouraged me to include a series of Lectures on some of the remarkable men identified with Jewish history Of course I have not aimed at an exhaustive criticism in these Biblical studies since the topics cannot be exhausted even by the most learned scholars but I have sought to interest intelligent Christians by a continuous narrative interweaving with it the latest accessible knowledge bearing on the main subjects If I have persisted in adhering to the truths that have been generally accepted for nearly two thousand years I have not disregarded the light which has been recently shed on important points by the great critics of the progressive schools
