

A woman in a dark dress and hat is walking away from the viewer on a beach. The sun is low on the horizon, creating a warm orange and yellow glow. The sky transitions from a deep blue at the top to a lighter orange near the horizon. The water is calm, reflecting the colors of the sky.

Prayers for a Widow's Journey Gayle Roper,2024-03-05 I don t want a future Lord I want my past But ahead lie Your plans Ahead lies life Life after a husband s death is full of grief uncertainty and loneliness Who can possibly understand the heavy ache of this new life that must be lived alone Only someone who has lived this experience too In Prayers for a Widow s Journey a collection of more than 100 reflective prayers author Gayle Roper talks to the Lord about what it feels like to be caught in the unsought solitude of widowhood Each prayer is accompanied by a verse from Scripture that grounds the prayer not in self pity but in an awareness of the boundless care of the God of all comfort Rather than explaining grief away Gayle acknowledges the pain and invites you to trust God even in these darkest of days

God is Enough M.E. Louis,2017-12-03 Where do you go when life as you know it is turned completely upside down It happened to me The life I knew and loved vanished on August 7 2013 when my college sweetheart and husband of 33 years chose to end his life There are not words to describe my shock and devastation Though I was surrounded with wonderful loving people none of them could restore the half of me that died that day This was a God sized task This is my journey through shock grief mourning and healing It is the very personal and profound journey I took to ultimately discover that no matter how deep your pain God is always there and He is enough If you are grieving God Is Enough will give you hope I understand what you are going through and I am here to share my message of hope healing and faith

Seasons

Ernestine Rose,2018-12-23 Like life grief has its own set of seasons We all will eventually face them head on in our own time and at our own pace No matter what our loss we must learn how to endure and survive our seasons in order to live fully again In a memoir that follows the metaphor of the seasons Ernestine Rose provides an enlightening glimpse into her walk through grief after her beloved husband of forty one years passed away in 2016 Beginning with the season of summer Ernestine first recounts the year preceding Art s death as he bravely battled sarcoidosis and eventually succumbed to the disease As she leads others through the often cold and lonely seasons of autumn and winter Ernestine details how she grieved her monumental loss and slowly learned how to live without Art Finally as she reveals her entrance into spring Ernestine discloses how she found renewal hope and faith in a new beginning while gently reminding others that we all heal in our own time Seasons is the true story of a widow s journey through the seasons of grief that shares words of wisdom that will help those in mourning to learn to live love and dance again      Widow's Walk Pamela Cuming,1981 After her husband s death a young widow struggles to rebuild her life to care for her children to run the small business she and her husband started together and to find comfort and support from her family and friends      Hope for Widows Marilyn Nutter,2024-01-18 Hope for Widows offers you connections in your grief guiding you to see hope grace and camaraderie on an unfamiliar path With personal reflections questions and expressions of gratitude join Marilyn Nutter in recognizing God s faithful presence in details and unusual places The 65 readings apply Scripture and relevant quotes to grief and mourning and look with transparency at how widowhood dramatically changes a woman s life      A Widow's Walk Marian Fontana,2011-12-13 On September 11 I dropped my son off at his second full day of kindergarten The sky was so blue it looked as if it had been ironed I crossed the street ordered coffee and sat to wait for my husband to meet me It was our eighth wedding anniversary and Dave and I were about to begin a new chapter in our seventeen years together Sipping coffee I watched as a line of thick black smoke crept across the sky from Manhattan oblivious to the fact that my life was about to change forever On September 11 2001 Marian Fontana lost her husband Dave a firefighter from the elite Squad 1 in Brooklyn in the World Trade Center attack A Widow s Walk begins that fateful morning when Marian a playwright and comedienne became a widow a single mother and an unlikely activist Two weeks after 9 11 the city attempted to close Squad 1 which had suffered the loss of twelve men Known for her feisty spirit and passionate loyalty Marian who was still reeling from her profound loss began to mobilize the neighborhood to keep the firehouse open From this unlikely platform the 9 11 Widows and Victims Families Association grew Over the next twelve months Marian struggled with the tragedy s endless ripple effects from the minute and deeply personal she wonders who will play Star Wars with her son Aidan and carry him on his shoulders to the collective she works to get families and widows necessary information about the recovery effort and attends private meetings with Governor Pataki Mayor Giuliani Senator Clinton and Mayor Bloomberg Through it all Marian s irrepressible humor is her best armor as well as evidence of her buoyant strength Written with great heart and humanity A Widow s Walk is a timely opportunity for remembrance and a timeless testament to love s loss and the resilience of the human spirit      Walk with Me, Jesus Ronda Chervin, Ph.
