H. Debons, W.J. Cameron

Abc Of Reading New Directions Paperback:

ABC of Reading Ezra Pound, 2010 This important work first published in 1934 is a concise statement of Pound's aesthetic theory It is a primer for the reader who wants to maintain an active critical mind and become increasingly sensitive to the beauty and inspiration of the world's best literature With characteristic vigor and iconoclasm Pound illustrates his precepts with exhibits meticulously chosen from the classics and the concluding Treatise on Meter provides an illuminating essay for anyone aspiring to read and write poetry ABC of Reading displays Pound's great ability to open new avenues in literature for our time

Bringing the World Into Culture Piet Lombaerde, 2010 This book is published on the occasion of the emeritus status awarded to Professor Richard Foque in arch MSc His successful career as founder and partner of an architect firm professor in design theory and Head of the Department of Design Science has provided opportunities to meet colleagues both at home and abroad

Hidden Fields Charles Ford, 2008-02 Poetry can give the readers a chance to make better choices in their lives Hidden Fields prepares them to examine their self religion and philosophy by the spirit of poetry Charles Ford wants to share his many life experiences with readers and invite them into his home by his every thought word and action So they may know him and discover something special and unique about themselves He wrote poems for people throughout history rather than to them Poems offer for people even for readers who know little poetry All are unique alive or dead In Hidden Fields Charles brings to readers his experiences and his individuations which he expresses wonderfully by his ever deepening imagination and understanding that he has about poetry These poems about self embodied metaphysics of his faith hope and love Charles writes poems about religion and philosophy they are also in the vein of metaphysics These poems reveal his profound spiritual growth that he achieved in his life He experienced a religious conversion at three He shares this experience and many others with readers so they may know he writes poems from his heart by inspiration and love he has for God and man

A Touch of Rhetoric Peter D'Epiro, 1983 New Approaches to Ezra Pound Eva Hesse, 2024-03-29 Great advances are currently being made in the understanding of Pound's lifework Many of the essays in this book the majority are published here for the first time disclose hitherto unsuspected aspects of the poet's beliefs while others are studies in depth of areas of his work which although frequently discussed have never before been properly examined Seldom in fact have so many pioneering studies been assembled between the covers of a single volume The various contributors are eminently qualified to treat the specific ideas and interests of Pound's about which they write and the book as a co-ordinated whole comprehensively covers his and our artistic culture Eminent scholars and critics from five different countries have come together in this attempt to unscrew the inscrutable Richard Ellemann Leslie Fiedler Forrest Read N Christoph de Nagy Walter Baumann Guy Davenport J P Sullivan John Espey Donal Davie George Dekker Boris de Rachewiltz Albert Cook Hugh Kenner Christine Broke Rose Eva Hesse well known here and in Germany as a critic and translator establishes the interrelationships between the various fields of study and examines some of Pound's key concepts from the aspect of the history of ideas New Approaches to Ezra Pound should serve as a valuable source book for all students of literature and may above all be expected to act as a catalyst for future studies This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1969 Ezra Pound and the Visual Arts Ezra Pound,1980-11 A gathering of Ezra Pound s writing criticism and reviews on art Thus Burst

Paradigms Eunjoo Mary Kim,Deborah Beth Creamer,2012-04-06 This book is about leadership a scholarly and pastoral response to the urgent demand for the renewal of the contemporary Christian church It challenges readers to articulate the identity and vision of the church in new ways and encourages them to revitalize their ministry with fresh insight and passion from women s perspectives The eight essays written by female scholars in relation to various areas of theological study and the nine pastoral responses to the essays written by ministers from seven different denominations based on their experiences of actual ministerial settings provide new paradigms of church leadership theologically profound practically relevant and historically timely This volume a product of a collaborative process between academia and church promises to be a most useful resource to renew the leadership of the church and its vocational commitment to the transformation of the church and society     Alexander Pushkin A. D. P. Briggs,1983-01-01 A clear detailed and accessible account of all Pushkin s poetry

Illuminations, and Other Prose Poems Arthur Rimbaud,1957 Rimbaud born in 1854 started to write at an early age By 17 he had written his most famous poem The Drunken Boat He then embarked on a turbulent homosexual relationship with the poet Verlaine from which came some of their most original work including A Season in Hell and Illuminations Rimbaud rejected writing at the age of 20 After years of travelling and gun running in Africa he died in 1891 aged 37

Sigismund Lars Gustafsson,1985 King Sigismund the seventeenth century Polish monarch learns how to live simultaneously in the past present and the future     Navigating the Transnational in Modern American Literature and Culture Tara Stubbs,Doug Haynes,2017-03-16 This study develops the important work carried out on American literature through the frameworks of transnational transatlantic and trans local studies to ask what happens when these same aspects become intrinsic to the critical narrative Much cultural criticism since the 1990s has sought to displace perceptions of American exceptionalism with broader notions of Atlanticism transnationalism world system and trans localism as each has redefined the US and the world more generally This collection shows how the remapping of America in terms of global networks and as a set of particular localities or even glocalities now plays out in Americanist scholarship reflecting on the critical consequences of the spatial turn in American literary and cultural studies Spanning twentieth and twenty first century American poetry fiction memoir visual art publishing and television and locating the US in Caribbean African Asian European and other contexts this volume argues for a re modelling of American ness with the transnational as part of its innate rhetoric It includes discussions of travel migration disease media globalization and countless other examples of inflowing Essays focus on subjects tracing the contemporary contours of the transnational such as the role of the US in the rise of the global novel the impact of Caribbean history on American thought and vice versa transatlantic cultural and philosophical genealogies and correspondences and the exchanges between the poetics of American space and those of other world spaces Asking questions about the way the American eye has traversed and consumed the objects and cultures of the world but how that world is resistant this volume will make an important contribution to American and Transatlantic literary studies     Perspectives in Information Science H. Debons,W.J. Cameron,2013-03-13 What is Information Science What does a person do as an Information Scientist The yearning for replies to these queries so far is unabated Meanwhile those who have dedicated their interest to information ponder the possible answers and issues It is not surprising to realize that man has always been interested in information in producing it in using it in preserving it But the past two or three decades have added new dimensions and new emphases in information studies With the increase in the production and availability of knowledge the need to understand more fully how to use it effectively has gathered greater momentum During the same period the nature and incidence of crisis situ ations whether public or private has demanded greater depend ence on timely delivery of data to make decisions and undertake action Moreover there has been a harvest of vast and significant technological developments to accompany these changes in social and individual states Information has gathered and continues to gather growing importance in the lives of individuals as well as nations Einführung in den neueren deutschen Vers Alfred Behrmann,2016-12-17

Economic Ironies Throughout History Michael Szenberg,L. Ramrattan,2014-12-04 Economics for Alfred Marshall the last of the classical economists is concerned with activities in the ordinary business of life In that milieu we find conflicts and chaotic behavior among people firms and countries which make them conduct their affairs in different and sometimes ironic ways Economic Ironies Throughout History explores explains predicts and harnesses these ironies for economists and scholars alike Szenberg and Ramrattan distill their core economic ironies from a vast history of philosophy and literature that applies to economic thought They include philosophical psychological literary and linguistic discussions and the personalities behind those ideas such as Socrates Kierkegaard Hume Freud Jung Saussure and Barthes This book is ideal for economists as well as scholars across the business social science and humanities fields A World of Letters Nicholas A. Basbanes,2008-01-01 For Yale University Press which celebrates its hundredth birthday in 2008 the century has been an eventful one punctuated with no few surprises The Press has published more than 8 000 volumes through the years scores of bestsellers and award winners among them and these books have come to fruition through the efforts of a host of colorful authors editors directors board members and others of intellectual and literary renown With an ear always cocked for an interesting tale one of today s best storytellers presents an anecdote rich chronicle of the Press s first 100 years Nicholas Basbanes whom David McCullough has called the leading authority of books about books quickly convinces us that the Press s history while bookish is also lively and fascinating Basbanes explores the saga behind the acquisition of Eugene O Neill s blockbuster play the all time Yale bestseller Long Day s Journey into Night the controversy sparked in 1965 by publication of The Vinland Map the origins of the groundbreaking Annals of Communism series initiated in the wake of the Soviet Union s demise and many more highlights from Press annals Basbanes looks at the reasons behind the publisher s remarkable financial success and he completes A World of Letters with a glimpse at the new initiatives that will propel the Press into a second exciting century Being Creative: Be inspired.
