Choosing and Using Curriculum Joyce Herzog, 2015-03-16 Have you ever asked yourself any of these questions What am I doing Why am I doing it that way Are there other ways Which way is best for my family Where do I get the resources I need to make it happen How do I avoid over spending on curriculum This book is a wealth of information Topics and chapters include Comparison of reading programs Comparison of math programs Developing written expression Adapting materials for special situations General homeschooling resources Resources for blind deaf and speech language Curriculum types and styles How to take a snapshot of your child s progress This book is a two hour read that will provide you with direction comfort and the means to make your homeschool some together in the ways you dream of It will help you clear your brain and know your mind and then find the resources you need to carry out your newly discovered vision You don t want to start homeschooling without it Public Education David C. Berliner, Carl Hermanns, 2022 Twenty eight eminent essayists remind our nations parents educators school board members and politicians that our democracy is in jeopardy and that our nation s system of free universal public education is also under attack If that attack succeeds American democracy itself would be further imperiled That is because American democracy rests on a belief that the power of our government comes from the people and the diffusion of knowledge and the enlightenment of the people has been a cornerstone of our democracy since the founding of our republic America s public schools therefore have a special mandate Homeschooling and Libraries Vera Gubnitskaia, Carol Smallwood, 2020-04-30 As families are looking for better ways to educate their children more and more of them are becoming interested and engaged in alternative ways of schooling that are different separate or opposite of the traditional classroom Homeschooling has become ever more creative and varied as families create custom tailored curricula assignments goals and strategies that are best for each unique child This presents a multitude of challenges and opportunities for information institutions including public academic school and special libraries The need for librarians to help homeschool families become information and media literate is more important than ever This collection of essays provides a range of approaches and strategies suggested by skilled professionals as well as veteran homeschool parents on how to best serve the diverse needs and learning experiences of homeschooled youth It includes information on needs assessments for special needs students gifted students and African American students advice on how to provide support for the families of homeschoolers case studies and information on new technologies that could benefit libraries and the homeschooler populations that they serve Beyond Single Stories Amy Allen, Anne Marie Kavanagh, Caitríona Ní Cassaithe, 2024-02-01 Every social studies curriculum tells a story It is increasingly apparent that new stories are needed to guide us through the multiple and intersecting crises that have come to define our times This accessible volume supports student teachers teachers and teacher educators to engage critically with the stories that social studies curricula tell and neglect to tell particularly those that relate and contribute to the root causes of contemporary social and ecological injustices

A balanced and inclusive curriculum necessitates a broad range of stories and perspectives not just the master narratives of dominant groups Incorporating a range of pedagogical approaches and spanning a diversity of themes from representations of Africa in Chinese textbooks to slavery and the American civil rights movement to refugees and the role of indigenous knowledge systems in addressing climate breakdown this volume includes and creatively engages with previously marginalized and silenced stories and perspectives Both practical and theoretical in its approach it seeks to provoke meaningfully support and inspire educators to incorporate alternative stories or counter narratives into their social studies teaching This unique volume is essential reading for student teachers teachers teacher educators as well as anyone interested in inspiring children and young people to be open minded critically engaged and empathetic agents of change committed to addressing realworld social and ecological injustices
