Because Our Story Will Never End:

Do Nothing Jonathan Cottrell, 2022-07-12 Do Nothing shares a strong message of how to accomplish something greater for Jesus Most religions proudly and regularly teach what their followers must do to reap spiritual rewards and climb the peaks of enlightenment But then there s Jesus Rather than tell His followers what they could do Christ taught believers that they could do nothing apart from Him John 15 5 Likewise the Son of God insisted that He could do nothing apart from His Father in heaven John 5 19 Unfortunately this is a message that has been largely forgotten among even the most well intentioned Christians and trendiest of churches Maybe it s a message that readers have never even heard In Do Nothing readers learn how to peacefully rest better discern and calmly walk forward in the completed work of Jesus Finally they can escape the burdensome mantras of today s culture which indoctrinate everyone everywhere to work hard hustle earn it make it happen try harder and do something So much doing Jesus offers a much easier way in fact He is the way And He accomplishes everything He begins

The Stemming Principle George J. Mardo, 2010 Within these confines there is a constant that everything stems from something Man entering these confines is in a state of awareness that a being greater than himself exists

Seductions in Narrative Gemma López, 2007 Seductions in Narrative is a highly original academic study which provides a critical discourse in which desire narrative and subjectivity are explored Through the critical reading of two novels by contemporary English authors Angela Carter and Jeanette Winterson the book cleverly assesses the ways in which desire allows the subject to imagine an alternative utopian location where a narrative of the self in all its multiplicity and ambiguity can be effected This book is unique as general studies on these issues tend to focus on the literature produced over the nineteenth century but not on contemporary literature The pieces which examine desire and narrative in contemporary novels tend to do so in the work of post colonial authors Specific works on the production of Angela Carter and Jeanette Winterson also tend to focus on a somewhat close reading of their novels but do not make use of their fiction in order to debate specific poststructuralist issues as this book successfully undertakes

From Illness to Exodus Jonathan Weinkle, 2025-01-31 Being sick especially being chronically ill can feel like being trapped in a narrow place with no way out Even professional healers can feel trapped not knowing how to lift that person up One of the oldest stories in the world the exodus is a tale of escaping that kind of trap This book uses the story of the exodus to help understand illness and healing the narrow space and the way out From Illness to Exodus asks hard questions about illness loss and suffering questions that literally keep people up all night using the traditional Passover seder and its text the Haggadah as a template It invites the ill person and healer alike to address these questions with compassion curiosity and a mature faith that can handle the uncertainty of being human

After the End of History Samuel Cohen, 2009-10-01 In this bold book Samuel Cohen asserts the literary and historical importance of the period between the fall of the Berlin wall and that of the Twin Towers in New York With refreshing clarity he examines six 1990s novels and two post 9 11 novels that explore the impact of the end of the Cold War Pynchon's Mason Dixon Roth's American Pastoral Morrison's Paradise O'Brien's In the Lake of the Woods Didion's The Last Thing He Wanted Eugenides's Middlesex Lethem's Fortress of Solitude and DeLillo's Underworld Cohen emphasizes how these works reconnect the past to a present that is ironically keen on denying that connection Exploring the ways ideas about paradise and pastoral difference and exclusion innocence and righteousness triumph and trauma deform the stories Americans tell themselves about their nation's past After the End of History challenges us to reconsider these works in a new light offering fresh insightful readings of what are destined to be classic works of literature At the same time Cohen enters into the theoretical discussion about postmodern historical understanding Throwing his hat in the ring with force and style he confronts not only Francis Fukuyama's triumphalist response to the fall of the Soviet Union but also the other literary and political end of history claims put forth by such theorists as Fredric Jameson and Walter Benn Michaels In a straightforward affecting style After the End of History offers us a new vision for the capabilities and confines of contemporary fiction

Soleiluna Emily Frances, 2024-04-30 Our story starts when ancient hearts reincarnate to tell the tale and as they unveil the mystery that links together all of history the secret knowledge that once was forbidden becomes unable to stay hidden but when the deception of the past begins to bubble the darkness conjures a conniving trouble however karma spins the wheel in the name of the light to set the world right and when the most powerful souls of the divine are alive once again to shine like the prophecies told a wonderful adventure is set to unfold as Luna meets Soleil when she crosses under the archway through the magical portal their past lives created and so their reunion was predestined and fated because life is like a poem that never ends and when they team up with their old friends they open so much more than just the ancient teleportation door as the farther they travel the more begins to unravel and is unfurled in this mythical fairytale world because with the powers of their mind they are able to find the treasures their past lives left behind and the truths that lie in the legends lost to time as they sing the everlasting rhyme and take the stage to vanquish the evil and kick off the golden age

No Tears for Carol Vaughn West Carol Vaughn West, Carol Vaughn West, 2009-05 No tears for Carol is the story of a courageous woman and her struggle to survive in a world she did not understand or feel she belonged in Borne into a world of the occult she escaped only to endure an incestuous childhood marked by terror and physical and emotional abuse which locked her away in a traumatic fog until she was seventeen years of age How much pain and abuse can one person endure The answer is endless as long as she is walking in the arms of her Heavenly Father This is my story It is a lifetime of memories pain terror and finally freedom It is a story of a shaky faith in a daddy God who never condemned the times I fell but rewarded me endlessly for the times I allowed Him to gently pick me up and try once more My life is like a movie as if I am walking this journey with you I see no faces in my childhood and I disassociate as though I were merely a spectator looking on I believe that life is an illusion a conglomerate of facts we tell ourselves to make it through the day and night I was a chameleon taking on the persona of those around me flowing from one dictator to the next In retrospect it was the knowledge that I was invisible that even the dead dry hay fed to the cattle had more value than I did That was my legacy from my mother I ask you not to focus on Carol but on Jesus Christ who walked this journey with me It was His love and strength that got me through it God did not want puppets to follow Him around so He gave man free will The people in my life chose to abuse me I also chose to abuse myself But Jesus told me He would Restore the years the locust have eaten and my friend He has done just that I believe my book will give hope courage and compassion to understand individuals who have such unfortunate afflictions
