Higgs, Michael Braswell, 2004 An Unholy Alliance offers a dissenting view to the claim by a growing number of scholars that Sports are a new religion The last few years have seen a spate of books that might be classified by a genre called Sports Apologetics that is arguments defending or celebrating in one way or another the familiar and ongoing alliance in America between sports and religion Recently claims have been made by scholars that sports are an authentic religion in and of themselves They make this startling assertion not by showing connections with the teachings of Buddha Jesus Mohammed or Moses but by parallels between the rites of modern games and those of preliterate man that were religious in nature because they were designed to propitiate powers and to ward off evil for the tribes employing them In this evocative book Higgs and Braswell suggest that while sports may often be good things they are not inherently divine They do not focus on wide spread abuse in sports as evidence for their counterargument Rather they question the use of mythological parallels from prehistory as justification for viewing sports as a religion All In One, One in All Thich Nhat Hanh, 2001-06-01 This body is not me I am not caught by this body I am life without boundaries I have never been born I will never die Look at me Look at the stars and the moon All of them are me manifestations of me This book contains transcripts of Dharma talks given by the world renowned Zen master Thich Nhat Hanh These teachings show us how mindfulness practice can bring about freedom no matter where you are and bring joy and hope to ourselves and others Visit Publisher's Website Kong Meng San Phor Kark See Monastery www.kmspks.org Love Beyond Death Elleke van Kraalingen, 2010-11-16 An autobiographical story about the love between a young Dutch woman and her Norwegian friend who is knocked down by a car and dies in front of her eyes In the middle of the chaos and terror she perceives how his soul withdraws from his body and watches the scene He stays with her that first difficult night An unusual dialogue develops in which he convinces her that there is a reality which goes beyond life and death and that their relationship continues in this reality In her sorrow love longing and curiosity about what is real she is willing to explore this contact with him This leads to an extraordinary voyage of discovery in the following months While she goes through her process of mourning he takes her into his world She moves out of her body several times going through experiences of other states of consciousness and travelling through spheres beyond the earthly dimension of time and space The Elements of Peace J.
