2003 Martin McDonagh has made a huge reputation for himself in internationally winning multiple awards for his work and enjoying universal critical acclaim. Most recently he won an Oscar for his short film Six Shooter (2006). This collection of essays is a vital and significant response to the many challenges set by McDonagh for those involved in the production and reception of his work. The volume brings together critics and commentators from around the world who assess the work from a diverse range of often provocative approaches. What is not surprising is the focus and commitment of the engagement given the controversial and at times whether for or against this is an essential read for all who wish to enter the complex debate about the Theatre of Martin McDonagh.

Martin McDonagh Richard Rankin Russell, 2007-11-15. This book represents the first collection of original critical material on Martin McDonagh, one of the most celebrated young playwrights of the last decade. Credited with reinvigorating contemporary Irish drama, his dark despairing comedies have been performed extensively both on Broadway and in the West End, culminating in an Olivier Award for The Pillowman and an Academy Award for his short film Six Shooter. In Martin McDonagh, Richard Rankin Russell brings together a variety of theoretical perspectives from globalization to the gothic to survey McDonagh's plays in unprecedented critical depth. Specially commissioned essays cover topics such as identity, politics, the shadow of violence, and the role of Catholicism in the work of this most precocious of contemporary dramatists. Contributors: Marion Castleberry, Brian Cliff, Joan Fitzpatrick, Dean Maria Doyle, Laura Eldred, Jos Lanters, Patrick Lonergan, Stephanie Pocock, Richard Rankin Russell, Karen Vandevelde.

My Three Angels Samuel Spewack, Bella Cohen Spewack, 1954-10. THE STORY: The scene is French Guiana, a region where on Christmas day the temperature has graciously dropped to 104 degrees. Three convicts are employed as roofers by a family whose roof is in desperate need of maintenance. On the way from France.

Mná Na Héireann Nicola Depuis, 2009. From Queen Medbh to Mary McAleese, Constance Markiewicz to Nell McCafferty, this is a collection of profiles of women who have shaped Ireland. For too long when people discuss Irish heroes and important figures, only men have been cited. Mná na Héireann addresses that tendency and offers an impressive array of women who have brought change and progress to Ireland. From the mythical era through the Middle Ages, the Plantation, the Famine, the struggle for independence, and the early years of the state right up to the twenty-first century, Mná na Héireann profiles over 50 formidable Irish women.

The Love Suicide at Schofield Barracks Romulus Linney, 1985. THE STORY: An Army general and his wife have committed a ritual double suicide during a Halloween party in the officers club at Schofield Barracks, and now an official court of inquiry has been convened to investigate their shocking and apparently senseless act. Those present at the affair and others who knew the general and his wife well are called to testify, and as tension mounts, a remarkable and compassionate portrait of the dead couple emerges, and with it, a shattering awareness of the significance of their deed. Each character in his testimony contributes yet another insight, another piece of the mosaic, until the suicide is finally revealed and understood as an act of expiatory self-sacrifice and a profound statement about war and killing, and the responsibility of the individual. In the final essence, the play becomes not
