Screening and Assessing Adolescents for Substance Use Disorders Ken C. Winters,1999 EXECUTIVE SUMMARY AND

concentrates on the strategies procedures and instruments that are appropriate for the initial detection of substance use disorders in adolescents the comprehensive assessment of their problems and subsequent treatment planning Although the TIP summarizes many instruments it does not endorse any screening or assessment tools The purposes of the TIP are several 1 To provide general guidelines for evaluating developing and administering screenings and assessment instruments and processes for those who screen and assess young people for substance use disorders 2 To inform a wide range of people whose work brings them in contact with adolescents in problem situations e g teachers guidance counselors school nurses police probation officers coaches and family service workers about the processes methods and tools available to screen for potential substance use problems in adolescents 3 To discuss strategies and accepted techniques that can be used by treatment personnel to detect related problems in the adolescent's life including problems with family and peers and psychiatric issues and to see that these problems are dealt with during the primary intervention for a substance use disorder 4 To outline a screening and assessment system designed to identify those youths with potential substance use problems in various settings Adolescents differ from adults physiologically and emotionally and are covered by different laws and social services This revised TIP is designed to help juvenile justice health and human service and substance use disorder treatment personnel better identify screen and assess people 11 to 21 years old who may be experiencing substance related problems The TIP details warning signs of substance use disorders among adolescents when to screen when to assess what domains besides substance use to assess and how to involve the family and other collaterals Also covered are the legal issues of screening and assessing teenagers including confidentiality duty to warn and how to communicate with other agencies The TIP also includes a chapter specifically for those working in the juvenile justice system who want to improve their screening and assessment procedures Appendix A lists the citations referred to throughout this TIP and relevant to the instrument summaries Appendix B provides up to date summaries of instruments relevant for screening and comprehensively assessing substance abusing adolescents Appendix C contains excerpts from Drug Testing of Juvenile Detainees a publication prepared by the American Correctional Association and the Institute for Behavior and Health Inc under a grant from the Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention Office of Justice Programs U S Department of Justice
