The Passion According To GH By Clarice Lispector:

The Passion According to G.H. Clarice Lispector, 2012-06-28 Lispector's most shocking novel The Passion According to G.H. Clarice Lispector's mystical novel of 1964 concerns a well-to-do Rio sculptress G.H. who enters her maid's room, sees a cockroach crawling out of the wardrobe and panicking, slams the door, crushing the cockroach and then watches it die. At the end of the novel, at the height of a spiritual crisis, comes the most famous and most genuinely shocking scene in Brazilian literature. Lispector wrote that of all her works, this novel was the one that best corresponded to her demands as a writer.

The Insectile and the Deconstruction of the Non/Human Fabienne Collignon, 2022-12-30 The Insectile and the Deconstruction of the Non Human defines, conceptualizes and evaluates the insectile pertaining to an entomological fascination in relation to subject formation. The book is driven by a central dynamic between form and formlessness, further staging an investigation of the phenomenon of fascination using Lacanian psychoanalysis, suggesting that the psychodrama of subject formation plays itself out entomologically. The book's engagement with the insectile, its enactments, cultural dreamwork, fantasy, transformations in forming the so-called human subject, undertakes a broader deconstruction of said subject and demonstrates the foundational but occluded role of the insectile in subject formation. It tracks the insectile across the archives of psychoanalysis, seventeenth-century still-life painting, novels from the nineteenth century to the present day, and post-1970s film. The Insectile and the Deconstruction of the Non Human will be of interest for scholars, graduate students, and upper-level undergraduates in film studies, visual culture, popular culture, cultural and literary studies, comparative literature, and critical theory, offering the insectile as a new category for theoretical thought. Philosophy with Clarice

Lispector Fernanda Negrete, 2024-04-04 This book examines Clarice Lispector's body of work, foregrounding its theoretical insights and exploring its philosophical questions, which are placed in conversation with a range of theoretical frameworks and approaches. Contributions to this volume engage with the philosophical dimension of one of the most important writers of the twentieth century. The book features essays by renowned and emerging philosophers and literary critics from multiple parts of the world, which examine Lispector's different novels, chronicles, and short stories, acknowledging their inherent theoretical claims and placing them in contact with other relevant theoretical angles. They develop conversations between Lispector and well-known philosophers on questions of time, being, writing, and risk, and they also explore Lispector's critiques of the human, the concept of woman, fertility, temporality, and the common binaries of life and death, and thought and feeling. This volume furthermore includes recent perspectives in psychoanalysis, ecofeminism, affect theory, theology, and black and decolonial studies, showing the generative effects of dialogue between these frameworks and Lispector's writing. Philosophy with Clarice Lispector will interest humanities scholars and graduate students who seek philosophical approaches to literary studies and literary perspectives on gender and sexuality, studies in theology and criticism, and theory. It will engage readers in pursuit of transdisciplinary methods and creative explorations of Clarice Lispector's writing that disclose her contribution to
