Jewish and Romani Families in the Holocaust and Its Aftermath Eliyana R. Adler, Katerina Capková, 2020-10-16 Despite the centrality of family in both Jewish and Romani cultures this is the first scholarly work to focus on the importance of the family in experiences of the Holocaust and its aftermath Scholars from the US Israel and across Europe have contributed new research from the family perspective
The Jewish Women of Ravensbrück Concentration Camp Rochelle G. Saidel, 2006-03-09 Ravensbrück was the only major Nazi concentration camp for women Located about fifty miles north of Berlin the camp was the site of murder by slave labor torture starvation shooting lethal injection medical experimentation and gassing While this camp was designed to hold 5 000 women the actual figure was six times this number Between 1939 and 1945 132 000 women from twenty three countries were imprisoned in Ravensbrück including political prisoners Jehovah's Witnesses asocials including Gypsies prostitutes and lesbians criminals and Jewish women who made up about 20 percent of the population Only 15 000 survived Drawing upon more than sixty narratives and interviews of survivors in the United States Israel and Europe as well as unpublished testimonies documents and photographs from private archives Rochelle Saidel provides a vivid collective and individual portrait of Ravensbrück's Jewish women prisoners She worked for over twenty years to track down these women whose poignant testimonies deserve to be shared with a wider audience and future generations Their memoirs provide new perspectives and information about satellite camps there were about 70 slave labor sub camps Here is the story of real daily camp life with the women s thoughts about food friendships fear of rape and sexual abuse hygiene issues punishment work and resistance Saidel includes accounts of the women s treatment their daily struggles to survive their hopes and fears their friendships their survival strategies and the aftermath On April 30 1945 the Soviet Army liberated Ravensbr ck They found only 3 000 extremely ill women in the camp because the Nazis had sent other remaining women on a death march The Jewish Women of Ravensbr ck Concentration Camp reclaims the lost voices of the victims and restores the personal accounts of the survivors Women's Life Writing and Imagined Communities Cynthia Anne Huff,2005 Recognising the great legacy of women s life writings this book draws on a wealth of sources to critically examine the impact of these writings on our communities Antisemitism Susan Sarah Cohen,1987 Honey for a Woman's Heart Gladys Hunt,2010-05-11 Vibrates with encouragement for women who want to explore and enjoy the world of books Gladys Hunt long time advocate of reading and author of the cherished Honey for a Child s Heart has written this new book for busy women who want a wider worldview and stimulus for intellectual and emotional growth Honey for a Woman s Heart explores The wonder of words language and reading What good books offer thoughtful readers What makes a good book The value of reading fiction Best books in genres of fiction nonfiction spirituality and poetry How to enjoy the best of books the Bible The pleasure of sharing books with others Something for everyone no matter what age or reading experience Recommendations for over 500 books to enjoy Pleasant words are a honeycomb sweet to the soul and healing to the bones Proverbs 16 24 New and Experimental Approaches to Writing Lives Jo Parnell,2019-08-01 With recent advances in digital technology a number of exciting and innovative approaches to writing lives have emerged from graphic memoirs to blogs and other visual verbal virtual texts This edited collection is a timely study of new approaches to writing lives including literary docu memoir autobiographical cartography social media life writing and autobiographical writing for children Combining literary theory with insightful critical approaches each essay offers a serious study of innovative forms of life writing with a view to reflecting on best practice and offering the reader practical guidance on methods and techniques Offering a range of practical exercises and an insight into cutting edge literary methodologies this is an inspiring and thought provoking companion for students of literature and creative writing studying courses on life writing memoir or creative non fiction

Jews, Germans, and Allies Atina Grossmann,2009-08-10 In the immediate aftermath of World War II more than a quarter million Jewish survivors of the Holocaust lived among their defeated persecutors in the chaotic society of Allied occupied Germany Jews Germans and Allies draws upon the wealth of diary and memoir literature by the people who lived through postwar reconstruction to trace the conflicting ways Jews and Germans defined their own victimization and survival comprehended the trauma of war and genocide and struggled to rebuild their lives In gripping and unforgettable detail Atina

Grossmann describes Berlin in the days following Germany's surrender the mass rape of German women by the Red Army the liberated slave laborers and homecoming soldiers returning political exiles Jews emerging from hiding and ethnic German refugees fleeing the East She chronicles the hunger disease and homelessness the fraternization with Allied occupiers and the complexities of navigating a world where the commonplace mingled with the horrific Grossmann untangles the stories of Jewish survivors inside and outside the displaced persons camps of the American zone as they built families and reconstructed identities while awaiting emigration to Palestine or the United States She examines how Germans and Jews interacted and competed for Allied favor benefits and victim status and how they sought to restore normality in work in their relationships and in their everyday encounters Jews Germans and Allies shows how Jews were integral participants in postwar Germany and bridges the divide that still exists today between German history and Jewish studies

A Polish Doctor in the Nazi Camps Barbara Rylko-Bauer, 2014-02-24 Jadwiga Lenartowicz Rylko known as Jadzia Yah jah was a young Polish Catholic physician in Lodz at the start of World War II Suspected of resistance activities she was arrested in January 1944 For the next fifteen months she endured three Nazi concentration camps and a forty two day death march spending part of this time working as a prisoner doctor to Jewish slave laborers A Polish Doctor in the Nazi Camps follows Jadzia from her childhood and medical training through her wartime experiences to her struggles to create a new life in the postwar world Jadzia's daughter anthropologist Barbara Rylko Bauer constructs an intimate ethnography that weaves a personal family narrative against a twentieth century historical backdrop As Rylko Bauer travels back in time with her mother we learn of the particular hardships that female concentration camp prisoners faced The struggle continued after the war as Jadzia attempted to rebuild her life first as a refugee doctor in Germany and later as an immigrant to the United States Like many postwar immigrants Jadzia had high hopes of making new connections and continuing her career Unable to surmount personal economic and social obstacles to medical licensure however she had to settle for work as a nurse's aide As a contribution to accounts of wartime experiences Jadzia's story stands out for its sensitivity to the complexities of the Polish memory of war Built upon both historical research and conversations between mother and daughter the story combines Jadzia's voice and Rylko Bauer's own journey of rediscovering her family's past The result is a powerful narrative about struggle survival displacement and memory augmenting our understanding of a horrific period in human history and the struggle of Polish immigrants in its aftermath

After Memory Matthias Schwartz, Nina Weller, Heike Winkel, 2021-06-08 Even seventy five years after the end of World War II the commemorative cultures surrounding the War and the Holocaust in Central Eastern and South Eastern Europe are anything but fixed The fierce debates on how to deal with the past among the newly constituted nation states in these regions have already received much attention by scholars in cultural and memory studies The present volume posits that literature as a medium can help us understand the shifting attitudes towards World War II and the Holocaust in post Communist Europe in recent years These shifts point to new commemorative cultures shaping up after memory Contemporary literary representations of World War II and the Holocaust in Eastern Europe do not merely extend or replace older practices of remembrance and testimony but reflect on these now defunct or superseded narratives New narratives of remembrance are conditioned by a fundamentally new social and political context one that emerged from the devaluation of socialist commemorative rituals and as a response to the loss of private and family memory narratives The volume offers insights into the diverse literatures of Eastern Europe and their ways of depicting the area's contested heritage

Stitches in Time Lucy Adlington, 2016-08-11 Riffing through the wardrobes of years gone by costume historian Lucy Adlington reveals the rich stories underlying the clothes we wear in this stylish tour of the most important developments in the history of fashion from ancient times to the present day Starting with underwear did you know Elizabeth I owned just one pair of drawers worn only after her death she moves garment by garment through Western attire exploring both the items we still wear every day and those that have gone the way of the dodo sugared petticoats farthingales and spatterdashers to name but a few Beautifully illustrated throughout and crammed with fascinating and eminently quotable facts Stitches in Time shows

Steven T. Katz, Shlomo Biderman, Gershon Greenberg, 2007-01-04 Publisher description Experience and Expression

Elizabeth R. Baer, Myrna Goldenberg, 2003-02-01 The introduction provides a thorough overview of the current status of research in the field and each essay seeks to push the theoretical boundaries that shape our understanding of women's experience and agency during the Holocaust and of the ways in which they have expressed their memories

Re-examining the Holocaust through Literature Aukje Kluge, Benn E. Williams, 2009-03-26 In the late 1980s Holocaust literature emerged as a provocative but poorly defined scholarly field The essays in this volume reflect the increasingly international and pluridisciplinary nature of this scholarship and the widening of the definition of Holocaust literature to include comic books fiction film and poetry as well as the more traditional diaries memoirs and journals Ten contributors from four countries engage issues of authenticity evangelicalism morality representation personal experience and wish fulfillment in Holocaust literature which have been the subject of controversies in the US Europe and the Middle East Of interest to students and instructors of antisemitism national and comparative literatures theater film history literary criticism religion and Holocaust studies this book also contains an extensive bibliography with references in over twenty languages which seeks to inspire further research in an international context
