Tove Jansson Life, Art, Words Boel Westin, 2013-12-18 The Finnish Swedish writer and artist Tove Jansson achieved worldwide fame as the creator of the Moomin stories written between 1945 and 1970 and still in print in more than twenty languages However the Moomins were only a part of her prodigious output Already admired in Nordic art circles as a painter cartoonist and illustrator she would go on to write a series of classic novels and short stories She remains Scandinavia's best loved author Tove Jansson's work reflected the tenets of her life her love of family and special bond with her mother of nature and her insistence on freedom to pursue her art Love and work was the motto she chose for herself and her approach to both was joyful and uncompromising If her relationships with men foundered on her ambivalence towards marriage those with women came as a revelation especially the love and companionship she found with her long time partner the artist Tuulikki Pietil with whom she lived on the solitary island of Klovharu In this meticulously researched authorised biography Boel Westin draws together the many threads of Jansson s life from the studies interrupted to help her family the dark shades of war and her emergence as an artist with a studio of her own to the years of Moomin mania and later novel writing Based on numerous conversations with Tove and unprecedented access to her journals letters and personal archives Tove Jansson Life Art Words offers a rare and privileged insight into the world of a writer whom Philip Pullman described simply as a genius The Summer Book Tove Jansson,2016-01-20 The Summer Book Arabic Edition by Tove Jansson The Idea of North Peter Davidson,2005-04-15 on the threshold of individual life Like Death Guy De Maupassant, 2017-02-21 A devastating novel about the treachery of love by Maupassant now in a new translation by National Book Award and Pulitzer Prize winning poet and translator Richard Howard Olivier Bertin is at the height of his career as a painter After making his name as a young man with his Cleopatra he has gone on to establish himself as the chosen painter of Parisiennes the most adroit and ingenious artist to reveal their grace their figures and their souls And though his hair may be white he remains a handsome vigorous and engaging bachelor a prized guest at every table and salon Olivier's lover is Anne the Countess de Guilleroy the wife of a busy politician Their relationship is long standing close almost conjugal The countess's daughter is Annette and she is the spitting image of her mother in her lovely youth Having finished her schooling Annette is returning to Paris Her parents have put together an excellent match Everything is as it should be until the painter and countess are each seized by an agonizing suspicion like death In its devastating depiction of the treacherous nature of love Like Death is more than the equal of Swann's Way Richard Howard's new translation brings out all the penetration and poetry of this masterpiece of nineteenth century fiction

Reflections of a Nonpolitical Man Thomas Mann, 2021-05-18 A classic controversial book exploring German culture and identity by the author of Death in Venice and The Magic Mountain now back in print When the Great War broke out in August 1914 Thomas Mann like so many people on both sides of the conflict was exhilarated Finally the era of decadence that he had anatomized in Death in Venice had come to an end finally there was a cause worth fighting and even dying for or at least when it came to Mann himself writing about Mann immediately picked up his pen to compose a paean to the German cause Soon after his elder brother and lifelong rival the novelist Heinrich Mann responded with a no less determined denunciation Thomas took it as an unforgivable stab in the back The bitter dispute between the brothers would swell into the strange tortured brilliant sometimes perverse literary performance that is Reflections of a Nonpolitical Man a book that Mann worked on and added to throughout the war and that bears an intimate relation to his postwar masterpiece The Magic Mountain Wild and ungainly though Mann's reflections can be they nonetheless constitute as Mark Lilla demonstrates in a new introduction a key meditation on the freedom of the artist and the distance between literature and politics The NYRB Classics edition includes two additional essays by Mann Thoughts in Wartime 1914 translated by Mark Lilla and Cosima Mattner and On the German Republic 1922 translated by Lawrence Rainey Memories of Starobielsk Jozef

Czapski, 2022-03-01 Vivid accounts of life in a Soviet prison camp by the author of Inhuman Land Interned with thousands of Polish officers in the Soviet prisoner of war camp at Starobielsk in September 1939 Jozef Czapski was one of a very small number to survive the massacre in the forest of Katyn in April 1940 Memories of Starobielsk portrays these doomed men some with the detail of a finished portrait others in vivid sketches that mingle intimacy with respect as Czapski describes their struggle to remain human under hopeless circumstances Essays on art history and literature complement the memoir showing Czapski's lifelong engagement with Russian culture The short pieces on painting that he wrote while on a train traveling from Moscow to the Second Polish Army's strategic base in Central Asia stand among his most lyrical and insightful reflections on art
