The Teutonic Knights Henryk Sienkiewicz, 1943 The Teutonic Knights is an epic of medieval times and national destiny ranking as one of the highest achievements from the pen of Henryk Sienkiewicz the Nobel Prize winner for Literature in 1905 The novel follows the adventures of Macko a resourceful and wise veteran of war and his young nephew Zbyszko the symbol of a maturing nation as they struggle along with the unified peoples of Poland and Lithuania against the oppressive religious military order the Teutonic Knights Among the many memorable characters are Jurand a merciless bitter fighter consumed with revenge his daughter the innocent Danusia a girl of twelve who must face the barbarity of the German knighthood the strong willed Jagienka equally adept at shooting a crossbow or administering an estate Hlawa a Czech squire of noble birth who is as quick with his wit as he is with his axe Sanderus a peddler of religious relics and indulgences whose earthly cravings seem greater than any spiritual needs A host of other memorable characters fills the canvas set against lush almost magical forests dangerous marshes replete with tales of human heads walking on spider legs winter blizzards that blanket the world in a white wonderland all at once beautiful and foreboding Splendid castles are described here court hunts single combats that test valor and strength The customs of knights with their code of honor and feelings of love are adroitly explored The entirety culminates in one of the most important battles in medieval history the Battle of Grunwald The Teutonic Knights was published in America in 1900 in various competing translations of erratic quality Not until 1943 did a translation worthy of this masterpiece appear but unfortunately its release was limited to Great Britain

The Knights of the Cross Henryk Sienkiewicz, 2018-10-10 The romance of Sienkiewicz in this volume is perhaps the most interesting and fascinating he has yet produced It is in the very first rank of imaginative and historical romance The time and scene of the noble story are laid in the middle ages during the conquest of Pagan Lithuania by the military and priestly order of the Krzyzacy Knights of the Cross And the story exhibits with splendid force the collision of race passions and fierce violent individualities which accompanied that struggle Those who read it will in addition to their thrilling interest in the tragical and varied incidents gain no little insight into the origin and working of the inextinguishable race hatred between Teuton and Slav It was an unfortunate thing surely that the conversion of the heathen Lithuanians and

Zmudzians was committed so largely to that curious variety of the missionary the armed knight banded in brotherhood sacred and military To say the least his sword was a weapon dangerous to his evangelizing purpose He was always in doubt whether to present to the heathen the one end of it as a cross for adoration or the other as a point to kill with And so if Poland was made a Catholic nation she was also made an undying and unalterable hater of the German the Teutonic name and person
