modern writers Virgin Suicides Jeffrey Eugenides, 2024-03-15 Virgin suicides Jeffrey Eugenides, 2019 Suicide in Modern Literature Josefa Ros Velasco, 2022-01-01

This book analyzes the social and contextual causes of suicide the existential and philosophical reasons for committing suicide and the prevention strategies that modern fictional literature places at our disposal They go through the review of Modern fictional literature in the American and European geographical framework following the rationales that modern literature based on fiction can serve the purpose of understanding better the phenomenon of suicide its most inaccessible impulses and that has the potential to prevent suicide From the turn of the 20th century to the present debates over the meaning of suicide became a privileged site for efforts to discover the reasons why people commit suicide and how to prevent this behavior Since the French sociologist and philosopher mile Durkheim published his study Suicide A Study in Sociology in 1897 a reframing of suicide took place giving rise to a flourishing group of researchers and authors devoting their efforts to understand better the causes of suicide and to the formation of suicide prevention organizations A century later we still keep on trying to reach such an understanding of suicide the nature and nuances of its modern conceptualization to prevent suicidal behaviors The question of what suicide means in and for modernity is not an overcome one Suicide is an act that touches all of our lives and engages with the incomprehensible and unsayable Since the turn of the millennium a fierce debate about the state s role in assisted suicide has been adopted Beyond the discussion as to whether physicians should assist in the suicide of patients with unbearable and hopeless suffering the scope of the suicidal agency is much broader concerning general people wanting to die

Contested Terrain Keith Wilhite, 2022-12-01 Contested Terrain explores suburban literature between two moments of domestic crisis the housing shortage that gave rise to the modern era of suburbanization after World War II and the mortgage defaults and housing foreclosures that precipitated the Great Recession Moving away from scholarship that highlights the alienating placeless quality of suburbia Wilhite argues that we should reimagine suburban literature as part of a long literary tradition of U.S. regional writing that connects the isolation and exclusivity of the domestic realm to the expansionist ideologies of U.S. nationalism and the environmental imperialism of urban sprawl Wilhite produces new unexpected readings of works by Sinclair Lewis Lorraine Hansberry Richard Yates Patricia Highsmith Don DeLillo Jonathan Franzen Jeffrey Eugenides Chang-rae Lee Richard Ford Jung Yun and Patrick Flanery Contested Terrain demonstrates how postwar suburban nation building ushered in an informal geography that recalibrated notions of national identity democratic citizenship and domestic security to the scale of the single family home

The Ethical Foundations of Postmodernity Nina Michaela von Dahlern, Nina Michaela Von Dahlern, 2013-07 A return to ethics which began in the 1980s and 1990s and is still predominant today has been ascribed to literary studies and theory In this book theoretical issues within ethics are discussed based on the examples of literary analyses The authors examined

are Margaret Atwood Jeffrey Eugenides and Robert M Pirsig The main questions concern the foundation on which ethical concepts are based and the way in which such concepts function These topics are evidently connected to matters of human concepts and human nature in general which are understood to be fundamentally communicative Contrary to popular conclusions of relativity the need for a realist foundation of ethics implying universal validity will be revealed It is not only possible but also necessary to develop such an idea of ethics within a postmodern relativist framework A communicative foundationalist ethics will thus be designed With regard to literature an increasing emergence of first person narrative can be witnessed in addition to a new focus on a realist and more mimetic style after a peak of pluralist conceptions at the end of the twentieth and the beginning of the twenty first centuries The analysis of such narrative situations will reveal the significance of the narrative generation of individual personalities for an understanding of ethical questions The conflict between relativist and realist points of view centers on the postmodern critique of the individual The study of the literary generation of individuals will elucidate means of confronting this critique The theoretical background includes the poststructuralist and communicative concepts of Judith Butler and Seyla Benhabib as well as Ernst Tugendhat s analytical approach Nina von Dahler studied English language and literature philosophy sociology and educational sciences at the Universities of Hamburg and Heidelberg This book is based on her Ph D thesis

Death in American Texts and Performances Mark Pizzato, 2016-05-13 How do twentieth and twenty first century artists bring forth the powerful reality of death when it exists in memory and lived experience as something that happens only to others Death in American Texts and Performances takes up this question to explore the modern and postmodern aesthetics of death Working between and across genres the contributors examine literary texts and performance media including Robert Lowell s For the Union Dead Luis Valdez Dark Root of a Scream Amiri Baraka s Dutchman Thornton Wilder s Our Town John Edgar Wideman s The Cattle Killing Toni Morrison s Sula and Song of Solomon Don DeLillo s White Noise and Falling Man and HBO s Six Feet Under As the contributors struggle to convey the artist s crisis of representation they often locate the dilemma in the gap between artifice and nature where loss is performed and where remembering is sometimes literally reenacted through the bodily gesture While artists confront the impossibility of total recovery or transformation so must the contributors explore the gulf between real corpses and their literary or performative reconstructions Ultimately the volume shows both artist and critic grappling with the dilemma of showing how the aesthetics of death as absence is made meaningful in and by language
