Out of the Dark Wesley W. Bates, 2022-07-30 The exacting art of wood engraving is defined by presence and absence shadow and light black and white An arduous yet rewarding art form it requires an artistic eye and a dedication to technique in order to imbue each image with its own visual narrative Wood engraver Wesley W Bates the artist behind the acclaimed book The Point of the Graver demonstrates the power and precision of the form in his new collection Out of the Dark Bates brings to bear decades of experience deftly wielding his graver to coax vibrant and lifelike images from solid blocks of endgrain wood In so doing he frees each likeness not only from the blocks that hold them captive but also from the reaches of his prodigious imagination With a wide variety of engravings in Bates's unmistakable style and accompanying texts to bring the reader into the artist's studio Out of the Dark is a treat for all who appreciate the traditional form History of Humanity UNESCO, 2008-12-31 This is the seventh and final volume in this comprehensive guide to the history of world cultures throughout historical times Ripostes Philip Marchand, 1998 Ripostes is a collection of essays on some salient features of the Canadian literary landscape a number of which were first published in the Toronto Star many of which appear in these pages for the first time Included are essays on Atwood Findley Ondaatje and Margaret Laurence as well as thematic explorations of Canadian literature such as an account of the demise of the Survival school of Canadian writing a look at the recent history of the Writers Union of Canada an examination of the role of fathers in Canadian fiction a study of the strange attraction of many of our writers to the occult and so on The tone is considered and critical rather than celebratory although the essays are respectful of the genuine achievements of Canadian literature in the past few decades They try to clear the air as it were of boosterism political correctness and other attitudes which hinder the appreciation and reception of good writing This is an honest re appraisal of Canadian literature undertaken at a time when we need no longer be overcome with relief and euphoria over the fact that some of our authors are now world famous or at least world famous in Hoboken New Jersey
