The Stars My Destination By Alfred Bester:

The Stars My Destination Alfred Bester, 2011-06-06 5 in the Millennium SF Masterworks series a library of the finest science fiction ever written Science fiction has only produced a few works of actual genius and this is one of them Joe Haldeman 5 in the Millennium SF Masterworks series a library of the finest science fiction ever written Science fiction has only produced a few works of actual genius and this is one of them Joe Haldeman Bester at the peak of his powers is quite simply unbeatable James Lovegrove Marooned in outer space after an attack on his ship Nomad Gulliver Foyle lives to obsessively pursue the crew of a rescue vessel that had intended to leave him to die When it comes to pop culture Alfred Bester 1913 1987 is something of an unsung hero He wrote radio scripts screenplays and comic books in which capacity he created the original Green Lantern Oath But Bester is best known for his science fiction novels and The Stars My Destination may be his finest creation With its sly potshotting at corporate skullduggery The Stars My Destination seems utterly contemporary and has maintained its status as an underground classic for fifty years Bester fans should also note that iBooks has reprinted ReDemolished which won the very first Hugo Award in 1953 The Stars My Destination Alfred Bester, 1996 In this pulse quickening novel Alfred Bester imagines a future in which people jaunt a thousand miles with a single thought where the rich barricade themselves in labyrinths and protect themselves with radioactive hit men and where an inarticulate outcast is the most valuable and dangerous man alive Alfred Bester's: The Stars: My Destination Byron Preiss, Alfred Bester's the Stars My Destination Alfred Bester, 1979 Marooned in space after an attack on his ship Nomad Gulliver Foyle lives to obsessively pursue the crew of a rescue vessel that intended to leave him to die Alfred Bester's The Stars My Destination D. Harlan Wilson, 2022-04-25 In this comprehensive study of The Stars My Destination D Harlan Wilson makes a case for the continued significance of Alfred Bester's SF masterwork exploring its distinctive style influences intertextuality affect and innovation as well as its extensive metafictional properties In Stars Bester established himself as a son of the pulp SF and high modernist writers that preceded him and a forefather to the New Wave and cyberpunk movements that followed his lead Wilson's study depicts Bester as an SF insider as much as an outlier writing in the spirit of the genre but breaking with the fixation on hard science in favor of psychological interiority literary experimentation and adult themes The book combines close readings of the novel with broader concerns about contemporary media technoculture and the current state of SF itself In Wilson's view SF is a moribund artform and Stars foresaw the inevitable science fictionalization of our benighted world With scholarly lucidity and precision Wilson shows us that Stars pointed the way to what we have unbecome Alfred Bester Carolyn Wendell, 1982-01-01 A chronology study annotated bibliography of Bester's works both within and outside of the science fiction genre Alfred Bester's the Stars My Destination Alfred Bester, Byron Preiss, 1957 Marooned in space after an attack on his ship Nomad Gulliver Foyle lives to obsessively pursue the crew of a rescue vessel that intended to leave him to die The Complete Alfred Bester's Stars My Destination Alfred Bester, 2012-10

Special hardcover limited edition of the graphic novel adaptation of Alfred Bester's The Stars My Destination. This production is one of the first sophisticated full color American graphic novels first published in 1979. 5 in the Millennium SF Masterworks series, a library of the finest science fiction ever written. Science fiction has only produced a few works of actual genius and this is one of them. Joe Haldeman. Bester at the peak of his powers is quite simply unbeatable. James Lovegrove. Marooned in outer space after an attack on his ship Nomad, Gulliver Foyle lives to obsessively pursue the crew of a rescue vessel that had intended to leave him to die. When it comes to pop culture, Alfred Bester 1913-1987 is something of an unsung hero. He wrote radio scripts, screenplays, and comic books in which capacity he created the original Green Lantern Oath. But Bester is best known for his science fiction novels and The Stars My Destination may be his finest creation. With its sly potshotting at corporate skullduggery, The Stars My Destination seems utterly contemporary and has maintained its status as an underground classic for fifty years. Bester fans should also note that iPicturebooks has reprinted The Demolished Man, which won the very first Hugo Award in 1953. Alfred Bester was among the first important authors of contemporary science fiction. His passionate novels of worldly adventure, high intellect, and tremendous verve, The Stars My Destination and the Hugo Award-winning The Demolished Man, established Bester as a science fiction grandmaster, a reputation that was ratified by the Science Fiction Writers of America shortly before his death. Bester also was an acclaimed journalist for Holiday magazine, a reviewer for the Magazine of Fantasy and Science Fiction, and even a writer for Superman.

Extraterrestrial Altruism

Douglas A. Vakoch, 2013-09-14. Extraterrestrial Altruism examines a basic assumption of the Search for Extraterrestrial Intelligence (SETI): that extraterrestrials will be transmitting messages to us for our benefit. This question of whether extraterrestrials will be altruistic has become increasingly important in recent years as SETI scientists have begun contemplating transmissions from Earth to make contact. Technological civilizations that transmit signals for the benefit of others but with no immediate gain for themselves certainly seem to be altruistic. But does this make biological sense? Should we expect altruism to evolve throughout the cosmos, or is this only wishful thinking? Is it dangerous to send messages to other worlds as Stephen Hawking has suggested, or might humankind benefit from an exchange with intelligence elsewhere in the galaxy? Would extraterrestrial societies be based on different ethical principles, or would we see commonalities with Earthly notions of morality? Extraterrestrial Altruism explores these and related questions about the motivations of civilizations beyond Earth, providing new insights that are critical for SETI. Chapters are authored by leading scholars from diverse disciplines: anthropology, astronomy, biology, chemistry, computer science, cosmology, engineering, history of science, law, philosophy, psychology, public policy, and sociology. The book is carefully edited by Douglas Vakoch, Director of Interstellar Message Composition at the SETI Institute and professor of clinical psychology at the California Institute of Integral Studies. The Foreword is by Frank Drake. This interdisciplinary book will benefit everybody trying to understand whether evolution and ethics are unique to Earth or whether they are built into the fabric of the universe.

Palumbo, 2014-11-05 One of the great intellectual achievements of the 20th century Joseph

Campbell's The Hero with a Thousand Faces is an elaborate articulation of the monomyth, the narrative pattern underlying countless stories from the most ancient myths and legends to the films and television series of today. The monomyth's fundamental storyline, in Campbell's words, sees the hero venture forth from the world of the common day into a region of supernatural wonder; fabulous forces are there encountered and a decisive victory is won; the hero comes back from this mysterious adventure with the power to bestow boons to his fellow man. Campbell asserted that the hero is each of us; thus the monomyth's endurance as a compelling plot structure. This study examines the monomyth in the context of Campbell's The Hero and discusses the use of this versatile narrative in 26 films and two television shows produced between 1960 and 2009, including the initial Star Wars trilogy (1977, 1983), The Time Machine (1960), Logan's Run (1976), Escape from New York (1981), Tron (1982), The Terminator (1984), The Matrix (1999), the first 11 Star Trek films (1979–2009), and the Sci-Fi Channel's miniseries Frank Herbert's Dune (2000) and Frank Herbert's Children of Dune (2003).
