I Am Legend as American Myth: Amy J. Ransom, 2018-07-05. Richard Matheson's 1954 novel I Am Legend has spawned a series of iconic horror and science fiction films, including The Last Man on Earth (1964), The Omega Man (1971), and I Am Legend (2007). The compelling narrative of the last man on earth struggling to survive a pandemic that has transformed the rest of humanity into monsters has become an American myth. While the core story remains intact, filmmakers have transformed the details over time, reflecting changing attitudes about race and masculinity. This reexamination of Matheson's novel situates the tale of one man's conflicted attitude about killing racialized others within its original post-World War II context, engaging the question of post-traumatic stress disorder. The author analyzes the several film adaptations with a focus on the casting and interpretations of protagonist Robert Neville.

Philosophy and Film: Christina Rawls, Diana Neiva, Steven S. Gouveia, 2019-04-25. This volume collects twenty original essays on the philosophy of film. It uniquely brings together scholars working across a range of philosophical traditions and academic disciplines to broaden and advance debates on film and philosophy. The book includes contributions from a number of prominent philosophers of film, including Noël Carroll, Chris Falzon, Deborah Knight, Paisley Livingston, Robert Sinnerbrink, Malcolm Turvey, and Thomas Wartenberg. While the topics explored by the contributors are diverse, there are a number of thematic threads that connect them. Overall, the book seeks to bridge analytic and continental approaches to philosophy of film in fruitful ways. Moving to the individual essays, the first two sections offer novel takes on the philosophical value and the nature of film. The next section focuses on the film as philosophy debate. Section IV covers cinematic experience, while Section V includes interpretations of individual films that touch on questions of artificial intelligence race and film and cinema's biopolitical potential Finally the last section proposes new avenues for future research on the moving image beyond film This book will appeal to a broad range of scholars working in film studies theory and philosophy The Complete Index to Literary Sources in Film Alan Goble, 2011-09-08 No detailed description available for The Complete Index to Literary Sources in Film The New York Times Encyclopedia of Film Gene Brown, 1984 The Invisible Art of Film Music Laurence E.
