The Colossus Of Maroussi By Henry Miller:

The Colossus of Maroussi Henry Miller, 2010-05-18 Henry Miller's landmark travel book now reissued in a new edition is ready to be stuffed into any vagabond's backpack. Like the ancient colossus that stood over the harbor of Rhodes, Henry Miller's The Colossus of Maroussi stands as a seminal classic in travel literature. It has preceded the footsteps of prominent travel writers such as Pico Iyer and Rolf Potts. The book Miller would later cite as his favorite began with a young woman's seductive description of Greece. Miller headed out with his friend Lawrence Durrell to explore the Grecian countryside; a flock of sheep nearly tramples the two as they lie naked on a beach; the Greek poet Katsimbali; the colossus of Miller's book stirs every rooster within earshot of the Acropolis; with his own loud crowing, cold hard-boiled eggs are warmed in a village's single stove; and they stay in hotels that have seen better days but which have an aroma of the past. Henry Miller's the Henry Miller Lawrence J. Shifreen, 1979 No descriptive material is available for this title In Byron's Shadow David Ernest Roessel, 2002 In Byron's Shadow draws on a wide range of sources to create a model for literary history that synthesizes literary investigation and cultural studies to develop a fuller understanding of the historical forces influencing the Anglo-American conception of modern Greece. Jacket Heidegger and Literary Studies Andrew Benjamin, 2023-11-08 Martin Heidegger is one of the most influential philosophers of the 20th Century and a key philosophical resource for literary critics. Not only has he written about poetry, generations of poets have engaged his writings. And yet for Heidegger, poetry and literature are separate. An essential part of the project of this book therefore is to show how both the distinction and connection between literature and poetry is staged within Heidegger's thought. It offers Heidegger's perspective on a range of key themes, topics, poets, and writers including Poetry and Poetics, Ancient Greek theatre and tragedies, and then specifically Friedrich Hölderlin, Thomas Mann, Paul Celan, Euripides, and Sophocles. As the chapters comprising this book make clear, Heidegger's work remains indispensable for any serious engagement with either literature or poetry today.

The Expatriate Perspective: American Novelists and the Idea of America Harold T. McCarthy, 1974 Assesses the attitudes toward America held by writers since the time of James Fenimore Cooper who have left the country to live in Europe. The Circumstellar Environment of Evolved Stars as Revealed by Studies of Circumstellar Water Masers Kevin Marvel, 1996-12 The dissertation presents the results of a multi-epoch, very long baseline interferometric study of water masers located in the extended atmospheres of evolved stars. The research was performed using the Very Long Baseline Array and Very Large Array of the National Radio Astronomy Observatory. Optical monitoring of the stars was provided by the American Association of Variable Star Observers, the Variable Star Network, and Dr. Bill Neely of the NF Observatory. Water masers were found to exist in a region where a population inversion of the rotation transition of 22 GHz can be maintained by collisional pumping. The masers are identified as individual pockets of gas which have the good velocity coherence and may be imaged using radio interferometry Stellar winds are initiated in these sources by dust formation and acceleration of the gas through momentum coupling The typical wind speeds in the region of the water masers are 10 to 20 km s The water masers are followed through several epochs of observation and exhibit proper motions consistent with the assumed source distance and the measured outflow of velocity in the water maser region Estimates of the distance to the sources using statistical approximation are in agreement with the currently accepted distances to the stars A detailed kinematic model is used to describe the flow motions of the gas in the maser region The regions are found to be complex and not well modeled by uniform radial outflow radial outflow with rotation or radial with acceleration The reasons for this are explored and include anisotropic velocity fields induced through non uniform dust formations near the star and incomplete sampling of the outflow due to a lack of detected masers Possibilities for future work in the subject are described and include more sophisticated modeling more sensitive observations and analysis of other maser species

The Enchantments of Mammon Eugene McCarraher, 2019-11-12 An extraordinary work of intellectual history as well as a scholarly tour de force a bracing polemic and a work of Christian prophecy McCarraher challenges more than 200 years of post Enlightenment assumptions about the way we live and work The Observer At least since Max Weber capitalism has been understood as part of the disenchantment of the world stripping material objects and social relations of their mystery and magic In this magisterial work Eugene McCarragher challenges this conventional view Capitalism he argues is full of sacrament whether one is prepared to acknowledge it or not First flowering in the fields and factories of England and brought to America by Puritans and evangelicals whose doctrine made ample room for industry and profit capitalism has become so thoroughly enmeshed in the fabric of our society that our faith in the market has become sacrosanct Informed by cultural history and theology as well as management theory The Enchantments of Mammon looks to nineteenth century Romantics whose vision of labor combined reason creativity and mutual aid for salvation In this impassioned challenge to some of our most firmly held assumptions McCarragher argues that capitalism has hijacked our intrinsic longing for divinity and urges us to break its hold on our souls A majestic achievement It is a work of great moral and spiritual intelligence and one that invites contemplation about things we can't afford not to care about deeply Commonweal More brilliant more capacious and more entertaining page by page than his most ardent fans dared hope The magnitude of his accomplishment an account of American capitalism as a religion will stun even skeptical readers Christian Century Edinburgh Companion to Twentieth-Century Literatures in English

Brian McHale, 2006-06-28 An imaginatively constructed new literary history of the twentieth century This companion with a difference sets a controversial new agenda for literary historical analysis Far from the usual forced march through the decades genres and national literatures this reference work for the new century cuts across familiar categories focusing instead on literary hot spots Freud's Vienna and Conrad's Congo in 1899 Chicago and London in 1912 the Somme in July 1916 Dublin London and Harlem in 1922 and so on down to Bradford and Berlin in 1989 the fatwa against Salman Rushdie the new digital media Stockholm in 1993 Toni Morrison's Nobel Prize and September 11 2001 Travelers to an Antique Land Robert Eisner, 1991 Stories of scholars writers artists and explorers woven together in a narrative of Greek travel

The Colossus of Maroussi. [Travel Book]. (Repr.). ,1980 London Magazine ,1963 Minos and the Moderns Theodore Ziolkowski, 2008-07-17 Minos and the Moderns considers three mythological complexes that enjoyed a unique surge of interest in early twentieth century European art and literature Europa and the bull the minotaur and the labyrinth and Daedalus and Icarus All three are situated on the island of Crete and are linked by the figure of King Minos Drawing examples from fiction poetry drama painting sculpture opera and ballet Minos and the Moderns is the first book of its kind to treat the role of the Cretan myths in the modern imagination Beginning with the resurgence of Crete in the modern consciousness in 1900 following the excavations of Sir Arthur Evans Theodore Ziolkowski shows how the tale of Europa in poetry drama and art but also in cartoons advertising and currency was initially seized upon as a story of sexual awakening then as a vehicle for social and political satire and finally as a symbol of European unity In contrast the minotaur provided artists ranging from Picasso to Durrenmatt with an image of the artist's sense of alienation while the labyrinth suggested to many writers the threatening sociopolitical world of the twentieth century Ziolkowski also considers the roles of such modern figures as Marx Nietzsche and Freud of travelers to Greece and Crete from Isadora Duncan to Henry Miller and of the theorists and writers including T S Eliot and Thomas Mann who hailed the use of myth in modern literature Minos and the Moderns concludes with a summary of the manners in which the economic aesthetic psychological and anthropological revisions enabled precisely these myths to be taken up as a mirror of modern consciousness The book will appeal to all readers interested in the classical tradition and its continuing relevance and especially to scholars of Classics and modern literatures

The Cycle of Life Erel Shalit,2011-09-25 The art of life is the most distinguished and rarest of all the arts C G Jung CW 8 par 789 The Cycle of Life explores the patterns that unfold over the course of our lives as we set out to find our place in the world in our efforts to live authentically and in our search for home that place within ourselves that can so easily be neglected or disregarded in this fast paced modern world In the first half of life the task of the young traveler is to depart from home to adventure out into the world to find his or her own individual path However in the second half we find ourselves on what often amounts to a very long journey in search of home In many a tale the hero for instance Gilgamesh sets off on his road to find life s elixir while other stories such as the Odyssey revolve around the hero s long and arduous journey home Many are also familiar with the journey of Dante who at the very beginning of his Divine Comedy finds himself Midway along the journey of our life The archetypal journey of life is constantly reenacted in the never ending process of individuation We find ourselves returning to this venture repeatedly every night as we set out on our voyage into the landscape of our unconscious Many dreams begin by being on the way for instance I am on my way to I am driving on a road that leads into the desert I am walking through one room after the other in a long corridor like building I am walking towards my office but it looks different than in reality I walk on the pavement and on the opposite side of the street someone seems to be following me I go down into an underground parking I am in my car but someone I don t know is driving I have to go to the place from where I came
