The Psychoanalysis of Fire Gaston Bachelard, 1987-01-30 Bachelard is neither a self confessed and tortured atheist like Satre nor like Chardin a heretic combining a belief in God with a proficiency in modern science But within the French context he is almost as important as they are because he has a pseudo religious force without taking a stand on religion To define him as briefly as possible he is a philosopher with a professional training in the sciences who devoted most of the second phase of his career to promoting that aspect of human nature which often seems most inimical to science the poetic imagination J G Weightman The New York Times Review of Books

The Voice of the Mother Jo Malin, 2000 Analyzing this narrative practice Malin examines ten texts by women who seem particularly compelled to tell their mothers stories Each author is in fact able to write her own autobiography only by using a narrative form that contains her mother s story at its core These texts raise interesting questions about autobiography as a genre and about a feminist writing practice that resists and subverts the dominant literary tradition

Sense of Place, Identity and the Revisioning of Curriculum Terry Locke, 2023-08-12 This book explores intersections between sense of place the formation of identity indigeneity and colonisation literature and literary study the arts and a revisioned school curriculum for the Anthropocene Underpinning the book is a conviction that sense of place is central to the fostering of the change of heart required to secure the survival of human life on earth It offers a coherent overview of seemingly disparate realities on a geographically and historically sprawling canvas The book is a work of literary non fiction drawing on a range of sources literary works and criticism theoretical research empirical studies and artworks Of its very nature the book enacts an extensive cultural critique After establishing a cross disciplinary foundation for sense of place the book describes its relationship to identity with reference to such terms as attachment dispossession reclamation and representation It shows how a hopeful narrative for planet stewardship can be developed by the uptake of indigenous and traditional discourses of place It concludes with the envisioning of a place conscious curriculum and ways in which an activist agenda might be pursued in the Anthropocene

Architecture and Fire Stamatis Zografos, 2019-06-12 Architecture and Fire develops a conceptual reassessment of architectural conservation through the study of the intimate relationship between architecture and fire Stamatis Zografos expands on the general agreement among many theorists that the primitive hut was erected around fire locating fire as the first memory of architecture at the very beginning of architectural evolution Following the introduction Zografos analyses the archive and the renewed interest in the study of archives through the psychoanalysis of Jacques Derrida He moves on to explore the ambivalent nature of fire employing the conflicting philosophies of Gaston Bachelard and Henri Bergson to do so before discussing architectural conservation and the relationship between listed buildings the function of archives and the preservation of memories from the past The following chapter investigates how architecture evolves by absorbing and accommodating fire while the penultimate chapter examines the critical moment of architectural evolution the destruction of buildings by fire with a focus on the tragic disaster at London's Grenfell Tower in 2017 Zografos concludes with thoughts on Freud's drive theory He argues the practice of architectural conservation is an expression of the life drive and a simultaneous repression of the death drive which suggests controlled destruction should be an integral part of the conservation agenda Architecture and Fire is founded in new interdisciplinary research navigating across the boundaries of architecture conservation archival theory classical mythology evolutionary theory thermodynamics philosophy and psychoanalysis It will be of interest to readers working in and around these disciplines

The Oxford Handbook of Phenomenologies and Organization Studies François-Xavier de Vaujany, Jeremy Aroles, Mar Pérezts, 2023 Phenomenologies are a major stream of philosophy Our aim with this handbook is to explore critically and reflexively the plurality of phenomenologies and their becoming in the context of Management and Organization Studies We detail in the introduction the genealogy of the phenomenological moment and make a distinction between four streams of phenomenologies phenomenology as a phenomenological moment post phenomenologies anti phenomenologies and non phenomenologies Beyond many clichés about phenomenologies we argue that phenomenologies cultivate critical perspectives ontologies and even for some of them metaphysics that make them particularly interwoven with other philosophical traditions We draw implications for Management and Organization Studies as a field

Travel and Modernist Literature Alexandra Peat,2012-03-28 Through close readings of works from Henry James to W E B Du Bois and from Virginia Woolf to Jean Rhys this book discusses how fictional travelers negotiate and adapt various tropes of travel such as quest expatriation displacement and exile as models for their own journeys Specifically Peat considers the ethical dimensions of modernist travel from two distinct vantages The first focuses on the relationship between the secular and the sacred in modernist travel literature arguing that the recurrent narrative of secular travel is haunted by a desire for spiritual transcendence The second posits modernist travel fiction as a potentially positive example of transcultural relations consciously arguing against the received notion that travel during an imperial era is always by nature itself imperialist Throughout particular attention is paid to the transnational nature of modernism and the various global flows traced by modernist literature
