The Unheard A Memoir Of Deafness And Africa By Josh Swiller:

The Unheard Josh Swiller, 1994-09-30 A young man's quest to reconcile his deafness in an unforgiving world leads to a remarkable sojourn in a remote African village that pulsates with beauty and violence These are hearing aids They take the sounds of the world and amplify them Josh Swiller recited this speech to himself on the day he arrived in Mununga a dusty village on the shores of Lake Mweru Deaf since a young age Swiller spent his formative years in frustrated limbo on the sidelines of the hearing world encouraged by his family to use lipreading and the strident approximations of hearing aids to blend in It didn't work So he decided to ditch the well trodden path after college setting out to find a place so far removed that his deafness would become irrelevant That place turned out to be Zambia where Swiller worked as a Peace Corps volunteer for two years There he would encounter a world where violence disease and poverty were the mundane facts of life But despite the culture shock Swiller finally commanded attention everyone always listened carefully to the white man even if they didn't always follow his instruction Spending his days working in the health clinic with Augustine Jere a chubby world weary chess aficionado and a steadfast friend Swiller had finally found he believed a place where his deafness didn't interfere a place he could call home Until that is a nightmarish incident blasted away his newfound convictions At once a poignant account of friendship through adversity a hilarious comedy of errors and a gripping narrative of escalating violence The Unheard is an unforgettable story from a noteworthy new talent

Understanding Disability Studies and Performance Studies Bruce Henderson, Noam Ostrander, 2013-09-13 This collection brings together scholarship and creative writing that brings together two of the most innovative fields to emerge from critical and cultural studies in the past few decades Disability studies and performance studies It draws on writings about such media as live performance art photography silent film dance personal narrative and theatre using such diverse perspectives and methods as queer theory gender feminist and masculinity studies dance studies as well as providing first publication of creative writings by award winning poets and playwrights This book was based on a special issue of Text and Performance Quarterly

A Lens on Deaf Identities Irene W. Leigh, 2009-04-24 The last couple of decades have witnessed an explosion of self and identity related literature spurred in large part by the rapid growth of cultural racial and ethnic diversity in the population of the United States the desire to better understand the interface between identity and social groups and the question of whether confronting differences brings about changes in self representation Much of this literature has however often overlooked the fact that diversity encompasses other domains including disabilities such as deafness A Lens on Deaf Identities fills this gap by exploring identity formation in deaf persons How a deaf person develops in societies or groups with preconceived notions of disability deafness and what is best for deaf people has implications not only for the psychological well being and self esteem of the deaf person but also for what a deaf identity really means and who decides that identity The issue of identity formation amongst this population is fraught even the terminology used to describe people with deafness or hearing loss contradicts the notion of a single deaf experience Deaf deaf oral deaf Oral Hearing Loss hearing impaired acquired hearing loss deaf with a hearing mind and so on The book explores the major influences on deaf identity including the relatively recent formal recognition of a Deaf culture the different internalized models of disability and deafness the appearance of deaf identity theories in the psychological literature the presence of greater racial and ethnic diversity in deaf individuals technology such as the cochlear implant that strongly affects the identity of deaf people and deaf people s ongoing experiences of stigma and oppression A Lens on Deaf Identities will appeal to students and professional researchers in deaf studies and deaf education

Metagnosis Danielle Spencer,2020-10-08 This book identifies and names the phenomenon of metagnosis the experience of newly learning in adulthood of a longstanding condition It can occur when the condition has remained undetected e g colorblindness and or when the diagnostic categories themselves have shifted e g ADHD More broadly it can occur with unexpected revelations bearing upon selfhood such as surprising genetic test results This phenomenon has received relatively scant attention yet learning of an unknown condition is frequently a significant and bewildering revelation subverting narrative expectations and customary categories Talking Book Topics ,2010 Book Lust to Go Nancy Pearl,2010-06-01 Adventure is just a book away as bestselling author Nancy Pearl returns with recommended reading for more than 120 destinations both worldly and imagined around the globe From Las Vegas to the Land of Oz Naples to Nigeria Philadelphia to Provence Nancy Pearl guides readers to the very best fiction and nonfiction to read about each destination Even within one country she traverses decades to suggest titles that effortlessly capture the different eras that make up a region s unique history This enthusiastic literary globetrotting guide includes stops in Korea Sweden Afghanistan Albania Parma Patagonia Texas and Timbuktu Book Lust To Go connects the best fiction and nonfiction to particular destinations whether your bags are packed or your armchair is calling From fiction to memoir poetry to history Nancy Pearl s Book Lust to Go takes the reader on a globetrotting adventure no passport required New Directions in Travel Writing Studies Paul Smethurst,Julia Kuehn,2015-07-20 This collection focuses attention on theoretical approaches to travel writing with the aim to advance the discourse Internationally renowned as well as emerging scholars establish a critical milieu for travel writing studies as well as offer a set of exemplars in the application of theory to travel writing Digital Talking Books Plus ,2011 Deaf Subjects Brenda Jo Brueggemann,2009-05 In this probing exploration of what it means to be deaf Brenda Brueggemann goes beyond any simple notion of identity politics to explore the very nature of identity itself Looking at a variety of cultural texts she brings her fascination with borders and between places to expose and enrich our understanding of how deafness embodies itself in the world in the visual and in language Taking on the creation of the modern deaf subject Brueggemann ranges from the intersections of gender and deafness in the work of photographers Mary and Frances Allen at the turn of the last century to the state of the field of Deaf Studies at the beginning of our new century She explores the power and potential of American Sign Language wedged as she sees it between letter bound language and visual ways of learning and argues for a rhetorical approach and digital future for ASL literature The narration of deaf lives through writing becomes a pivot around which to imagine how digital media and documentary can be used to convey deaf life stories Finally she expands our notion of diversity within the deaf identity itself takes on the complex relationship between deaf and hearing people and offers compelling illustrations of the intertwined and sometimes knotted nature of individual and collective identities within Deaf culture

Far From The Tree Andrew Solomon, 2013-02-07 WINNER OF THE WELLCOME BOOK PRIZE 2014 A NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER Sometimes your child the most familiar person of all is radically different from you The saying goes that the apple doesn't fall far from the tree But what happens when it does Drawing on interviews with over three hundred families covering subjects including deafness dwarfs Down's Syndrome Autism Schizophrenia disability prodigies children born of rape children convicted of crime and transgender people Andrew Solomon documents ordinary people making courageous choices Difference is potentially isolating but Far from the Tree celebrates repeated triumphs of human love and compassion to show that the shared experience of difference is what unites us Winner of the National Book Critics Circle Award for General Non-fiction and eleven other national awards Winner of the Green Carnation Prize School Library Journal, 2007 Youth Cultures in America Simon J. Bronner, Cindy Dell Clark, 2016-03-21 What are the components of youth cultures today This encyclopedia examines the facets of youth cultures and brings them to the forefront Although issues of youth culture are frequently cited in classrooms and public forums most encyclopedias of childhood and youth are devoted to history human development and society A limitation on the reference bookshelf is the restriction of youth to pre adolescence although issues of youth continue into young adulthood This encyclopedia addresses an academic audience of professors and students in childhood studies American studies and culture studies The authors span disciplines of psychology sociology anthropology history and folklore The Encyclopedia of Youth Cultures in America addresses a need for historical social and cultural information on a wide array of youth groups Such a reference work serves as a corrective to the narrow public view that young people are part of an amalgamated youth group or occupy malicious gangs and satanic cults Widespread reports of bullying school violence dominance of athletics over academics and changing demographics in the United States has drawn renewed attention to the changing cultural landscape of youth in and out of school to explain social and psychological problems Living Better with Hearing Loss Katherine Bouton, 2015-06-09 More than 48 million Americans suffer from hearing loss and audiologists agree this is a national epidemic LIVING BETTER WITH HEARING LOSS is a practical guide to daily life with hearing loss covering topics from hearing tests and buying and paying for hearing aids to deciding whether to get a cochlear implant to navigating airports job interviews and first dates when you suffer from hearing loss Useful and readable for the newly hearing impaired those who have been struggling for years and their families Author Katherine Bouton has also written Shouting Won't Help a memoir of her adult onset hearing loss Zambia in Pictures Bella Waters, 2008-09-01 Describes the geography climate wildlife
