The Bad Example By Irmgard Keun:

Facing Fascism and Confronting the Past Elke P. Frederiksen, Martha Kaarsberg Wallach, 2000-06-08 Examines German women's literary and cultural representations of the Nazi era The Creative Tarot Jessa Crispin, 2016-02-16 A guide for artists and creative people looking to tarot for guidance and inspiration Written for novices and seasoned readers alike The Creative Tarot is a unique guidebook that reimagines tarot cards and the ways they can boost the creative process A History of Women's Writing in Germany, Austria and Switzerland Jo Catling, 2000-03-23 This volume makes the wide ranging work of German women writers visible to a wider audience It is the first work in English to provide a chronological introduction to and overview of women's writing in German speaking countries from the Middle Ages to the present day Extensive guides to further reading and a bibliographical guide to the work of more than 400 women writers form an integral part of the volume which will be indispensable for students and scholars of German literature and all those interested in women's and gender studies The Book Buyer's Guide, 1955 "Totally Un-English"? Richard Dove, 2005 The internment of enemy aliens by the British government in two world wars remains largely hidden from history British historians have treated the subject if at all as a mere footnote to the main narrative of Britain at war In the Great War Britain interned some 30 000 German nationals most of whom had been long term residents In fact internment brought little discernible benefit but cruelly damaged lives and livelihoods breaking up families and disrupting social networks In May 1940 under the threat of imminent invasion the British government interned some 28 000 Germans and Austrians mainly Jewish refugees from the Third Reich It was a measure which provoked lively criticism not least in Parliament where one MP called the internment of refugees totally un-English The present volume seeks to shed more light on this still submerged historical episode adopting an inter disciplinary approach to explore hitherto under researched aspects including the historiography of internment the internment of women deportation to Canada and culture in internment camps including such notable events as the internment revue What is Life New York Times Saturday Review of Books and Art, 1973 The Retail Bookseller, 1955 Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1956 Includes Part 1 Number 2 Books and Pamphlets Including Serials and Contributions to Periodicals July December Women Writers in German-Speaking Countries Elke P. Frederiksen, Elizabeth G. Ametsbichler, 1998-02-28 Women have contributed to the literature of German speaking countries since the Middle Ages and they continue to write important works at the close of the 20th century While research on texts by women writers in German speaking countries has increased substantially most of these authors remain virtually unknown to English speaking scholars and students The first work of its kind in English this reference book contains alphabetically arranged entries for 54 Austrian German and Swiss women writers such as Hrotsvit von Gandersheim Louise Aston Elfriede Jelinek and Erica Pedretti from the tenth century to the present day Each entry includes a biography a discussion of major themes a survey of criticism and a bibliography of primary and secondary sources An introductory essay overviews the history of literature by women in German speaking countries and an extensive bibliography concludes the volume Women have actively shaped literature in German speaking countries from the Middle Ages to the present day These authors continue to enrich the world of letters and an increasing amount of scholarly attention is given to their writings In spite of their contributions however most of these writers are virtually unknown to English speaking scholars and students And though one of the explicit goals of feminist literary and cultural studies has been to provide a voice to a multitude of diverse authors feminist research still seems to focus heavily on texts by authors such as Christa Wolf Ingeborg Bachmann and Bettina von Arnim or on certain periods in 19th and 20th century German literature and culture As a result many other women authors have faded into obscurity Through entries written by expert contributors this reference book provides insights into the life and writings of 54 women authors from German speaking countries Entries are arranged alphabetically to facilitate use while an appendix lists the writers chronologically Included are profiles of authors from the tenth century to the present day such as Hrotsvit von Gandersheim Louise Aston Elfriede Jelinek and Erica Pedretti Each entry includes a biography a discussion of major themes and stylistic features a survey of criticism and a bibliography of primary and secondary sources An introductory essay overviews the history of literature by women in German speaking countries and provides a theoretical context for the work and an extensive bibliography of secondary sources concludes the volume The Publishers Weekly ,1955 Library Journal ,1957
