

The background of the cover is a black and white photograph of a man in a dark suit and tie, looking down intently at an open book he is holding. The lighting is dramatic, casting shadows on the wall behind him. The overall tone is serious and intellectual.

Stoner By John Williams:

Stoner John Williams, 2012-11-30 This is the story of a quiet man destined to be a farmer but who becomes an academic. It is a book in which nothing and everything happens and is possibly the greatest novel you've never read. It's simply a novel about a guy who goes to college and becomes a teacher. But it's one of the most fascinating things that you've ever come across. Tom Hanks' Time William Stoner enters the University of Missouri at nineteen to study agriculture. A seminar on English literature changes his life and he never returns to work on his father's farm. Stoner becomes a teacher. He marries the wrong woman. His life is quiet and after his death his colleagues remember him rarely. Yet with truthfulness, compassion, and intense power, this novel uncovers a story of universal value of the conflicts, defeats, and victories of the human race that pass unrecorded by history and in doing so reclaims the significance of an individual life. A beautiful, sad, utterly convincing account of an entire life. Ian McEwan: A brilliant, beautiful, inexorably sad, wise and elegant novel. Nick Hornby INTRODUCED BY JOHN McGAHERN

Fictional Worlds and the Moral Imagination Garry L. Hagberg, 2020-12-11 This edited collection investigates the kinds of moral reflection we can undertake within the imaginative worlds of literature In philosophical contexts of ethical inquiry we can too easily forget that literary experience can play an important role in the cultivation of our ethical sensibilities Because our ethical lives are conducted in the real world fictional representations of this world can appear removed from ethical contemplation However as this stimulating volume shows the dichotomy between fact and fiction cannot be so easily categorised Moral perception moral sensitivity and ethical understanding more broadly may all be developed in a unique way through our imaginative life in fiction Moral quandaries are often presented in literature in ways more linguistically precise and descriptively complete than the ones we encounter in life whilst simultaneously offering space for contemplation The twelve original chapters in this volume examine literary texts including theatre and film in this light and taken together they show how serious reflection within fictional worlds can lead to a depth of humane insight The topics explored include the subtle ways that knowledge can function as a virtue issues concerning our relations to and understanding of each other the complex intertwining of virtues and vices in the modern world and the importance of bringing to light and reconsidering ethical presuppositions With an appreciation of the importance of richly contextualized particularity and the power of descriptive acuity the volume maps out the territory that philosophical reflection and literary engagement share Truth Is the Arrow, Mercy Is the Bow Steve Almond, 2024-04-09 The long awaited book about the craft of creative writing from Steve Almond beloved teacher mentor and author From the acclaimed author of twelve books of fiction and nonfiction including All the Secrets of The World and the New York Times bestsellers Candyfreak and Against Football comes a craft book that is at once irreverent and iconoclastic In Truth is the Arrow Mercy is the Bow Steve Almond employs the radical empathy he displayed as co host with Cheryl Strayed of the podcast Dear Sugars to explore the joys and trials of storytelling and to explode the myths that hold us back from writing our deepest and truest work The book includes chapters on plot character and chronology but travels far beyond the earnest intentions of most craft books It includes essays on humor sex writer's block and the dividends of failure as well as prompts to generate new work and a rollicking Frequently Asked Questions section You'll never think about writing the same way again Late Work Joan Frank, 2022-10-15 Curious ruminative and wry this literary autobiography tours what Rachel Kushner called the strange remove that is the life of the writer Frank's essays cover a vast spectrum from handling dismissive advice facing the dilemma of thwarted ambition and copying the generosity that inspires us to the miraculous catharsis of letter writing and some of the books that pull us through Useful for writers at any stage of development Late Work offers a seasoned artist's thinking through the exploration of issues paradoxes and crises of faith Like a lively conversation with a close outspoken friend each piece tells its experience from the trenches Nothing But the Night John Williams, 1990-01-01 First published in 1948 Nothing but the Night marked the auspicious beginning of John Williams' career as a novelist a career that would go on to include the classics Stoner and the National Book Award winning Augustus In the person of Arthur Maxley Williams investigates the terror and the waywardness of a man who has suffered an early traumatic experience As a child Maxley witnessed a scene of such violence and of such a nature that the evocation of Greek tragedy is inescapable now years later we move through a single significant day in the grown Arthur Maxley's life the day when he is to meet his father who has been absent for many years With rare economy and clarity the story moves at an ever increasing pace to its unforgettable end Stoner John Williams, John McGahern, 2017 Born the child of a poor farmer in Missouri William Stoner is urged by his parents to study new agriculture techniques at the state university Digging instead into the texts of Milton and Shakespeare Stoner falls under the spell of the unexpected pleasures of English literature and decides to make it his life Stoner is the story of that life Famous Last Lines Daniel Grogan, 2018-11-13 Famous Last Lines features the final sentences from 300 works of literature from Don Quixote to The Girl on the Train The closing words of any text carry a lot of weight Famous Last Lines unpacks more than 300 notable final lines from classical epics to contemporary short
