The Assault By Harry Mulisch:

The Assault Harry Mulisch, 2025-03-13 A timeless classic from the author of The Discovery of Heaven Acknowledged as Holland's finest novelist Guardian Mulisch is a rarity an instinctively psychological novelist John Updike With an introduction by Thomas Harding author of Hanns and Rudolf In the bitter final months of the Second World War the body of a Dutch Nazi collaborator is found on the doorstep of an ordinary family home The repercussions are complex and terrible the family is killed and the house burned to the ground only the twelve year old son Anton survives Following Anton as he reckons with this trauma through his life The Assault is a powerful excavation of resistance and the collateral damage wrought on innocent people in times of war A runaway bestseller that sold 200 000 copies on first publication this is a classic of Dutch literature from one of the greatest European writers of his time A Family Occupation Jolanda Vanderwal Taylor, 1997 A Family Occupation investigates Dutch language texts by well known authors which address the occupation and its aftermath in the lives of victims collaborators bystanders and Dutch internees in the prison camps of Indonesia It is the first English language introduction to writings by and about the Children of War and their cultural context Their themes and literary conventions throw an interesting light on the Dutch approach to issues such as guilt and innocence memory and narrative national identity victimhood child abuse post traumatic stress disorder amnesia and recovered memory Holocaust Literature: Lerner to Zychlinsky, index S. Lillian Kremer, 2003 Review This encyclopedia offers an authoritative and comprehensive survey of the important writers and works that form the literature about the Holocaust and its consequences The collection is alphabetically arranged and consists of high quality biocritical essays on 309 writers who are first second and third generation survivors or important thinkers and spokespersons on the Holocaust An essential literary reference work this publication is an important addition to the genre and a solid value for public and academic libraries The Top 20 Reference Titles of the Year American Libraries May 2004 Back to the Core Emma Cohen de Lara, Hanke Drop, 2020-10-06 Whereas liberal arts and sciences education arguably has European roots European universities have evolved over the last century to become advanced research institutions mainly offering academic training in specialized disciplines The Bologna process started by the European Union in the late nineties encouraged European institutions of higher education to broaden their curricula and to commit to undergraduate education with increased vigor One of the results is that Europe is currently witnessing a proliferation of liberal arts and sciences colleges and broad bachelor degrees This edited volume fills a gap in the literature by providing reflections on the recent developments in Europe with regard to higher education in the liberal arts and sciences The first section includes reflections from either side of the Atlantic about the nature and aims of liberal arts and sciences education and the way in which it takes shape or should take shape in European institutions of higher learning The edited volume takes as a distinct approach to liberal arts and sciences education by focusing on the unique way in which core texts i.e. classic texts from philosophical historical literary or cultural traditions involving the best that has been written meet the challenges of modern higher education in general and in Europe in particular This approach is manifested explicitly in the second section that focuses on how specific core texts promote the goals of liberal arts and sciences education including the teaching methods curricular reflections and personal experiences of teaching core texts The edited volume is based on a selection of papers presented at a conference held in Amsterdam the Netherlands in September 2015 It is meant to impart the passion that teachers and administrators share about developing the liberal arts and sciences in Europe with the help of core texts in order to provide students with a well rounded formative and genuinely liberal education

The Routledge Encyclopedia of Jewish Writers of the Twentieth Century Sorrel Kerbel,2004-11-23 Now available in paperback for the first time Jewish Writers of the Twentieth Century is both a comprehensive reference resource and a springboard for further study This volume examines canonical Jewish writers less well known authors of Yiddish and Hebrew and emerging Israeli writers includes entries on figures as diverse as Marcel Proust Franz Kafka Tristan Tzara Eugene Ionesco Harold Pinter Tom Stoppard Arthur Miller Saul Bellow Nadine Gordimer and Woody Allen contains introductory essays on Jewish American writing Holocaust literature and memoirs Yiddish writing and Anglo Jewish literature provides a chronology of twentieth century Jewish writers Compiled by expert contributors this book contains over 330 entries on individual authors each consisting of a biography a list of selected publications a scholarly essay on their work and suggestions for further reading

Postmodernizing the Holocaust Marta Tomczok,2024-01-22 Marta Tomczok presents all Polish postmodern novels about the Holocaust starting with The First Splendor by Leopold Buczkowski and ending with The Suspected Dybbuk by Andrzej Bart She also presents their rich relationships with selected foreign language prose which intensified especially at the turn of the 20th and 21st centuries The culmination of the entire trend is a discussion around two novels Tworci by Marek Bie czyk and Fly Trap Factory by Andrzej Bart which reveals the aestheticizing and post memorial profile of Polish postmodernization and its advantage over the historiosophical trend This monograph is not only the first such collection of post Holocaust postmodern novels but also the first comprehensive study of postmodernism in the literature about the Holocaust which thanks to comparative analysis tries to analyze and explain the circumstances of the appearance and later disappearance of this trend from cultural landscape of the world and Poland

Theoterrorism v. Freedom of Speech Paul Cliteur,2025-10-01 The Rushdie Affair the Danish Cartoon Affair the assault on Charlie Hebdo and the earlier Carrell Affair are examples of religious fanatics extreme reactions to religious satire and criticism Perpetrators of these actions consider themselves as true believers This book aims to understand their motives by means of the concept of theoterrorism terrorism grounded in religious zealotry

Traditions and Transitions John L. Plews,Barbara Schmenk,2013-11-21 Traditions and Transitions Curricula for German Studies is a collection of essays by Canadian and international scholars on the topic of why and how the curriculum for post secondary German studies should evolve Its twenty chapters written by international experts in the field of German as a foreign or second language explore new perspectives on and orientations in the curriculum In light of shifts in the linguistic and intercultural needs of today's global citizens these scholars in German studies question the foundations and motivations of common curriculum goals traditional program content standard syllabus design and long standing classroom practice Several chapters draw on a range of contemporary theories from critical applied linguistics second language acquisition curriculum theory and cultural studies to propose and encourage new curriculum thinking and reflective practice related to the translingual and cross cultural subjectivities of speakers learners and teachers of German Other chapters describe and analyze specific examples of emerging trends in curriculum practice for learners as users of German This volume will be invaluable to university and college faculty working in the discipline of German studies as well as in other modern languages and second language education in general Its combination of theoretical and descriptive explorations will help readers develop a critical awareness and understanding of curriculum for teaching German and to implement new approaches in the interests of their students

The Comparative Perspective on Literature Clayton Koelb, 2019-06-30 Few would deny that comparative literature is rapidly moving from the periphery toward the center of literary studies in North America but many are still unsure just what it is The Comparative Perspective on Literature shows by means of twenty two exemplary essays by many of the most distinguished scholars in the field how comparative literature as a discipline is conceived of and practiced in the 1980s Nearly all of them published here for the first time the essays discuss and themselves reflect significant changes at the core of the field as well as evolving notions as to what comparative literature is and should be The volume editors Clayton Koelb and Susan Noakes have included essays that address the scope and concerns of comparative literature today historical and international contexts of the field and the relationship of literary criticism to other disciplines as well as affording comparative perspectives on current critical issues Encyclopedia of the World Novel, 1900 to the Present Michael David Sollars, Arbolina Llamas Jennings, 2015-04-22 Praise for the print edition a useful and engaging reference to the vast world of the novel in world literature The Cambridge Companion to J.M. Coetzee Jarad Zimbler, 2020-04-30 Presents lucid and exemplary critical essays introducing readers to J M Coetzee's works practices horizons and relations Anne Frank and After D. van Galen Last, Rolf Wolfswinkel, 1996 The text considers two questions what happened to the Jews of Holland during the war and how has Dutch literature come to terms with the enormity of the event The authors trace the destruction of Dutch Jewry and analyse the relation between history and the literature of the Holocaust Spirit of Resistance Jeroen Dewulf, 2010 The first book to offer a complete story of the extraordinary proliferation of Dutch clandestine literature under the Nazi occupation Clandestine literature was published in all countries under Nazi occupation but nowhere else did it flourish as it did in the Netherlands This raises important questions What was the content of this literature What were the risks of writing printing selling and buying it And why the Netherlands Traditionally the combative Dutch spirit of resistance has been cited a reaction not only to German oppression but to German propaganda while the Germans hoped to build bonds with their Germanic Dutch brothers clandestine literature insisted on their incompatibility However when reading clandestine literature one should not forget that this spirit of resistance came rather late and did not prevent the transportation of seventy three percent of the Netherlands Jewish population to Nazi death camps the largest percentage in Western Europe The Dutch case is complex while the country proved to be remarkably resistant to Nazi propaganda little was done to prevent the actual execution of Nazi policies The complete story of Dutch clandestine literature therefore combines resistance and complicity victory and defeat pride and shame Jeroen Dewulf is Queen Beatrix Professor of Dutch Studies in the Department of German at the University of California Berkeley Surviving Hitler and Mussolini Robert Gildea, Olivier Wieviorka, Anette Warring, 2006-09-19 Examining how far everyday life was possible in a situation of total war and brutal occupation this book's theme is the social experience of occupation in German and Italian occupied Europe and in particular the strategies ordinary people developed in order to survive It adopts a comparative approach and also discusses the Second World War The Rough Guide to Amsterdam (Travel Guide eBook) Rough Guides, 2019-03-01 Discover Amsterdam with this comprehensive entertaining tell it like it is Rough Guide packed with exhaustive practical information and our experts honest independent recommendations Whether you plan to explore the Museum District visit the moving Anne Frank Huis hole up in a cosy brown caf or cycle the leafy lanes of Vondel park The Rough Guide to Amsterdam will show you the perfect places to explore sleep eat drink and shop along the way Detailed regional coverage provides in depth practical information for every step of every kind of trip from intrepid off the beaten track adventures to chilled out breaks in popular tourist areas Regions covered include Old Centre Red Light District Grachtengordel Jordaan western docklands old Jewish quarter Plantage eastern docklands Amsterdam Noord NDSM shipyard Museum Quarter DePijp Amsterdamse Bos Honest independent reviews written with Rough Guides trademark blend of humour honesty and expertise and recommendations you can truly trust our writers will help you get the most from your trip to Amsterdam Meticulous mapping always full colour with clear numbered colour coded keys Navigate the trendy NDSM Wharf neighbourhood the narrow streets of Jordaan and many more locations without needing to get online Fabulous full colour photography features a richness of inspirational colour photography including postcard pretty Begijnhof and the colourful Bloemenmarkt Things not to miss Rough Guides rundown of Amsterdam's best sights and top experiences including Koninklijk Paleis the Anne Frank Huis Joods Historisch Museum EYE Filmmuseum and the Van Gogh Museum Itineraries carefully planned routes will help you organise your trip and inspire and inform your on the road experiences Basics section packed with essential pre departure information including getting there getting around accommodation food and drink health the media festivals sports and outdoor activities culture and etiquette shopping and more Background information comprehensive Contexts chapter provides fascinating insights into Amsterdam with coverage of history religion ethnic groups environment wildlife and books plus a handy language section and glossary About Rough Guides Rough Guides have been inspiring travellers for over 35
