In this unique collection of short stories composed between 1910-62 Evelyn Waugh's early juvenilia are brought together with later pieces some of which became the inspirations for his novels Mr Loveday's Little Outing is a blackly comic tale of a mental asylum and its favourite resident Cruise sees a hilarious series of letters from a naive young woman as she travels with her family A House of Gentlefolks observes a group of elderly eccentric aristocrats and their young heir and in The Sympathetic Passenger a radio loathing retiree picks up exactly the wrong hitchhiker These witty and immaculately crafted stories display the finest writing of a master of satire and comic twists

The Queer Cultures of 1930s Prose Charlotte Charteris, 2019-01-04 Offering a radical reassessment of 1930s British literature this volume questions the temporal limits of the literary decade and broadens the scope of queer literary studies to consider literary historical responses to a variety of behaviours encompassed by the term queer in its many senses Whilst it is informed by the history of sexuality in twentieth century Europe it is also profoundly concerned with what Christopher Isherwood termed the market value of the Odd Drawing for its methodology on the work of Raymond Williams it traces the impact of the Great War on the development of language examining the use of ten keywords in the prose of Christopher Isherwood Evelyn Waugh and Patrick Hamilton and that of their respective literary milieux in order to establish how queer lives and modern sub cultural identities were forged collaboratively within the fictional realm By utilizing contemporary perspectives on performativity in conjunction with detailed close readings it repositions these authors as self conscious agents actively producing their own queer masculinities through calculated acts of linguistic transgression

The Cambridge Companion to English Novelists Adrian Poole, 2009-12-10 In this Companion leading scholars and critics address the work of the most celebrated and enduring novelists from the British Isles excluding living writers among them Defoe Richardson Sterne Austen Dickens the Brontës George Eliot Hardy James Lawrence Joyce and Woolf The significance of each writer in their own time is explained the relation of their work to that of predecessors and successors explored and their most important novels analysed These essays do not aim to create a canon in a prescriptive way but taken together they describe a strong developing tradition of the writing of fictional prose over the past 300 years This volume is a helpful guide for those studying and teaching the novel and will allow readers to consider the significance of less familiar authors such as Henry Green and Elizabeth Bowen alongside those with a more established place in literary history

The Complete Short Stories Muriel Spark, 2011-08-18 From the cruel irony of A member of the Family to the fateful echoes of The Go Away Bird and the unexpectedly sinister The Girl I Left Behind Me in settings that range from South Africa to the Portobello Road Muriel Spark probes the idiosyncrasies that lurk beneath the veneer of human respectability displaying the acerbic wit and wisdom that are the hallmarks of her unique talent The Complete Short Stories is a collection to be loved and cherished from one of the finest short story writers of the twentieth century

Evelyn Waugh's Satire Texts and Contexts renews scholarly debates central to Waugh's work: the forms of his satire, his attitudes towards modernity and modernism, his place in the literary culture of the interwar period, and his pugnacious misreading of literary and other texts. This study offers new exegetical accounts of the forms and figures of Waugh's satire, linking original readings of Waugh's texts to the literary historical contexts that informed them. Posing fresh readings of familiar works and affording attention to more neglected texts, Evelyn Waugh's Satire Texts and Contexts offers readers and scholars a timely opportunity to return to the rich dark art of this master of prose satire.

This 50th anniversary catalogue offers a complete list of all the titles in print across the Modern Classics list, from Chinua Achebe to Stefan Zweig, via George Orwell and everything else in between. It also contains Italo Calvino's inspiring essay on what makes a classic a classic.

Consciousness and the Novel, David Lodge, 2012-03-31 Human consciousness, long the province of literature, has lately come in for a remapping, even rediscovery, by the natural sciences, driven by developments in Artificial Intelligence, neuroscience, and evolutionary biology. But as the richest record we have of human consciousness, literature, David Lodge suggests, may offer a kind of knowledge about this phenomenon that is complementary, not opposed, to scientific knowledge. Writing with characteristic wit and brio, and employing the insight and acumen of a skilled novelist and critic, Lodge here explores the representation of human consciousness in fiction, mainly English and American, in the light of recent investigations in cognitive science, neuroscience, and related disciplines. How, Lodge asks, does the novel represent consciousness? And how has this changed over time? In a series of interconnected essays, he pursues this question down various paths: how does the novel's method compare with that of other creative media, such as film? How does the consciousness and unconscious of the creative writer do its work? And how can criticism infer the nature of this process through formal analysis? In essays on Charles Dickens, E. M. Forster, Evelyn Waugh, Kingsley and Martin Amis, Henry James, John Updike, and Philip Roth, and in reflections on his own practice as a novelist, Lodge brings to light, and to engaging life,
