contexts of migration exile colonization or generational change In literature Identity crisis appear as conflicts between tradition vs modernity homeland vs host land or personal vs collective self Colonial and Postcolonial Fiction Robert L. Ross,1999 Colonial and Postcolonial Fiction An Anthology draws from this great common wealth of writing offering 35 selections by major writers The works included reflect both indigenous and settler cultures and extend from the nineteenth century to the contemporary era BOOK JACKET Other Tongues Nalini Iyer,Bonnie Zare,2009 Other Tongues Rethinking the Language Debates in India explores the implications of the energetic and at times acrimonious public debate among Indian authors and academics over the hegemonic role of Indian writing in English From the 1960s the debate in India has centered on the role of the English language in perpetuating and maintaining the cultural and ideological aspects of imperialism The debate received renewed attention following controversial claims by Salman Rushdie and V S Naipaul on the inferior status of contemporary Indian language literatures This volume offers nuanced analysis of the language audience and canon debate provides a multivocal debate in which academics writers and publishers are brought together in a multi genre format academic essay interview personal essay explores how translation mediates this debate and the complex choices that translation must entail Other Tongues is the first collective study by to bring together voices from differing national linguistic and professional contexts in an examination of the nuances of this debate over language By creating dialogue between different stakeholders seven scholars three writers and three publishers from India the volume brings to the forefront underrepresented aspects of Indian literary culture The Columbia Guide to Asian American Literature Since 1945 Guiyou Huang,2006-08-08 The Columbia Guide to Asian American Literature Since 1945 Conversations with American Women Writers Sarah Anne Johnson,2004 Sena Jeter Naslund describes the origins of Ahab's Wife in a vision and a voice Ann Patchett mourns the ways in which the reality of a novel may fail to live up to her conception of it Andrea Barrett a winner of the National Book Award and the recipient of a MacArthur Fellowship nevertheless characterizes herself as a very clumsy writer in her early drafts The seventeen women interviewed by Sarah Anne Johnson are some of the most popular and accomplished writers at work today award winners critically acclaimed popular with book clubs Steeped in a thorough knowledge of each writer's work Johnson's questions range from technical issues of craft to the nurturing of fictional ideas to the daily practice of writing The authors offer insights into their own works that will delight their fans and also provide practical advice that will be cherished by aspiring writers From Chitra Banerjee Divakaruni's reflections on her experience of immigration to Lois Ann Yamanaka's insights on the question of a character's voice these interviews combine the personal with the professional experience of the writing life Bodies in a Broken World Ann Folwell Stanford,2004-07-21 In this multidisciplinary study Ann Folwell Stanford reads literature written by U S women of color to propose a rethinking of modern medical practice arguing that personal health and social justice are inextricably linked Drawing on feminist ethics to explore the work of eleven novelists Stanford challenges medicine to position itself more deeply within the communities it serves especially the poor and marginalized However she also argues that medicine must recognize its limits and join forces with the nonmedical community in the struggle for social justice In literary representations of physical and emotional states of illness and health Stanford identifies issues related to public health medical ethics institutionalized racism women s health domestic abuse and social justice that are important to discussions about how to improve health and health care She argues that in either direct or indirect ways the eleven novelists considered here push us to see health not only as an individual condition but also as a complex network of individual institutional and social changes in which wellness can be a possibility for the majority rather than a privileged few The novelists whose works are discussed are Toni Cade Bambara Paule Marshall Gloria Naylor Leslie Marmon Silko Toni Morrison Louise Erdrich Sandra Cisneros Bebe Moore Campbell Sapphire Ana Castillo and Octavia Butler

Homemaking Anindya Raychaudhuri, 2018-10-19 Is it possible to think of a counter hegemonic progressive nostalgia that celebrates and helps sustain the marginalised What might such a nostalgia look like and what political importance might it have Homemaking Radical Nostalgia and the Construction of a South Asian Diaspora examines diasporic life in south Asian communities in Europe North America and Australia to map the ways in which members of these communities use nostalgia to construct distinctive identities Using a series of examples from literature cinema visual art music computer games mainstream media physical and virtual spaces and many other cultural objects this book argues that it is possible and necessary to read this nostalgia as helping to create a powerful notion of home that can help to transcend international relations of empire and capital and create instead a pan national space of belonging This homemaking represents the persistent search for somewhere to belong on one s own terms Constructed through word image and music preserved through dreams and imagination the home provides sustenance in the continuing struggle to change the present and the future for the better

Eating and Identity in Postcolonial Fiction Paul Vlitos, 2018-10-11 This book focuses on the fiction of four postcolonial authors V S Naipaul Anita Desai Timothy Mo and Salman Rushdie It argues that meals in their novels act as sites where the relationships between the individual subject and the social identities of race class and gender are enacted Drawing upon a variety of academic fields and disciplines including postcolonial theory historical research food studies and recent attempts to rethink the concept of world literature it dedicates a chapter to each author tracing the literary cultural and historical contexts in which their texts are located and exploring the ways in which food and the act of eating acquire meanings and how those meanings might clash collide and be disputed Not only does this book offer suggestive new readings of the work of its four key authors but it challenges the reader to consider the significance of food in postcolonial fiction more generally

Revitalizing Health

Through Humanities L. Santhosh Kumar, Barnashree Khasnobis, Sreedevi Santhosh, 2024-11-28 Health Humanities in contemporary times has enabled exploration of the unexplored chartered terrains in literary paradigms. Scholars in the field of Humanities and Sciences have been engaging with the praxis of applying concepts from both disciplines, revising the approach towards Health Care and Humanities. Due to interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary methodologies of reading literary texts, they have been reinforcing a paradigm shift from the conventional understanding of narratives in Literature and Health Care. Traditional discursive boundaries between the disciplines of Health and Humanities are collapsing due to a comprehensive and nuanced interpretation of the shared ontological foundation between the two. Humanism Terminologies like Displacement, Dislocation, and Disjunction unite Health and Humanities, and they also make the unknown known. Health Humanities explores the different multitudes of narration in the literary arena and it represents diverse voices of literature. It also showcases the importance of re-reading a text owing to its autotelic status. The authors who have contributed chapters for this book have meticulously selected diverse texts and contexts embedded in the dynamism of Health Humanities. This book is an impetus for academicians from the field of Humanities and Sciences who desire to venture into new epistemes towards Health Humanities.
