Georges Bataille William Pawlett, 2015-07-24 In this comprehensive and engaging study Georges Bataille's central ideas the sacred community and eroticism are explored in detail Bataille's project to understand social bonds and energies at their most fundamental level and to re-energise society by challenging individualism is argued to be of continuing relevance to sociological thought Bataille's infamous Collège de Sociologie is placed in the intellectual context of Durkheimian and Maussian sociology Social effervescence gift exchange and the dual ambivalent and volatile nature of the sacred emerge as the central threads of Bataille's thought ideas which challenge both capitalist hegemony and the reductive notion of society as exclusively normative and repressive The study concludes by applying Bataille's ideas to contemporary issues including de secularisation and the rise of religious fundamentalism the vicarious experience of transgressive violence and finally to consumerism and the violence of globalisation The study seeks to reposition Bataille as a key figure in sociological theory

Dead Letters to Nietzsche, or the Necromantic Art of Reading Philosophy Joanne

Faulkner,2010-04-28 Dead Letters to Nietzsche examines how writing shapes subjectivity through the example of Nietzsche's reception by his readers including Stanley Rosen David Farrell Krell Georges Bataille Laurence Lampert Pierre Klossowski and Sarah Kofman More precisely Joanne Faulkner finds that the personal identification that these readers form with Nietzsche's texts is an enactment of the kind of identity formation described in Lacanian and Kleinian psychoanalysis This investment of their subjectivity guides their understanding of Nietzsche's project the revaluation of values Not only does this work make a provocative contribution to Nietzsche scholarship but it also opens in an original way broader philosophical questions about how readers come to be invested in a philosophical project and how such investment alters their subjectivity

Modern European Criticism

and Theory Julian Wolfreys, 2006-04-21 Modern European Criticism and Theory offers the reader a comprehensive critical overview of the widespread and profound contest of ideas within European theory. The book focuses primarily on the thought of major voices in poetics, philosophy, linguistics, and psychoanalysis, as well as in literary and cultural studies from the Enlightenment to the present day. Examining how conceptions of subjectivity, identity, and gender have been questioned, the more than 50 essays written by acknowledged experts in their fields critically assess the ways in which we think, see, and act in the world, as well as the ways in which we represent such thought psychologically, politically, and culturally. A further reading list accompanies each chapter.

Bataille Carolyn Bailey Gill, 2005-08-04 Gill examines the continuing power and influence of Bataille's work. By bringing together international specialists on Bataille from philosophy to art history, this collection is able to explore the many facets of his writing.

Foucault Gary Gutting, 2005-03-24 This work highlights Foucault's life and thought, showing his impact on society as well as tackling his thoughts on literature, in particular the avant-garde scene, his philosophical and historical work, and his treatment of knowledge and power in modern society.

Theory for Art History Jae Emerling, 2013-09-13 Theory for Art History provides clear and concise introductions to thirty key figures of contemporary theory: four essential predecessors (Freud, Marx, Nietzsche, and Saussure) and twenty-six major moderns from Adorno to Spivak. This book includes key concepts, biography, survey of work, bibliography of primary texts, and a bibliography of secondary criticism. Adapted from Theory for Religious Studies by William E. Deal and Timothy K. Beal.

Foucault: A Very Short Introduction Gary Gutting, 2019-09-26 Born in 1926 in France, Foucault is one of those rare philosophers who has become a cult figure. Over the course of his life, he dabbled in drugs, politics, and the Paris SM scene, all whilst striving to understand the deep concepts of identity, knowledge, and power. From aesthetics to the penal system, from madness and civilisation to avant-garde literature, Foucault was happy to reject old models of thinking and replace them with versions that are still widely debated today. A major influence on Queer Theory and gender studies, he was openly gay and died of an AIDS-related illness in 1984. He also wrote on architecture, history, law, medicine, literature, politics, and of course philosophy. In this Very Short Introduction, Gary Gutting presents a wide-ranging but non-systematic exploration of some highlights of Foucault's life and thought. Beginning with a brief biography to set the social and political stage, he then tackles Foucault's thoughts on literature, in particular the avant-garde scene, his philosophical and historical work, his treatment of knowledge and power in modern society, and his thoughts on sexuality. This new edition includes feminist criticisms of Foucault's apparently sexist treatment of the Jouy case, as well as a new chapter offering a unified overview of the Collège de France lectures, now a major focus of interest in Foucault.

These pocket-sized books are the perfect way to get ahead in a new subject quickly. Architecture Martin van der Linden, 2021-03-12 The question of what architecture is answered in this book with one sentence Architecture is space created for human activities The basic need to find food and water places these activities within a larger spatial field Humans have learned and found ways to adjust to the various contextual difficulties that they faced as they roamed the earth Thus rather than adapting humans have always tried to change the context to their activities Humanity has looked at the context not merely as a limitation but rather as a spatial situation filled with opportunities that allows through intellectual interaction to change these limitations Thus humanity has created within the world their own contextual bubble that firmly stands against the larger context it is set in The key notion of the book is that architecture is space carved out of and against the context and that this process is deterministic

The Fascination with Death in Contemporary French Thought Betty Rojzman, 2020-08-12 This book analyses a cultural phenomenon that goes to the very roots of Western civilization the centrality of death in our sense of human existence It does so through a close reading of seminal works by the most creative authors of modern French thought such as Maurice Blanchot Jacques Lacan and Jacques Derrida These works encode an entire ethics of postmodernism Betty Rojzman offers the reader a prism through which to see anew the key issues of the twentieth century tragedy finitude nothingness but also contestation liberty and sovereignty Little by little we understand that this fascination with death may be just the other side of humankind's great protest its thirst for the infinite and its desire to be Finally Rojzman tries to offer another view on these fundamental questions by shifting to a parallel cultural reference Kabbalah

An Intimate Affair Jill Fields, 2007-07-02 Intimate apparel a term in use by 1921 has played a crucial role in the development of the naughty but nice feminine ideal that emerged in the twentieth century Jill Fields's engaging imaginative and sophisticated history of twentieth century lingerie tours the world of women's intimate apparel and arrives at nothing less than a sweeping view of twentieth century women's history via the undergarments they wore Illustrated throughout and drawing on a wealth of evidence from fashion magazines trade periodicals costume artifacts Hollywood films and the records of organized labor An Intimate Affair is a provocative examination of the ways cultural meanings are orchestrated by the fashion industrial complex and the ways in which individuals and groups embrace reject or derive meaning from these everyday yet highly significant intimate articles of clothing

Visualizing Theory Lucien Taylor, 2014-02-04 Visualizing Theory is a lavishly illustrated collection of provocative essays occasional pieces and dialogues that first appeared in Visual Anthropology Review between 1990 and 1994 It contains contributions from anthropologists from cultural literary and film critics and from image makers themselves Reclaiming visual anthropology as a space for the critical representation of visual culture from the naive realist and exoticist inclinations that have beleaguered practitioners efforts to date Visualizing Theory is a major intervention into this growing field

Laughter, Literature, Violence, 1840-1930 Jonathan Taylor, 2019-02-04 Laughter Literature Violence 1840 1930 investigates the strange complex even paradoxical relationship between laughter on the one hand and violence war horror death on the other It does so in relation to philosophy politics and key nineteenth and twentieth century literary texts by

Edgar Allan Poe Edmund Gosse Wyndham Lewis and Katherine Mansfield texts which explore the far reaches of Schadenfreude and so called superiority theories of laughter pushing these theories to breaking point In these literary texts the violent superiority often ascribed to laughter is seen as radically unstable co existing with its opposite an anarchic sense of equality Laughter humour and comedy are slippery duplicitous ambivalent self contradictory hybrids fusing apparently discordant elements Now and then though literary and philosophical texts also dream of a different kind of laughter one which reaches beyond its alloys a transcendent perfect laughter which exists only in and for itself
