Department of Printed Books, 1968 The Birdcage John Bowen, 2013-12-19 In John Bowen's The Birdcage Peter Ash and Norah Palmer have been living together for nine years. Having never seen the point in getting married they are the epitome of a modern successful career oriented couple. Peter is the compere for a series of art films and Norah is the Script Editor for the Drama Department of a commercial television company. Why then when holidaying in Venice does Peter decide to break up their long lasting relationship? What happens to their order and sense of self when he succeeds? By turns wildly funny and frightening The Birdcage is a novel about the end of a love affair, the repercussions and the emotional fallout. A host of brilliantly created characters people the book including Bunty Bates the policewoman and Edward Laverick a playwright who finds himself the object of a hunt. Bowen creates a world that his readers can relate to and analyses the social and psychological end of a relationship. At times comical and tragic The Birdcage remains an original and exciting novel 44 years after its first publication in 1964 The New Century Handbook of English Literature Clarence Lewis Barnhart, William Darrach Halsey, 1967 The Reader's Companion to Twentieth-century Writers Peter Parker, Frank Kermode, 1995 Rational Emotive Behaviour Therapy in a Nutshell provides a concise overview of a popular therapeutic approach starting with the ABCDE Model of Emotional Disturbance and Change.
