Discussion notes on Ian McEwan's The child in time, 1993 Ian McEwan Irena Księżopolska, 2024-04-30 This book offers a discussion of seven canonical novels by Ian McEwan The Cement Garden The Comfort of Strangers The Child in Time The Innocent Black Dogs Atonement On Chesil Beach introducing radical new readings which are offered not as ultimate and conclusive solutions of the textual puzzles but as possibilities to engage with the text creatively to enrich the critical consensus and restore interpretative freedom to the readers This project formulates a strategy of inclusive reading an approach to the text that does not seek to reduce it to a single interpretation and yet is comprehensively informed through the analysis of the primary text critical discussion authorial comments and the context of the composition Each reading demonstrates the metafictional structure of the texts indicating that McEwan's works may be treated as invitations to roam within their worlds examining the multiple frames of their structure and the meanings generated thereby All the chapters attend to submerged repressed or deliberately masked voices The Cement Garden is seen as a multi layered dream with a shifting hierarchy of dreamers The Comfort of Strangers is viewed as an inverted metafiction with insubstantial characters corrupting more complex heroes The Child in Time is read as Stephen's book written for his dead daughter The Innocent as a memory narrative of Leonard who refuses to notice Maria's role as a spy In Black Dogs the over exposure of unreliability is studied as a screen for personal trauma in the analysis of Atonement Briony's claim to authorship is questioned and Cecilia is suggested as an alternative narrative agent Finally examining On
