A Sentimental Journey And Other Writings Oxford Worlds Classics:

A Sentimental Journey and Other Writings Laurence Sterne, 2003-07-10 Love is nothing without feeling And feeling is still less without love Celebrated in its own day as the progenitor of a school of sentimental writers A Sentimental Journey 1768 has outlasted its many imitators because of the humour and mischievous eroticism that inform Mr Yorick's travels Setting out to journey to France and Italy he gets little further than Lyons but finds much to appreciate in contrast to contemporary travel writers whom Sterne satirizes in the figures of Smelfungus and Mundungus A master of ambiguity and double entendre Sterne is nevertheless as concerned as his peers with exploring the nature of virtue unlike other writers of sentimental fiction Sterne insists on the inseparability of desire and feeling This new edition includes a selection from The Sermons of Mr Yorick which shed light on the concerns of the Journey The Journal to Eliza which records Sterne's feelings as he languishes for the company of Eliza Draper and A Political Romance the satire on a local ecclesiastical squabble that was the catalyst for Sterne's literary career ABOUT THE SERIES For over 100 years Oxford World's Classics has made available the widest range of literature from around the globe Each affordable volume reflects Oxford's commitment to scholarship providing the most accurate text plus a wealth of other valuable features including expert introductions by leading authorities helpful notes to clarify the text up to date bibliographies for further study and much more The Cambridge

Companion to Laurence Sterne Thomas Keymer, 2009-08-20 Best known today for the innovative satire and experimental narrative of Tristram Shandy 1759-67 Laurence Sterne was no less famous in his time for A Sentimental Journey 1768 and for his controversial sermons Sterne spent much of his life as an obscure clergyman in rural Yorkshire But he brilliantly exploited the sensation achieved with the first instalment of Tristram Shandy to become by his death in 1768 a fashionable celebrity across Europe In this Companion specially commissioned essays by leading scholars provide an authoritative and accessible guide to Sterne's writings in their historical and cultural context Exploring key issues in his work including sentimentalism national identity gender print culture and visual culture as well as his subsequent influence on a range of important literary movements and modes the book offers a comprehensive new account of Sterne's life and work The Cambridge Companion to European Novelists Michael Bell, 2012-06-14 A survey of 25 major European novelists from Cervantes to Kundera highlighting their contributions to the genre The Sound of the English Picturesque Stephen Groves, 2023-12-04 Revealing the connections between the veneration of national landscape and eighteenth century English vocal music this study restores English music's relationship with the picturesque In the eighteenth century the emerging taste for the picturesque was central to British aesthetics as poets and painters gained popularity by glorifying the local landscape in works concurrent with the emergence of native countryside tourism Yet English music was seldom discussed as a medium for conveying national scenic beauty Stephen Groves explores this gap and shows how secular song the glee and national theatre music expressed a uniquely English engagement with landscape Using an interdisciplinary approach Groves addresses the apparent silence of the English picturesque The book draws on analysis of the visualisations present in the texts of English vocal music and their musical treatment to demonstrate how local composers incorporated celebrations of landscape into their works The final chapter shows that the English picturesque was a crucial influence on Joseph Haydn s oratorio The Seasons Suitable for anyone with an interest in eighteenth century music aesthetics and the natural environment this book will appeal to a wide range of specialists and non specialists alike The Blazing World and Other Writings Margaret Cavendish, 2025-06-06 I had rather die in the adventure of noble achievements than live in obscure and sluggish security One of the most diverse prolific and maverick intellectuals of her time Margaret Cavendish is known for critiquing a wide range of early modern cultural and philosophical beliefs While she was the first British woman to publish several philosophical treatises she was also profoundly interested in literature and writing in nearly every available genre indeed with her wide ranging complex and often unorthodox ideas she was a pioneer of what today would be referred to as science fiction In this edition Lisa Walters brings together well known and popular works such as The Blazing World alongside lesser known poems and prose pieces like The Ambitious Traitor and The Unnatural Tragedy The introduction discusses the wide ranging concepts that appear in the writings from gender and cross dressing to science and the nature of the universe and provides a fresh insight on Cavendish s proclivity for literary experimentation and innovation British Academy Lectures 2014-15 Janet Carsten, Simon Frith, 2016-02-04 British Academy lectures have previously been published in the Proceedings of the British Academy Lectures are now made available in the new open access Journal of the British Academy But they will also be printed in an annual volume This volume publishes lectures from the 2014 and 2015 programmes which were posted to the Journal in 2015 Travel Writing 1700-1830 Elizabeth A. The Labyrinth Jens Baggesen, 2024-10-25 This travel book is truly a labyrinth or more precisely a piece of the labyrinth that it has been my fate to wander from the cradle to the grave Jens Baggesen's The Labyrinth 1792-93 is a genre bending and highly personal travel book that follows the young Danish author's journey made in 1789 from Copenhagen through Germany to the Swiss border at Basel In its outer form it follows the conventions of travel writing describing the cities landscapes and notable people encountered on the route while also offering critical commentary on art architecture theatre and literature mixed with reactions to the unfolding French Revolution However Baggesen finds contemporary travel writing to be pedantic and dry and is determined to make his own account as engaging and personal as possible Based on the principle that nothing is more necessary in a volume of travels than a traveller the narrative eschews a focus on prescribed sights and instead foregrounds his individual responses to the places and people he encounters Baggesen's account of his journey is not simply sentimental but rather moves through an array of different often conflicting affective and intellectual register from dejection to wit whimsy and ebullient joy including enchanted observations of nature as well as cosmopolitan reveries about the brotherhood of nations Similarly the prose style of the book always acknowledged as a key feature is determinedly eclectic A richly varied compendium of literary styles attitudes and philosophical ideas brought to life in a new English translation by Jesper Gulddal The Labyrinth offers a rare glimpse into the mind of an endlessly thinking feeling and imagining traveller at a pivotal moment in European history

The Histories Herodotus, 1998-03-05 Herodotus is not only known as the father of history, as Cicero called him, but also the father of ethnography, as well as charting the historical background to the Persian Wars, his curiosity also prompts frequent digression on the cultures of the peoples he introduces. While much of the information he gives has proved to be astonishingly accurate, he also entertains us with delightful tales of one-eyed men and gold-digging ants. This story of a middle-class couple in 1920s Paris follows the familiar romantic structure of the eternal triangle with the unexpected twist that the female rival is not a woman but a cat. The novel displays her capacity to conjure up a vibrantly physical world and a particular social moment, her radical yet nuanced view of gender roles, and her empathy with non-human creatures. The Masked Woman is a collection of short texts mainly written for the daily newspaper Le Matin, focusing on small moments that mark a transition in a person's life and on certain recurring themes the pleasure and the pain in relationships between women and men the wearing of masks both literal and metaphorical female complicity and solidarity They are also linked by Colette's inimitable narrative style by the vividly material fictional universe she creates and her liking for surprise and paradox that challenges a commonsensical view of the world
