Foster, 2023-12-05 indigo is the joy and lament of a human being theologian father fashioning new ideas about the divine within the painful loss of his daughter within the constraints of his own intelligence within the constraints of what religion had been telling him his whole life some of which was good and some of which wasn't good it's a way forward where forward means the interaction of past choices past events and personal agency in this moment and this moment and yes this moment it's the hope on the underside of grief like the pilot fish with the shark around the whale within a section of ocean an ecosystem of depth and light and slow motion shadows oceanographic poetry that breaks the surface from time to time that breaks one's heart from time to time indigo is the color of grief for its gradation of sapphires and violets descending into violence or ascending into lightness the beauty of which is found in both extremes entanglement the divine infused within the whole the hole infused within the divine read it for cursing for weeping for laughing read it for mourning read it for the world is on fire The Family Herald ,1879 Love's Shadow Paul A. Bové,2021-01-12 A case for literary critics and other humanists to stop wallowing in their aestheticized helplessness and instead turn to poetry comedy and love Literary criticism is an agent of despair and its poster child is Walter Benjamin Critics have spent decades stewing in his melancholy What if instead we dared to love poetry to choose comedy over Hamlet's tragedy or to pursue romance over Benjamin's suicide on the edge of France of Europe and of civilization itself Paul A. Bové challenges young lit critters to throw away their shades and let the sun shine in Love's Shadow is his three step manifesto for a new literary criticism that risks sentimentality and melodrama and eschews self consciousness The first step is to choose poetry There has been since the time of Plato a battle between philosophy and poetry Philosophy has championed misogyny while poetry has championed women like Shakespeare's Rosalind Philosophy is ever so stringent try instead the sober cheerfulness of Wallace Stevens Bové's second step is to choose the essay He praises Benjamin's great friend and sometime antagonist Theodor Adorno who gloried in writing essays not dissertations and treatises The third step is to choose love If you want a Baroque hero make that hero Rembrandt who brought lovers to life in his paintings Putting aside passivity and cynicism would amount to a revolution in literary studies Bové seeks nothing less and he has a program for achieving it The New York Times Book Review ,1980 Presents extended reviews of noteworthy books short reviews essays and articles on topics and trends in publishing literature culture and the arts Includes lists of best sellers hardcover and paperback The Genealogical Helper ,1974
