A Stage For Poets Charles Affron, 2015-03-08 In the nineteenth century the French lyric poets imposed their diction on the theatrical genre and thus illuminated the essence of both poetry and theatre Ten plays by Victor Hugo the standard bearer of the French romantic theatre and Alfred de Musset the romantic playwright most frequently performed in France today are analyzed by Charles Affron to answer the question Can the dialectic form of the theatre accommodate the solitary lan of the lyric poet As a functional point of departure he considers those characteristics of lyric poetry time voice and metaphor which bring us closest to the singular attitudes of Hugo and Musset Then examining the texts of Hernani Les Burgraves Torquemada Fantasio and Lorenzaccio as well as several lesser known plays Mr Affron discusses such topics as poetic time the scope of analogy theatrical and poetic rhetoric the guises of the poet hero and the manner of sounding the poet s voice upon the stage Originally published in 1971 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Studies of the Greek Poets...

political struggle of Boris Pasternak and the continued success of his novel Dr Zhivago have often taken center stage in discussions of this writer Olga Raeovsky Hughes chooses instead to focus on the aesthetics underlying Pasternak s snuggles and successes to explore the ways in which his views of art and the artist were applied in his writings Professor Hughes examines those aspects of Pasternak s views on art that he himself considered crucial the beginnings of poetry in his life the relation of his art to life his relationship to his time and his responsibility to lite and to society Pasternak s views on art are analyzed as he himself saw them in his autobiographies critical essays and letters and also as they were reflected in his work

Pasternak is allowed to speak for himself accordingly all of his published works are used including letters little known works and available variants of his early poems Originally published in 1975 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 A STAGE FOR POETS. Studies in Modern Arabic Prose and Poetry Shmuel Moreh,2023-10-20 Romantic Drama Gerald Ernest Paul Gillespie,1994 It does not treat Romanticism as a limited period dominated by some construed singular master ethos or dialectic rather it follows the literary patterns and dynamics of Romanticism as a flow of interactive currents across geocultural frontiers Six French Poets of Our Time Robert W. Greene,2015-03-08 During the last sixty to seventy years avant garde poetry in France has evolved in two directions one toward poetry conceived as a means to an end the other toward poetry as an end in itself Focusing on Pierre Reverdy Francis Ponge Ren Char Andr du Bouchet Jacques Dupin and Marcelin Pleynet as the modern French poets who most faithfully reflect these directions Robert Greene s chronological study allows us to follow the two pronged evolution of French poetry since 1910 Situating his argument in a detailed historical context and basing it on comparisons with artistic movements and the poets own writings on art and on extended analyses of selected representative poems the author is able to establish a new intellectual historical perspective on contemporary poetry Professor Greene finds that whereas Reverdy Char du Bouchet and Dupin all embrace a conception of poetry as quest as a search for the absolute as the Way of beauty or truth Ponge and Pleynet hold to a view of poetry as j te as a celebration of the relative as the play and display of language in action What knits them together he concludes is the way in which each poet sums up his era as a stage in the development of twentieth century French poetry Originally published in 1979 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Finding-list of Books in the Classes of Poetry and the Drama Indianapolis Public Library,1891 The Stages of Property Lisa Surwillo,2007-01-01 Through an integrative historicist approach to a wide range of literary texts and archival documents The Stages of Property makes an important statement about the cultural societal and political roles of the theatre in Spain during the 1800s Creative Writing Pedagogies for the Twenty-First Century Alexandria Peary,Tom C Hunley,2015-05-22 The creative writing workshop has long been
