A Stranger Among Us Stories Of Cross Cultural Collision And Connection:

A Stranger Among Us Stacy Bierlein, 2007 A collection of stories by a variety of authors portrays the diverse challenges cultural clashes and joys people have experienced as newcomers to a foreign land Archival Dissonance in the U.S. Cuban Post-Exile Novel Gregory Helmick, 2016-01-14 Archival Dissonance in the U S Cuban Post Exile Novel documents a body of emergent US Cuban literature published in Spanish and English beyond the scope and historicity of exile Focusing on the work of Roberto G Fern ndez Ana Men ndez and Antonio Ben tez Rojo the book proposes that rather than reinforce US Cuban exile ethnic identity developed between 1960 and the 1980s or demonstrate a tendency toward cultural assimilation Americanization over three generations of writers the discussed historical novels incorporate Caribbean and Latin American archival sources and interpretive frameworks in order to develop a critical and investigative approach to the politics of Cuban exile historiography Published before the recent apertura between the US and Cuban governments these post exile novels anticipate themes of displacement migration and social marginalization as common rather than exceptional features of modern and historical life as well as such other current and historical topics as gender construction and performance figurations of race the commoditization of culture and urban poverty The post exile historical novel points to a future for US Cuban narrative and historiography in part by investigating and featuring dissonances hidden or unacknowledged in previous Cuban exile historical fiction The literature studied in this book further reinforces a view of two way migration between Cuba and the United States as a normal phenomenon predating 1959 and at the same time as a likely shape of things to come
