A Theology To Live By The Practical Luther For The Practicing Christian:

A Theology to Live by Herman Amberg Preus, 1977-01-01 A Theology to Live by Herman Amberg Preus, 2005 Using Luther's writings Preus places a useful emphasis on doctrines to reveal Luther's theology as doctrine with practical application

The Doctrine of Atonement Jack D. Kilcrease, 2018-03-22 Post Enlightenment theology has frequently rejected the historic Christian doctrine of substitutionary atonement For theologians standing in the tradition of the Lutheran Confessions rejection of substitutionary atonement is particularly problematic because it endangers the unconditional nature of the justification through faith If one rejects vicarious satisfaction then the only alternative is to make redemption dependent on what sinners do for themselves In this study Jack Kilcrease argues for substitutionary atonement within the perspective of what he calls the Confessional Lutheran Paradigm The author also critiques a wide variety of modern Lutheran theologians understandings of atonement Werner Elert Gustaf Aul n Gustaf Wingren Robert Jenson Eberhard J ngel Wolfhart Pannenberg and Gerhard Forde As Kilcrease demonstrates although these authors often give many fine theological insights their distortion or misrepresentation of the doctrine of atonement carries over to a problematic understanding of law gospel and justification through faith

Practicing Baptism Bard Eirik Hallesby Norheim, 2014-02-19 Where is Jesus Christ This fundamental question is the starting point of this book which investigates the shape of Christian life and ministry in a post Christendom context Over the last decades there has been a shift in much of Western theology towards focusing on Christian practices in ministry and theological education This may be seen as a way to deal with theological anxiety in an era of heightened personal autonomy In Practicing Baptism Bard Norheim critically analyzes the engagement in Christian practices As a response to this engagement Norheim develops a missional and diaconal theology for ministry focusing on the presence of Christ in Christian practices Fundamentally this is an attempt to answer a pressing question for today What do Christians do Norheim draws on Martin Luther's theology and his notion of the three modes of Christ's presence the present tense of baptism and Luther's idea of the marks of the church Based on this reading of Luther's theology Norheim suggests that Christian life and ministry could be interpreted through the concept practicing baptism

Practice in Christianity Robert L. Perkins, 2004 Practice in Christianity is the second volume in what could be called the collected Works of Anti Climacus Kierkegaard's new pseudonym Anti Climacus's first volume The Sickness Unto Death appeared just a year earlier in 1849 The use of a pseudonym is consistent with Kierkegaard's usual practice when presenting an idealized statement of his subject be it sexual seduction or Christian theology Anti Climacus argues the conceptual content of Christianity against the leading thought of the times and also against the ethical and social import of the comforts and consolations of bourgeois culture and religion which he called Christendom In his own mind at least Kierkegaard's presents Christianity as it must be thought and lived if it is to be authentic The Sickness unto Death and Practice in Christianity can be and are read quite independently but jointly they provide the basis of Kierkegaard's devastating critique of a secularized culturally homogenized and tame
