Pilgrimage to Jerusalem and the Holy Land, 1187-1291 Denys Pringle,2016-04-08 This book presents new translations of a selection of Latin and French pilgrimage texts and two in Greek relating to Jerusalem and the Holy Land between the fall of Jerusalem to Saladin in 1187 and the loss of Acre to the Mamluks in 1291 It therefore complements and extends existing studies which deal with the period from Late Antiquity to Saladin s conquest Such texts provide a wealth of information not only about the business of pilgrimage itself but also on church history topography architecture and the social and economic conditions prevailing in Palestine in this period Pilgrimage texts of the 13th century have not previously been studied as a group in this way and because the existing editions of them are scattered across a variety of rather obscure publications they tend to be under utilized by historians despite their considerable interest For instance they are often more original than the texts of the 12th century representing first hand accounts of travellers rather than simple reworkings of older texts Taken together they document the changes that occurred in the pattern of pilgrimage after the fall of Jerusalem in 1187 during its brief reoccupation by the Franks between 1229 and 1244 and during the period from 1260 onwards when the Mamluks gradually took military control of the whole country In the 1250s 60s for example because of the difficulties faced by pilgrims in reaching Jerusalem itself there developed an alternative set of holy sites offering indulgences in Acre The bringing of Transjordan southern Palestine and Sinai under Ayyubid and later Mamluk control also encouraged the development of the pilgrimage to St Catherine s monastery on Mount Sinai in this period The translations are accompanied by explanatory footnotes and preceded by an introduction which discusses the development of Holy Land pilgrimage in this period and the context dating and composition of the texts themselves The book concludes with a comprehensive list of sources and a detailed index

Biblical Researches in Palestine and the Adjacent Regions, 1856      Christians and the Holy Places Joan E. Taylor, 1993 The origins of Christian holy places in Palestine and the beginnings of Christian pilgrimage to these sites have seemed obscure From a detailed examination of the literature and archaeology pertaining to specific sites and the region in general the present author finds no evidence that Christians of any kind venerated holy places before the fourth century It appears that scholarly Christians had visited certain Biblical sites out of historical and exegetical concerns but that these sites were not considered holy or the visitors as pilgrims Instead the origins of Christian pilgrimage and holy places rest with the emperor Constantine who established four basilicas in Palestine c 325 30 and provided two imperial matrons Helena and Eutropia as examples of a new kind of pious pilgrim Pilgrimage to intrinsically sacred shrines had been a pagan practice which was grafted on to Christianity Many Jewish Samaritan and pagan sites were thereafter appropriated by the church and turned into Christian holy places This process helped to destroy the widespread paganism of Palestine and mark the country as a holy land Very few sites are genuine the most important being the cave not Garden of Gethsemane in which Jesus was probably arrested      Biblical Researches in Palestine and the adjacent regions Edward Robinson, 1856      Later Biblical Researches in Palestine and in the Adjacent Regions a Journal of Travels in the Year 1852 by Edward Robinson Edward Robinson, 1856      The Synagogue in Ancient Palestine: Current Issues and Emerging Trends Rick Bonnie, Raimo Hakola, Ulla Tervahauta, 2020-12-14 This book brings together leading experts in the field of ancient synagogue studies to discuss the current issues and emerging trends in the study of synagogues in ancient Palestine Divided into four thematic units the different contributions apply archaeological textual historical and art historical methodologies to questions related to ancient synagogues Part One addresses issues related to the origins and early development of synagogues up to 200 CE The contributions provide different explanations to the alleged lack of evidence for synagogues built in the second and third centuries CE and ask how much continuity or change there is between the late Second Temple and late Roman early Byzantine synagogues Part Two deals with architecture and dating of ancient synagogues It gives an overview of all synagogues found so far approaches the dating of Galilean synagogues in the light of the recently exposed synagogue at Huqoq and provides a stylistic re evaluation of the Capernaum synagogue decoration Part three examines leadership power and daily life in late antique synagogue contexts illustrating non monumental inscriptions amulets and dining in synagogue contexts as well as the role of individual benefactors Section four contextualizes synagogue art An overview of synagogue mosaics in late antique Palestine is complemented with reinterpretations of the mosaics two synagogues The section also offers a discussion of the appearance of the menorah
