Emerson in Iran Roger Sedarat, 2019-06-01 Examines the impact of Persian poetry in the work of Ralph Waldo Emerson Emerson in Iran is the first full length study of Persian influence in the work of the seminal American poet philosopher and translator Ralph Waldo Emerson Extending the current trend in transnational studies back to the figural origins of both the United States and Iran Roger Sedarat's insightful comparative readings of Platonism and Sufi mysticism reveal how Emerson managed to reconcile through verse two countries so seemingly different in religion and philosophy By tracking various rhetorical strategies through a close interrogation of Emerson's own writings on language and literary appropriation Sedarat exposes the development of a latent but considerable translation theory in the American literary tradition He further shows how generative Persian poetry becomes during Emerson's nineteenth century and how such formative effects continue to influence contemporary American poetry and verse translation This is the book on this subject I have been waiting for Indeed Sedarat goes further than satisfying curiosity about familiar but undertheorized figures texts and traditions he also reveals ones that I didn't know I should know and care about His prose is at once lucid and learned He manages with great tact and insight to move from poet to poet poem to poem line to line across time and tradition so that the reader remains oriented to the idea at hand and moreover capable of grasping its relevance to the project and its broader significance for our thinking about the legacy of Emerson's writing and thought David LaRocca author of Emerson's English Traits and the Natural History of Metaphor The Life Journey of a Joyful Man of God Adrian L. van Kaam, 2010-09-23

To have known Adrian van Kaam in person is to have loved him for reasons human and spiritual His kindness to everyone is as legendary as his fidelity to the mystery in all the peaks and valleys of daily life His humility is the fire that enkindles his original vision of formative spirituality His gentle joyful spirit radiates on every page of this retelling of his life story In it he takes us to the heart of his thinking in the fields of psychology and spiritual formation He welcomes us wholeheartedly into the intimate corners of his family his friendships and his pastoral and professional life He brings us into a little known arena of world history the infamous Dutch Hunger Winter of 1944-1945 We travel with him from that bleak period through the renewal of his life's work in the United States to its crowning phase in the Epiphany Association co-founded with his colleague and editor of this unforgettable work of love Dr Susan Muto Islam and Christianity John Renard, 2011-03-08 In light of the widespread public perception of incompatibility between Islam and Christianity this book provides a much needed straightforward comparison of these two great faith traditions from a broad theological perspective Award-winning scholar John Renard illuminates the similarities as well as the differences between Islam and Christianity through a clear exploration of four major dimensions historical creedal institutional and ethical and spiritual Throughout the book features comparisons between concrete elements such as creedal statements prayer texts and writings from major theologians and mystics It also includes a glossary of technical theological terms For western readers in particular this balanced authoritative work overturns some common stereotypes about Islam especially those that have emerged in the decade since September 11 2001

The Voice That Calls You Home Andrea Raynor, 2009-11-17 A positive affirming collection of essays that teaches how to understand and accept life's darkest hours The Voice That Calls You Home will improve the way you live each and every
