

A JOURNEY THROUGH ART HISTORY

Prehistoric and Ancient Art

- The earliest known form of art dates back to the prehistoric era, where cave paintings were created by early humans. These paintings depicted animals, hunting scenes, and everyday life.
- As civilizations developed, ancient art was created in various forms such as pottery, sculpture, and architecture. An artistic portrait of prehistoric and ancient art showcases the rawness and simplicity of early human expression.
- The image depicts a cave painting of a bison, with rough brush strokes and earthy colors. The simplicity of the artwork highlights the importance of storytelling and communication in early human society.

Introduction to Prehistoric Art

- Prehistoric art refers to the visual arts created by humans, typically before written language was invented. This period of time covers a vast expanse of history, from the Paleolithic era (the Old Stone Age) to the Bronze Age.
