A Totally Alien Life Form Teenagers:

A Totally Alien Life-Form Sydney Lewis,1997 Young people between the ages of 13 and 19 from all over the US were interviewed for this book In it they discuss fears plans ambitions and even nostalgia for the simplicity of childhood A Totally Alien Life-Form Lewis Sydney,2009-07-01 Young people ages 13 to 19 from all over the country discuss their fears plans and ambitions Parents: Adolescents Are Adults-With-Less-Sense Winston B. Stanley PhD,2013-01-24 Winston B Stanley PhD has spent many years serving as a pastor to adolescents At youth conferences retreats and other events he has always sought out to provide wisdom and guidance This guidebook for parents and youngsters alike is his way of sharing how to steer the lives of young people in a positive direction Youll learn how adolescents think differently than adults how examples of adolescents in biblical times provide lessons for today how guidance from God can be applied to help young people and how modeling nurturing and teaching can aid adolescents Stanley also offers guidance on promoting healthy essentials for physical development tips on discipline and ways to help young people take responsibility for their actions Its important to get the knowledge you need to confront the tough issues of being a parent and of becoming an adult As a parent or young person you need to understand the psychology and dynamics that define adolescence Youll find the answers you need from a longtime pastor who has spent long hours listening encouraging and counseling young people in Parents Adolescents are Adults with Less Sense Teen 2.0 Robert Epstein,2010-02-24 National Indie Excellence Awards first prize in the Parenting and Family category Arguing that adolescence is an unnecessary period of life that people are better off without this groundbreaking study shows that teen confusion and hardships are caused by outmoded systems that were designed to destroy the continuum between childhood and adulthood Documenting how teens are isolated from adults and are forced to look to their media dominated peers for knowledge this discussion contends that by infantilizing young people society does irrevocable harm to their development and well being Instead parents teachers employers and others must rediscover the adults in young people by giving them authority and responsibility as soon as they exhibit readiness Teens are highly capable in some ways more than adults and this landmark discussion offers paths for reaching and enhancing the competence in America s youth Hearts and Hands Luis Rodriguez,2011-01-04 Hearts and Hands deals with many of the difficult issues addressed in Luis Rodr guez s memoir of gang life Always Running but with a focus on healing through community building Empowered by his experiences as a peacemaker with gangs in Los Angeles and Chicago Rodr guez offers a unique book of change He makes concrete suggestions shows how we can create nonviolent opportunities for youth today and redirects kids into productive and satisfying lives And he warns that we sacrifice community values for material gain when we incarcerate or marginalize people already on the edge of society His interest in dissolving gang influence on black and latino kids is personal as well as societal his son to whom he dedicates Hearts and Hands is currently serving a prison sentence for gang related activity With anecdotes interviews and time tested guidelines Hearts and Hands makes a powerful argument for building and supporting community life      Issues in Spiritual Formation in Early Lifespan Contexts Martin Ubani, Sari Murtonen, 2023-10-17 This book focuses on the question of how different contexts are relevant in the shaping and expression of individual spirituality spanning from early childhood to young adulthood Past decades have witnessed a strong expansion of research on spirituality and spiritual education This expansion has proved to have many advantages in understanding the experiences values identities and behaviours of individuals and communities Such research has benefitted from different research disciplines and methods from its openness toward different faith traditions and non religious belief systems and from the agility in adapting to diverse and evolving contexts These aspects are essential in producing robust and timely international knowledge on children s spirituality and their education This volume is one such ambitious endeavour The chapters describe issues related to religious and spiritual development in different contexts of growth such as school and church and spanning from early childhood to young adulthood in Finland UK Turkey and Malta In addition the authors utilise diverse methods in their studies Furthermore the studies are based on conceptions of spirituality ranging from holistic spirituality and religiosity to world view based definitions Finally the chapters represent foundational research on spirituality applied research on spirituality and contextualised research on spirituality a typology suitable for assessing future studies on spirituality Issues in Spiritual Formation in Early Lifespan Contexts will be a key resource for academics researchers and advanced students of Religion Religious Education Education Educational Research Developmental Psychology Research Methods and Sociology The chapters included in this book were originally published as a special issue of International Journal of Children s Spirituality      Contemporary Authors Terrie M. Shultz,Alison Cook-Sather,2001 If educational reform is to succeed it must attend to the perspectives of students those most directly affected by schooling but least often consulted about its efficacy This is the premise of the first book both to feature student perspectives on school and to foreground student voices middle and high school students are the primary authors of the eight chapters collected in this volume aptly titled In Our Own Words Reflecting differences of gender racial and ethnic background and school context the student authors write passionately and eloquently about their experiences of and desires for school Through their explorations of topics as diverse as bilingual education class cutting teacher bias race relations in school what girls need from their education and innovative curricular models these student authors not only counter stereotypes of apathetic teenagers but also clearly identify what hinders and what supports their learning For both the insights offered and the freshness of the students voices this collection is a must read for anyone who has a stake in making school a place where students can and want to learn Using Literature to Help Troubled

Teenagers Cope with Societal Issues Pamela Sissi Carroll, 1999-11-30 Teachers media specialists parents and other adults who work with adolescents must recognize that our society influences who teenagers are and how they develop as language users This unique resource provides guidance to these professionals by pairing literacy specialists with counselors who introduce information about social issues important to today's adolescents These experts then explore literature in which issues such as body image sexuality and leaving home are addressed in ways likely to interest teens By examining fictional characters these experts provide guidance to those working with teenagers so they can encourage adolescents to deal with the conflicts and issues imposed upon them by our society while improving their reading and writing skills Eight important social issues are explored each in a separate chapter While providing in depth exploration of fictional characters grappling with these societal issues each chapter also provides a question and answer section in which specialists answer questions many adults have raised regarding social influences on teenagers Readers are given insight into how they can help teenagers with similar problems and extensive annotated bibliographies recommend appropriate books to get teenagers reading and addressing these problems This collaboration across academic specialties provides an innovative approach to attaining the goal of helping adults and adolescents in gaining a better understanding of each other

The Adolescent Psyche Richard Frankel, 2023-06-30 In the classic edition of this outstanding book originally published in 1998 Richard Frankel explores adolescence as a crucial unique and turbulent period of human development He provides guidance for clinicians working with young people as they undergo significant transformations in the way they think act feel and perceive the world The book addresses how the disruptions manifest in adolescent behavior are upsetting and often incomprehensible to the adults surrounding them It seeks to revision the traumas extreme fantasies testing of limits etc so endemic to this period of life through the lens of the urge toward self realization This allows for new and creative ways of working with the intensely confusing and often extreme countertransference feelings that arise in our encounter with adolescents It offers ways of reflecting upon the vicissitudes of our own experience of being an adolescent that helps to unlock the typical impasses that occur in the stand off between adult and adolescent ways of seeing the world Through engagement with the work of Jung Hillman and Winnicott Frankel offers a critique of the traditional psychoanalytic understanding of adolescence as a recapitulation of childhood thus making a claim for adolescence as a discrete developmental period with its own originary dynamics In this light he explores such topics as individuation persona shadow bodily idealistic and ideational awakenings as well as the effects of culture on development Featuring numerous clinical case studies and clear theoretical formulations this classic edition is important reading for psychotherapists analysts parents educators and anyone working with adolescents This classic edition also includes a new extended introduction by the author that examines what effects the digital revolution is having on the contemporary experience of being an adolescent Looking back on this work nearly 25 years since its publication Frankel contends that the core themes of adolescence addressed in this book offer a compelling framework for comprehending both the positive and negative impacts of the digital on adolescent life      Generation 2K Wendy Murray Zoba,1999 Wendy Murray Zoba s experience as a parent and youth worker along with research interviews and surveys provide her with a strong understanding of today s teenagers and how to guide them through a consumer culture and nurture their faith      The Columbia Companion to American History on Film Peter C. Rollins,2004-03-24

American history has always been an irresistible source of inspiration for filmmakers and today for good or ill most Americans sense of the past likely comes more from Hollywood than from the works of historians In important films such as The Birth of a Nation 1915 Roots 1977 Apocalypse Now 1979 and Saving Private Ryan 1998 how much is entertainment and how much is rooted in historical fact In The Columbia Companion to American History on Film more than seventy scholars consider the gap between history and Hollywood They examine how filmmakers have presented and interpreted the most important events topics eras and figures in the American past often comparing the film versions of events with the interpretations of the best historians who have explored the topic Divided into eight broad categories Eras Wars and Other Major Events Notable People Groups Institutions and Movements Places Themes and Topics and Myths and Heroes the volume features extensive cross references a filmography of discussed and relevant films notes and a bibliography of selected historical works on each subject The Columbia Companion to American History on Film is also an important resource for teachers with extensive information for research or for course development appropriate for both high school and college students Though each essay reflects the unique body of film and print works covering the subject at hand every essay addresses several fundamental questions What are the key films on this topic What sources did the filmmaker use and how did the film deviate or remain true to its sources How have film interpretations of a particular historical topic changed and what sorts of factors technological social political historiographical have affected their evolution Have filmmakers altered the historical record with a view to enhancing drama or to enhance the truth of their putative message
