Free Library, 1888 The Failure of Public Finance Management in Afghanistan Mohammad Qadam Shah, 2025-07-24 In rebuilding conflict affected states a major portion of foreign aid focuses on reforming public finance management systems and supporting annual budgets However how budgets are allocated and how reforms take shape in practice remain critical questions This book analyzes the politics of reform and budget allocation in the most expensive liberal state building effort in history Afghanistan Through a detailed political economy analysis it explores the origin continuity and evolution of Afghanistan s centralized public finance management system Such centralization readopted in the 2004 Constitution constrained local participation perpetuated inequities and undermined predictability and transparency Key reforms including the Provincial Development Planning Guideline and Provincial Budgeting Policy aimed to address these shortcomings but failed due to political resistance elite capture and structural inefficiencies The analysis reveals informal dynamics behind the allocation of discretionary development budget consisting of the Afghan central government s political considerations political relationship political importance and strength and weakness of local administrations and lobbying strategies of local actors This dynamic enabled the central government to continue to use public funds for purchasing political legitimacy to remain in power Afghanistan s case highlights the limits of externally driven state building that prioritizes centralization over local dynamics The book offers key lessons on inclusive governance structural barriers and sustainable public finance reforms in conflict affected states It appeals to donors development experts and researchers in public finance foreign aid security and development studies Afghanistan in the Cinema Mark Graham,2010-10-01 In this timely critical introduction to the representation of Afghanistan in film Mark Graham examines the often surprising combination of propaganda and poetry in films made in Hollywood and the East Through the lenses of postcolonial theory and historical reassessment Graham analyzes what these films say about Afghanistan Islam and the West and argues that they are integral tools for forming discourse on Afghanistan a means for understanding and avoiding past mistakes and symbols of the country s shaky but promising future Thoughtfully addressing many of the misperceptions about Afghanistan perpetuated in the West Afghanistan in the Cinema incorporates incisive analysis of the market factors funding sources and political agendas that have shaped the films The book considers a range of films beginning with the 1970s epics The Man Who Would Become King and The Horsemen and following the shifts in representation of the Muslim world during the Russian War in films such as The Beast and Rambo III Graham then moves on to Taliban era films such as Kandahar Osama and Ellipsis the first Afghan film directed by a woman Lastly the book discusses imperialist nostalgia in films such as Charlie Wilson s War and destabilizing visions represented in contemporary works such as The Kite Runner *Great western railway mechanics' institution, New Swindon. Afghanistan in Transition Richard Hogg,Claudia Nassif,Camilo Gomez Osorio,William Byrd,Andrew Beath,2013-03-01 This book examines the implications of international military withdrawal from Afghanistan in 2014 for the country s future economic growth fiscal sustainability public sector capacity and service delivery World Development Report 2011 World Bank,2011-05-01 The 2011 WDR on Conflict Security and Development underlines the devastating impact of persistent conflict on a country or region s development prospects noting that the 1.5 billion people living in conflict affected areas are twice as likely to be in poverty Its goal is to contribute concrete practical suggestions on conflict and fragility Allen's

Indian mail and register of intelligence for British and foreign India ,1880 Constitutional Law and the Politics of Ethnic Accommodation Bashir Mobasher,2023-12-29 This book explores whether the legal and political institutions of Afghanistan were able to incorporate diverse ethnic groups into the political process Ethnic accommodation has gained central stage in the literature on institutional design and democratic consolidation However some divided societies are more explored than others and Afghanistan is one understudied country that is critically important for testing and improving our theories of institutional design in a democratizing plural society This work examines the Constitution of 2004 and those provisions of electoral laws and political party laws that together devised Afghan political institutions including those of the presidential system unitary government electoral systems as well as the party system It argues that due to their incongruence in design and effects the Afghan political institutions failed to fully accommodate ethnic groups in the political process This book adopts a holistic approach while also paying careful attention to the details of each of the individual pieces of political institutions designed by the Constitution of 2004 Taken together this approach yields insights into the boundaries and interactions of institutional design and how their interactions hinder or advance ethnic accommodation in varying contexts The book will be essential reading for academics researchers and policy makers interested in constitutional law and politics
