Stories Intizār Husain,2004 Aa I left my own corpse back there Spine chilling That s Intizar Husain for you One of the finest living writers in Urdu escorts you along the sinuous bylanes of Hindustan and the glitzy Pakistani shops in Anarkali Bazaar along runaway clouds and forbidden domains An uncertain but promising journey a mind blowing experience

Chandragupta Maurya Sushma Jansari,2023-06-01 We take it for granted that some historical figures become heroes and others do not Chandragupta Maurya evolved from obscure ruler to contemporary national icon The key moment in the making of this Indian hero was a meeting by the banks of the River Indus between Chandragupta and Seleucus founder of the Seleucid empire and one of Alexander the Great s generals in c 305 3 BC This significant event was a moment of peace making at the end of conflict But no reliable account exists in early sources and it is not even clear which ruler was victorious in battle This uncertainty enabled British and Indian historians of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries to interpret the sources in radically different ways With Chandragupta representing India and Seleucus standing in for Britain British scholars argued that Seleucus defeated Chandragupta while Indian academics contended the opposite The writing and reception of history fundamentally influences how we engage with the past and the evolving colonial and post colonial relationship between Britain and India is crucial here In India the image of

Chandragupta as an idealised hero who vanquished the foreign invader has prevailed and found expression in contemporary popular culture In plays films television series comic books and historical novels Chandragupta is the powerful and virtuous Hindu ruler par excellence The path to this elevated standing is charted in this book The Politics of Modern Indian Language Literature MK Raghavendra,2024-04-16 Indian literature is produced in a wealth of languages but there is an asymmetry in the exposure the writing gets which owes partly to the politics of translation into English This book represents the first comprehensive political scrutiny of the concerns and attitudes of Indian language literature after 1947 to cover such a wide range including voices from the cultural margins of the nation like Kashmiri and Manipuri that of women alongside those of minority and marginalised communities In examining the politics of the writing especially in relation to concerns like nationhood caste tradition and modernity postcoloniality gender issues and religious conflict the book goes beyond the declared ideology of each writer to get at covert significations pointing to widely shared but often unacknowledged biases The book is deeply analytical but lucid and jargon free and to those unfamiliar with the writers it introduces a new keenness into Indian literary criticism to make its objects exciting Witnessing Partition Tarun K. Saint,2019-08-13 This book interrogates representations fiction literary motifs and narratives of the Partition of India Delving into the writings of Khushwant Singh Balachandra Rajan Attia Hosain Abdullah Hussein Rahi Masoom Raza and Anita Desai among many others it highlights the modes of fictive testimony that sought to articulate the inarticulate the experiences of trauma and violence of loss and longing and of diaspora and displacement The author discusses representational techniques and formal innovations in writing across three generations of twentieth century writers in India and Pakistan invoking theoretical debates on history memory witnessing and trauma With a new afterword the second edition of this volume draws attention to recent developments in Partition studies and sheds new light as regards ongoing debates about an event that still casts a shadow on contemporary South Asian society and culture A key text this is essential reading for scholars researchers and students of literary criticism South Asian studies cultural studies and modern history Qurratulain Haider - Life and Works Jameel Akhtar,2025-09-01 Qurratulain Haider has been my favourite writer since my student days My PhD thesis A Critical Study of Qurratulain Haider s Fiction studied her art of fiction writing I have carried out research on her at various stages through these intervening years However Qurratulain Haider is not merely a fiction writer she is an exceptional literary figure In fact there are so many facets to her multi faceted literary persona that it is not possible to compartmentalize her into any single definition She is at one and the same time a fiction writer an essayist columnist biographer travel writer critic translator painter and also a documentary film maker She has been the leading voice of Urdu fiction in India and Pakistan Her magnum opus Aag ka Darya remains unparalleled in the canon of Urdu fiction Though she had been writing and publishing since her childhood as a young woman she commenced her literary career with a collection of stories that ran contrary to the prevailing trends and thus made her presence felt in no meager manner She introduced a new fangled experimental narrative style and technique multiple points of view swung the milieu and setting of her stories and foregrounded confident young women who were independent in thought and action Thereafter she continued this trend through her literary career In her writings one can find a harmonious blend of Eastern and Western philosophical and cultural systems through past and present civilizational periods which confirm the essential oneness of mankind in a world where disparities and dichotomies over rule and this becomes a major reason why she stands out as a singular voice in subcontinental Urdu literature My first volume on Qurratulain Hyder Nawa e Sarosh 2001 International Urdu Foundation is a compilation of interviews my second is a monograph on Hyder published by Sahitya Akademi in 2017 Andaz e Bayan Aur is a collection of conversations with her translated as A Singular Voice into English Both volumes have been published by Oxford University Press Karachi Pakistan Qurraulain Hyder Shakhshiyat aur Fan was also published by OUP in 2019 NCPUL New Delhi published my compilation of the complete works of Qurratulain Hyder in the 11 volume Aaina e Jahan 2006 2016 and Zindagi Nama 2015 a detailed chronology of her life and works Last year Matterlink published my volume Qurratulain Hyder Tafheem ke Matanawwe Zavve I have also conceived a 10 volume encyclopaedia of Qurratulain Hyder three volumes have been published Since I have been studying her from various standpoints over the years time and again novel perspectives propel me to study more or newer aspects of her art I have been fortunate to benefit a great deal intellectually through my interactions with her over the years I don t think anybody worked as closely with her as I did and I believe I am the richer through my interactions with her For many years I interacted very closely with her consulting her studying her works compiling her writings or interviewing her and I am certain no one else was privileged enough to interact as closely with her as I My engagement with her lasted for many many days till about only three months before has passing on She was very prompt always punctual her conversations were supremely eclectic she was extremely hospitable a great humanist who accorded equal respect to everyone young or old Despite several disagreements on intellectual matters my seven year long relationship with her was never spoilt at the personal level The essays included in this volume covering her multi faced personality her philosophy and her art have been collected over an extended period Some of them date back to about sixty years Most of the writers particularly Safder Meer Jilani Kamran Ibne Saeed M Salimur Rahman were well known critics from Pakistan many of who have passed on and most of these essays were published in well known newspapers These essays were entrusted to me during my 1992 visit to Pakistan by these writers Several Indian writers including M Asaduddin Nikhat Kazmi Shamim Hanafi Zafar Ahmad Naqvi and Navjot have been included here I am very grateful to Professor M Asaduddin for permitting me to republish his essay Most of these essays cover Qurratulain Hyder s fictional writing and enable better understanding of her works Hence I decided to publish them in book form and this gives me a huge sense of satisfaction I am very happy to add that Fatima Rizvi and Sufia Kidwai readily contributed their translated essays at my request These have added both variety and novelty to this volume of critical essays I hope this volume will be a very valuable text for Hyder
