Alarm Clocks From Prehistory To Today:

Prehistoric Alex Wong, 2023-10-24 The improbable story of the birth of modern day pro basketball in Toronto In just over 25 years the Toronto Raptors have evolved from an intrepid expansion team to an NBA champion But for all the triumphs of the past decade the beginning looked a bit different When the franchise began its first season in 1995 a pro basketball team in Toronto was viewed as an experiment There was no playbook to follow and very few people gave them a chance to succeed In Prehistoric irreverent Raptors voice and culture writer Alex Wong explores the franchise s fascinating and unconventional inception through 140 original interviews with those involved with the team s very beginning examining the process of how the team came up with their name and logo inspired by the blockbuster film Jurassic Park taking a behind the scenes look at the drafting of star point guard Damon Stoudamire telling the backstories of a group of misfits who formed the first year roster and providing an in depth look at the team s opening night victory at the SkyDome and the expansion franchise s signature win over Michael Jordan and a 72 win Chicago Bulls team The Raptors boldly and intentionally pursued a much different audience in a hockey first town The result is a team who went through the necessary growing pains and eventually captured the heart of a city as told in this essential origin story through the lens of the people who were there to help lay the foundation for a thriving modern day basketball franchise in Toronto

Prehistoric Future Ralph Ubl, 2013-11-06 One of the most admired artists of the twentieth century Max Ernst was a proponent of Dada and founder of surrealism known for his strange evocative paintings and drawings In Prehistoric Future Ralph Ubl approaches Ernst like no one else has using theories of the unconscious surrealist automatism Freudian psychoanalysis the concept of history as trauma to examine how Ernst's construction of collage departs from other modern artists Uhl shows that while Picasso Braque and Man Ray used scissors and glue to create collages Ernst employed techniques he himself had forged rubbing and scraping to bring images forth onto a sheet of paper or canvas to simulate how a screen image or memory comes into the mind's view In addition Ernst scoured the past for obsolete scientific illustrations and odd advertisements to illustrate the rapidity with which time passes and to simulate the apprehension generated when rapid flows of knowledge turn living culture into artifact Ultimately Uhl reveals Ernst was interested in the construction and phenomenology of both collective and individual modern history and memory Shedding new light on Ernst's working methods and the reasons that his pieces continue to imprint themselves in viewers' memories Prehistoric Future is an innovative work of critical writing on a key figure of surrealism

The Vacant Space Jaime Perez, 2014-04-08 As he trudges through his wealthy yet introverted life Thomas Silva has carefully managed to compensate through the years for his lack of human connection by monetarily helping struggling members of his community but this impersonal and unorthodox method of getting by is beginning to lose its effectiveness and is no longer serving its purpose A less than social childhood fused together with a fair share of uncertainty from his past has unfortunately carried on to Thomas' adult life making him the reclusive person he is now It's not until he experiences a series of life-changing events that Thomas begins to consider a serious and much-needed change in perspective towards his unfulfilling life A Vacant Space is about one's lonely journey through existence as merely a passive spectator in the volatile game of life a lonely journey that desperately needs to begin onto another path anew It's never too late to start a new beginning even if you feel you are already so close to the end
