Unveiling Migration and Education in Marina Budhos's Fiction Narmadha R., M. Anjum Khan, 2023-11-07 This book delves into the profound challenges and triumphs of immigrant children navigating the educational landscape in America which have been skilfully depicted in Marina Budhos s novels In this thought provoking work the transformative power of intersectionality is artfully unravelled offering penetrating insights into the lived experiences of these resilient young individuals Central to this scholarly odyssey is the illumination of intersectionality as a conceptual framework meticulously elucidating the intricate entanglement of multifarious oppressive dimensions faced by immigrant communities By disentangling the interplay of race gender ethnicity and socio economic status this work unveils the hitherto obscured realities underlying the migration experience Engaging with the complexities of immigrant children s lives it not only illuminates the academic discourse surrounding this issue but also nurtures a profound sense of empathy advocating a more enlightened and compassionate society that cherishes the diverse potential of all its young inhabitants The Ungrateful

Refugee Dina Nayeri, 2020-09-15 A Finalist for the 2019 Kirkus Prize in Nonfiction Nayeri combines her own experience with those of refugees she meets as an adult telling their stories with tenderness and reverence The New York Times Book Review Nayeri weaves her empowering personal story with those of the feared swarms Her family s escape from Isfahan to Oklahoma which involved waiting in Dubai and Italy is wildly fascinating Using energetic prose Nayeri is an excellent conduit for these heart rending stories eschewing judgment and employing care in threading the stories in with her own This is a memoir laced with stimulus and plenty of heart at a time when the latter has grown elusive Star Tribune Minneapolis Aged eight Dina Nayeri fled Iran along with her mother and brother and lived in the crumbling shell of an Italian hotel turned refugee camp Eventually she was granted asylum in America She settled in Oklahoma then made her way to Princeton University In this book Nayeri weaves together her own vivid story with the stories of other refugees and asylum seekers in recent years bringing us inside their daily lives and taking us through the different stages of their journeys from escape to asylum to resettlement In these pages a couple fall in love over the phone and women gather to prepare the noodles that remind them of home A closeted queer man tries to make his case truthfully as he seeks asylum and a translator attempts to help new arrivals present their stories to officials Nayeri confronts notions like the swarm and on the other hand good immigrants She calls attention to the harmful way in which Western governments privilege certain dangers over others With surprising and provocative questions The Ungrateful Refugee challenges us to rethink how we talk about the refugee crisis A writer who confronts issues that are key to the refugee experience Viet Thanh Nguyen Pulitzer Prize winning author of The

Sympathizer and The Refugees Who Gets Believed? Dina Nayeri, 2024-11-19 Dina Nayeri's powerful writing confronts issues that are key to the refugee experience Viet Thanh Nguyen From the author of The Ungrateful Refugee finalist for the Los Angeles Times Book Prize and the Kirkus Prize Who Gets Believed is a groundbreaking book about persuasion and performance that asks unsettling questions about lies truths and the difference between being believed and being dismissed in situations spanning asylum interviews emergency rooms consulting jobs and family life Why are honest asylum seekers dismissed as liars Former refugee and award winning author Dina Nayeri begins with this question turning to shocking and illuminating case studies in this book which grows into a reckoning with our culture's views on believability From persuading a doctor that she'd prefer a C section to learning to bullshit gracefully at McKinsey to struggling in her personal life to believe her troubled brother in law Nayeri explores an aspect of our society that is rarely held up to the light For readers of David Grann Malcolm Gladwell and Atul Gawande Who Gets Believed is a book as deeply personal as it is profound in its reflections on morals language human psychology and the unspoken social codes that determine how we relate to one another

Refugee Talk Eva Rask Knudsen, Ulla Rahbek, 2022-07-20 A wide ranging erudite and multi faceted analyses of the fundamental problem of who gets to be counted as human Kate Evans Refugee Talk explores cultural responses to the ongoing refugee crisis Looking at ethical questions and political rhetoric surrounding the refugee experience the authors uncover the reality behind the fraught discussions taking place today With an understanding of how to meaningfully negotiate responses through philosophy media representations art activism and literature the authors insist that a radically different approach is needed advocating for along with other reorientations a new refugee vocabulary as a launching pad for interventions into polarised debates By centring conversation as a method and ethical practice to engage in the discourses surrounding refugees Refugee Talk is structured around dialogues with academics activists journalists and refugee artists and writers creating a comprehensive humanities approach that places ethics and aesthetics at its core My Part of Her

Javad Djavahery, 2020-02-11 In exiled Iranian author Javad Djavahery's captivating English debut a youthful betrayal during a summer on the Caspian sea has far reaching consequences for a group of friends as their lives are irrevocably altered by the Revolution For our unnamed confessor the summer months spent on the Caspian Sea during the 1970s are a magically transformative experience There he is not the poor relative from the North but a welcome guest at his wealthy cousin Nilou's home and the gatekeeper of her affections He revels in the power of orchestrating the attentions of her many admirers granting and denying access to her would be lovers But in a moment of jealousy and youthful bravado he betrays and humiliates an unlikely suitor setting into motion a series of events that will have drastic repercussions for all of them as the country is forever transformed by the Iranian Revolution a few short years later Over the next twenty years the lingering effects of that betrayal set the friends on radically different paths in the wake of political religious and cultural upheaval Their surprising final reunion reveals the consequences of revenge and self preservation as they each must decide whether and how to forget the past Urgent and gorgeously written My Part of Her captures the innocence of youth the folly of love and the capriciousness of fate as these friends find themselves on opposing sides of the seismic rifts of history Praise for My Part of Her A searing novel by Iranian exile Djavahery of love and betrayal in a time of revolution Djavahery's novel is an aching evocation of paradise lost one that is impossible to regain even in our narrator's searching dreams Vivid shattering and utterly memorable Kirkus Reviews Starred Review There will be no kowtowing to the Western reader in these pages There is no room for that gaze because this is a story about our part in Iran's undoing It is a collective reckoning with ourselves with our part of her the monster we created from the Preface by Dina Nayeri author of The Ungrateful Refugee and Refuge This English language debut of exiled Iranian novelist Djavahery captures the headiness of youth with all its promise and peril and displays how seemingly small actions can become pivotal moments when the world is turned on its head

Booklist Castaway Heritage Stephen Silverwood, 2019-12-01 How does it feel to be a castaway in the UK today Our latest book is based on interviews with refugees and asylum seekers living in Brighton and East Sussex and the people who work with those communities It tells their stories in their own words The Castaway Heritage Project was made possible through the generosity of the Heritage Lottery Fund and the support of those involved The Literature of the Iranian Diaspora

Sanaz Fotouhi, 2022-08-25 The 1979 Revolution in Iran caused the migration of millions of Iranians many of whom wrote and are still writing of their experiences Formed at the junctions of Iranian culture English language and Western cultures this body of work has not only formed a unique literary space offering an insightful reflection of Iranian diasporic experiences and its shifting nature but it has also been making a unique and understudied contribution to World Literatures in English as significant as Indian African and Asian writing in English Sanaz Fotouhi here traces the origins of the emerging body of diasporic Iranian literature in English and uses these origins to examine the socio political position and historical context from which they have emerged Fotouhi brings together introduces and analyses for the first time a significant range of diasporic Iranian writers alongside each other and alongside other diasporic literatures in English While situating this body of work through existing theories such as postcolonialism Fotouhi sheds new light on the role of Iranian literature and culture in Western literature by showing that these writings distinctively reflect experiences unique to the Iranian diaspora Analysing the relationship between Iranians and their new surroundings by drawing on theories of migration narration and identity Fotouhi examines how the literature borne out of the Iranian diaspora reconstructs maintains and negotiates their Individual and communal identities and reflects today's socio political realities This book will be vital for researchers of Middle Eastern literature and its relationship with writings from the West as well as those interested in the cultural history of the Middle East The Book of Men
