Papers Presented at the Fourteenth International Conference on Patristic Studies Held in Oxford 2003 Frances Margaret Young, Mark J. Edwards, Paul M. Parvis, 2006 Saint Gregory Palamas Gregorios Palamas, 1988 Theosis Vladimir Kharlamov, 2012-02-23 Deification penetrates all spheres of human existence and can be seen as an answer to most pending ultimate questions It is essentially practical in its manifestation and uplifting in its content but nevertheless always evasive and arcane in its comprehension Aimed both at those who are already students of theosis and at those who are looking for an introductory text Energy in Orthodox Theology and Physics Stoyan Tanev, 2017-08-29 It is well known that energy is a fundamental concept in physics Much less well known is that it is also a key concept in Eastern Christian or Orthodox theology This book from Dr Stoyan Tanev a physicist innovation management scholar and theologian provides a comparative analysis of the conceptualizations of energy in Orthodox theology and in physics and demonstrates the potential of such comparison for a better understanding of these two quite different domains of human enquiry The book explores the rediscovery of the Byzantine Church s teaching on the Divine energies in twentieth century Orthodox theology and offers new insights about the key contributions of key theologians such as Sergius Bulgakov George Florovsky John Meyendorff Christos Yannaras and Thomas Torrance Where do the understandings of energy in theology and physics meet The author argues that the encounter between theology and physics happens at the level of quantum physics where the subtle use of words and language acquires a distinctive apophatic dimension His comparative approach focuses on the epistemological struggles of theologians and physicists According to Tanev this focus on the struggles of knowing offers a new way to look at the dialogue between science and theology Energies of the Spirit Duncan Reid, 1997 This book examines twentieth century theological commentators Brath Rahner Florovsky Lossky on the problem of the doctrine of energies in God Counter to existing trends in western theology the author gives a positive evaluation of this doctrine and seeks common ground between the eastern idea of essence and energies and the western identification of the inner and economic trinity Though written from a clearly western perspective the book argues the coherence of the eastern position and that underlying both eastern and western positions is a common intention to say that the encounter with God is real and that the primary ontological distinction is between God and creation This book was originally presented as the author s thesis doctoral Universit t Tubingen 1992 under the title Die Lehre von den ungeschaffenen Energien Ihre Bedeutung fur die okumenische Theologie

Contemporary Russian Conservatism Mikhail Suslov, Dmitry Uzlaner, 2019-10-14 This volume is the first comprehensive study of the conservative turn in Russia under Putin. Its fifteen chapters, written by renowned specialists in the field, provide a focused examination of what Russian conservatism is and how it works. The book features in-depth discussions of the historical dimensions of conservatism, the contemporary international context, the theoretical conceptualization of conservatism, and empirical case studies. Among various issues covered by the volume are the geopolitical and religious dimensions of conservatism and the conservative perspective on Russian history and the politics of memory. The authors show that conservative ideology condenses and reworks a number of discussions about Russia's identity and its place in the world. Contributors include Katharina Blum, Per Arne Bodin, Alicja Curanovi, Ekaterina Grishaeva, Caroline Hill, Irina Karlsruhn, Marlene Laruelle, Mikhail N. Lukianov, K. re Johan Mj. r, Alexander Pavlov, Susanna Rabow Edling, Andrey Shishkov, Victor Shnirelman, Mikhail Suslov, and Dmitry Uzlaner. California Slavic Studies, Volume XVI Boris Gasparov, 2023-07-28 Christianity and the Eastern Slavs: Volume I: Slavic Cultures in the Middle Ages offers an in-depth exploration of the cultural and historical developments of Eastern Slavic societies under the influence of Christianity, starting from the Christianization of Kievan Rus in 988. Edited by Boris Gasparov and Olga Raevsky Hughes, this volume is part of the California Slavic Studies series and features scholarly essays based on international conferences commemorating the Christian millennium of Eastern Slavs. The book investigates the interplay between Christian tradition and the cultural, literary, and institutional frameworks of early Slavic societies, emphasizing the transformative impact of Orthodox Christianity on Russian, Ukrainian, and Belorussian national identities. This volume covers a wide range of topics, including the adoption of Christianity, the use of Church Slavonic as a liturgical language, and the cultural paradigms established in the medieval period. Through a multidisciplinary lens, the essays provide insights into the formation of religious practices, linguistic traditions, and literary expression that shaped the identity and heritage of the Eastern Slavs. This comprehensive examination is invaluable for scholars of Slavic studies, medieval history, and the intersection of religion and culture in Eastern Europe.
