AAA Destination Guide: Orlando includes trip-planning information covering AAA recommended attractions and restaurants, exclusive member discounts, maps and more.

Walt Disney World® Resort opened in the Orlando area in 1971, setting into motion a Florida tourism boom of grand proportions. With a clone of the West Coast's Disneyland in their back yards, devotees of all things Mickey Mouse east of the Mississippi no longer had to trek across country to tap into the magic. As Disney's East Coast kingdom grew exponentially, so, too, did the competition that eventually transformed Orlando into one big theme park of a destination. Walt Disney World set the bar for wholesome family fun and then raised it time after time with faster rides, outer characters and livelier entertainment to captivate every age group.

livelier entertainment to captivate every age group.

Beyond Orlando's man-made wonders are sparkling lakes, lovely gardens, relaxing state parks and, within shouting distance, a string of Atlantic Coast beaches. Add to this list championship golf courses, luxury resorts with spas, cuisine to please the international palate and shopping districts that run the gamut from bargain outlets to upscale malls, and Orlando measures up to a full-out, year-round crowd pleaser.

With Disney's four major theme parks, Universal's two, and marine adventure parks SeaWorld and Discovery Cove, plus more than 90 other area attractions, fantasy is always on tap here. If Orlando could be squeezed and reduced to concentrate, like the juicy citrus that used to grow nearby in abundance, its essence would be pure entertainment—nectar for all who thirst for a family-oriented good time.

Essentials

Go to Gatorland, a slice of roadside Americana since 1949, and watch with amazement as alligators lunge for lunch and wrestle with handlers.

Feed the swans or ride paddleboat likenesses in downtown Orlando's centerpiece, Lake Eola Park, where locals stroll and relax. This photogenic beauty has a landscaped walkway, shade trees, a lighted fountain and an amphitheater—site of concerts and cultural events.

Cool off at a water park—a must in summer, when the mercury routinely moves into the high 90s. Choose between Wet 'n Wild, Aqualica, Disney's Blizzard Beach Water Park or Disney's Typhoon Lagoon Water Park.

Glide on the fin of a bottlenose dolphin or swim in a lagoon filled with rays at Discovery Cove Orlando. Catch glimpses of wildlife while your airboat scoots across the headwaters of the Everglades. Boggy Creek Airboat Rides offers this exhilarating "wild Florida" encounter.

Stroll for the sheer pleasure of it in Winter Park along refined Park Avenue, which features designer boutiques, sidewalk cafes, cozy restaurants, shops with high-end home décor and a centrally located park. At Charles Hosmer Morse Museum of American Art, bask in the aura of Louis Comfort Tiffany's stunning stained-glass creations, a renowned collection that has no equal. Lovely lakeside residences and natural scenery are highlights of a narrated cruise on Winter Park's chain of lakes, offered by Scenic Boat Tours.

Venture out to the charming village of Mount Dora, central Florida's antiques and collectibles capital. This small town overlooking Lake Dora draws quite a crowd on weekends; arrive early to get a good parking spot.
