Al-Ma'mun, the Inquisition, and the Quest for Caliphal Authority John Abdallah Nawas, 2015-11-15 The inquisition Mihnah unleashed by the seventh Abbasid caliph Abdallah al Ma mun r 813 833 has long attracted the attention of modern scholars of the intellectual political and religious history of the early Abbasid era Because this event which began in 820 and stretched through the reigns of two of al Ma mun s successors appears at a convergence of prominent currents in systematic theology rationalist thought theocratic politics and nascent trends in Shiism and Sunnism historians have seen it as the key to a wide array of puzzles and problems in early Islamic history In this incisive study John Nawas subjects the various proposed explanations of these events to a sober and searching analysis and in the process presents a new interpretation of al Ma mun s political and religious policies contextualized against the background of early Abbasid intellectual and social history Appended to the volume is a reprint edition of Walter M Patton s Ahmed ibn Hanbal and the Mihna Leiden 1897 which still has much that is useful for modern scholarship including one enormous additional benefit it contains most of the relevant passages in Arabic from the primary sources Al-Ma'mun Michael Cooperson, 2012-12-01 This accessible biography treats al Ma mun 786 833 as the product of his age which was a formative period in the development of Islamic law and theology It presents him in his many facets rebel rationalist scientist poet politician warrior inquisitor and self proclaimed defender of the faith Drawing on contemporary sources some friendly and others hostile it offers a comprehensive portrait of a fascinating figure in Islamic history Nature and Identity in Cross-Cultural Perspective A. Buttner, L. Wallin, 2013-04-17 Nature and Identity in Cross Cultural Perspective presents 20 essays which explore diverse cultural interpretations of the earth s surface Contrasted with each other and with the potentially cosmopolitan culture of science these detailed studies of ways in which different cultures conceptualise nature appear in the context of global environmental change Understanding across cultural lines has never been more important This book shows how individual cultures see their own histories as offering protection for nature while often viewing others as lacking such ethical restraints Through such writing a discourse of understanding and common action becomes possible The authors come from the places they discuss and offer passionate as well as scholarly visions of nature within their cultural homes Audience This volume is of interest to academics and professionals working in the fields of cultural geography environmental history environmental studies history of environmental ideas environmental education landscape and literature nature and culture It can be used for courses in the above mentioned areas and seminars in comparative literature It can also be used as a complimentary text to provide cultural context to literary readings and for seminars on cultural aspects of the environment Scientific Development in Islamic Civilization Aijaz Ahmad, 2023-01-01 This book Scientific Development in Islamic Civilization is a humble effort to highlight the scientific research conducted by Islamic scholars of the mediaeval world between the seventh and seventeenth centuries The Quranic verses and the traditions of the Prophet dealing with scientific enterprise have also been analysed and quoted in this work The works of the majority of Muslim scientists are also discussed in depth The scientific development during the periods of various ruling dynasties and caliphates is properly mentioned in various chapters Above all the goal of writing this book is to make Muslims in particular and non Muslims in general aware of the glorious past of Islamic civilization which has been washed out or purposefully ignored in historical texts these days Year Book of the Muslim World Mohammed Nasir Jawed,1996

Creators of Mathematical and Computational Sciences Ravi P Agarwal,Syamal K Sen,2014-11-11 The book records the essential discoveries of mathematical and computational scientists in chronological order following the birth of ideas on the basis of prior ideas ad infinitum The authors document the winding path of mathematical scholarship throughout history and most importantly the thought process of each individual that resulted in the mastery of their subject The book implicitly addresses the nature and character of every scientist as one tries to understand their visible actions in both adverse and congenial environments The authors hope that this will enable the reader to understand their mode of thinking and perhaps even to emulate their virtues in life Medieval Islamic Historiography Heather N.

Keaney,2013-07-18 This book is a comparative analysis of the medieval Sunni historiography of the caliphate of Uthman b Affan and the revolt against him By comparing treatments of Uthman in pietistic literature and universal chronicles the work traces the gradual silencing of more critical accounts in favor of those that portray Uthman as a saintly companion of the Prophet Muhammad Through a comparative analysis of authors between genres and time periods this book shows how authors were able to convey their personal perspectives on important religio political tensions that emerged through the revolt against Uthman namely the tension between Sunnis and Shiis religious and political authority and appeals to maintain stability and unity vs appeals for greater justice This last debate which in many ways began with the revolt against Uthman has been repeated most recently in the Arab Spring This work therefore provides readers with helpful historical context for important contemporary debates

Pan-Islam Jacob M. Landau,2015-07-24 Few ideas have excited such passions over the years as Pan Islam and few have been the subject of so many contradictory interpretations Based on a shared religious sentiment the politics of Muslim unity and solidarity have had to contend with the impact of both secularism and nationalism Professor Landau s study first published in 1990 as The Politics of Pan Islam is the first comprehensive examination of the politics of Pan Islam its ideologies and movements over the last 120 years Starting with the plans and activities of Abd lhamid II and his agents he covers the fortunes of Pan Islam up to and including the marked increase in Pan Islamic sentiment and organization in the 1970s and 1980s The study is based on a scholarly analysis of archival and other sources in many languages It covers an area from Morocco in the west to India and Pakistan in the east and from Russia and Turkey to the Arabian Peninsula It will provide a unique reference point for anyone wishing to understand the impact of Pan Islam on international politics today The Oxford Dictionary of Islam John L. Esposito,2004-10-21 The dictionary focuses primarily on the 19th and 20th centuries stressing topics of most interest to Westerners What emerges is a highly informative look at the religious political and social spheres of the modern Islamic world Naturally readers will find many entries on topics of intense current interest such as terrorism and the Taliban Osama bin Laden and al Qaida the PLO and HAMAS But the coverage goes well beyond recent headlines There are biographical profiles ranging from Naguib Mahfouz the Nobel Prize winner from Egypt to Malcolm X including political leaders influential thinkers poets scientists and writers Other entries cover major political movements militant groups and religious sects as well as terms from Islamic law culture and religion key historical events and important landmarks such as Mecca and Medina A series of entries looks at Islam in individual nations such as Afghanistan the West Bank and Gaza Bosnia Herzegovina and the United States and the

The Spaniards Americo Castro, 2024-06-21 This ambitious book by Americo Castro is not simply a history of the Spanish people or culture It is an attempt to create an entirely new understanding of Spanish society The Spaniards examines how the social position religious affiliation and beliefs of Christians Moors and Jews together with their feelings of superiority or inferiority determined the development of Spanish identity and culture Castro follows how espaoles began to form a nation beginning in the thirteenth century and became wholly Spanish in the sixteenth century in a different way and under different circumstances than other peoples of Western Europe The original material of this book chapters II through XII was translated by Willard F King and the newly added material preface chapters I XIII and XIV and appendix was translated by Selma Margaretten This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1971

Jesus Christ in World History Jan A. B. Jongeneel, 2009 Based on the author's thesis Th D Leiden University 1971

Kosher Hate Rabbi Shmuley Boteach, 2021-11-16 In this provocative and wide ranging book Shmuley Boteach makes the case for Kosher Hate a seemingly paradoxical idea derived from Jewish theological tradition In this startling and original defense of hatred as a moral response to evil Boteach challenges the liberal notion that understanding and forgiveness are the appropriate response to evil deeds arguing that this is merely a secularized version of the misguided Christian teaching one that many Jews have embraced that we must turn the other cheek and love our enemies Instead he maintains that it is Godly to hate evil and it is our duty to do everything we can to bring evildoers to justice While forgiving petty slights is admirable doing so with mass murder is an abomination While loving our enemies is noble this applies to those who steal our parking space or get our promotion at work It does not apply to God's enemies those who engage in genocide and whose murderous ways destroy civilized living

Democracy in Iraq Benjamin Isakhan, 2016-05-13 This book proposes a significant reassessment of the history of Iraq documenting democratic experiences from ancient Mesopotamia through to the US occupation Such an analysis takes to task claims that the West has a uniquely democratic history and a responsibility to spread democracy across the world It also reveals that Iraq has a democratic history all of its own from ancient Middle Eastern assemblies and classical Islamic theology and philosophy through to the myriad political parties newspapers and protest movements of more recent times This book argues that the democratic history of Iraq could serve as a powerful political and discursive tool where the Iraqi people may come to feel a sense of ownership over democracy and take pride in endorsing it This could go a long way towards mitigating the current conflicts across the nation and in stabilizing and legitimating its troubled democracy Taking an interdisciplinary approach and referring to some of the most influential critical theorists to question ideological assumptions about democracy and its history this book is useful to those interested in political and legal history human rights and democracy The Oxford

History of Islam John L. Esposito, 2000-04-06 Lavishly illustrated with over 300 pictures including more than 200 in full color The Oxford History of Islam offers the most wide ranging and authoritative account available of the second largest and fastest growing religion in the world John L Esposito Editor in Chief of the four volume Oxford Encyclopedia of the Modern Islamic World has gathered together sixteen leading scholars both Muslim and non Muslim to examine the origins and historical development of Islam its faith community institutions sciences and arts Beginning in the pre Islamic Arab world the chapters range from the story of Muhammad and his Companions to the development of Islamic religion and culture and the empires that grew from it to the influence that Islam has on today s world The book covers a wide array of subjects casting light on topics such as the historical encounter of Islam and Christianity the role of Islam in the Mughal and Ottoman empires the growth of Islam in Southeast Asia China and Africa the political economic and religious challenges of European imperialism in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries and Islamic communities in the modern Western world In addition the book offers excellent articles on Islamic religion art and architecture and sciences as well as bibliographies Events in the contemporary world have led to an explosion of interest and scholarly work on Islam Written for the general reader but also appealing to specialists The Oxford History of Islam offers the best of that recent scholarship presented in a readable style and complemented by a rich variety of illustrations The Enigma of the Origin of Portolan Charts Roel Nicolai, 2016-05-30

The sudden appearance of portolan charts realistic nautical charts of the Mediterranean and Black Sea at the end of the thirteenth century is one of the most significant occurrences in the history of cartography Using geodetic and statistical analysis techniques these charts are shown to be mosaics of partial charts that are considerably more accurate than has been assumed Their accuracy exceeds medieval mapping capabilities These sub charts show a remarkably good agreement with the Mercator map projection It is demonstrated that this map projection can only have been an intentional feature of the charts construction Through geodetic analysis the author eliminates the possibility that the charts are original products of a medieval Mediterranean nautical culture which until now they have been widely believed to be The Failure of Leadership in Africa's Development Ike Okonta, 2020-02-13 The Failure of Leadership in Africa s Development examines the dominant scholarly theories about the cause of Africa's underdevelopment and argues that none of the traditionally invoked causes an alleged black racial inferiority the colonial and neo colonial expropriation of Africa purported natural defects in Africa's geography is plausible as the explanation of the main cause of the continent's underdevelopment Rather the book argues that the chief cause of the continent's lag is the failure of leadership of Africa's ruling classes This failure of leadership the book shows is most evident in the historically traceable indifference of a long succession of Africa's ruling classes to the scientific and technological advances that were emerging from Europe and Asia during the most critical periods of Africa's history It was this indifference the book argues that set the stage for the subsequent conquest expropriation and technological stagnation of Africa The book recommends a blueprint for the continent's future development The Muslim World ,2003
