Promoting Resilience in "looked-after Children" Catherine Lambert, University of East Anglia. School of Social Work and Psychosocial Studies,2001 Nurturing Emotional Resilience in Vulnerable Children and Young People Juliette Ttofa,2017-11-06 Nurturing Emotional Resilience in Vulnerable Children and Young People is a guidebook that provides a framework and practical strategies to support children's emotional resilience at a whole school and more targeted level. Underpinned by research into the concept of resilience, the book centers around the Resiliency Rainbow Toolkit, a ready-to-use theoretical model that draws upon a range of ideas and approaches that act as a resiliency building programme. This practical and interactive programme can be used by educators and counsellors alike and offers creative and engaging ideas for building emotional resilience in children. Each section of the toolkit provides learning objectives, facilitator notes, discussion questions and student activities and is designed to support students in identifying their own resiliency levels and support network, enable students to recognise and increase their existing strengths and values, encourage students to examine their talents, interests, dreams and aspirations, introduce strategies for boosting less strong areas such as supportive friendships, teach students ways to cope with stress and difficult situations. The programme is a strengths-based psychological intervention that draws upon ideas and approaches from Attachment Theory, Educational Therapy, Solution Focused Brief Therapy, Acceptance and Commitment Therapy, Cognitive Behavioural Therapy and Mindfulness. This guidebook can be used alongside seven fully illustrated storybooks that each focus on a different aspect of emotional resilience. It outlines ways to use these beautifully told and visually appealing stories to nurture emotional resilience with children and discusses some of the key metaphors in the main story. How Monsters Wish to Feel. The guidebook and storybooks will be invaluable tools for anyone working to build emotional resilience with children and young people.
