The Billionaire Boss's Temptation 1 Lexi Black,2016-08-31 I gaze around at the blank dirty creme walls of my new bedroom trying to stay optimistic It's not a big room by any stretch of the imagination not even for a single but I tell myself that's not a problem I'm not a big person and I don't have much stuff to fill the room with anyway And then there s the tiny grime encrusted excuse for a window which is letting in less natural light than a ship s porthole But the landlord promised he d be round to fix the light fitting tomorrow so that s not a problem either And once I ve unpacked my few boxes and gotten to know my new housemates three music school graduates George Gina and Harvey and once I ve found a job and gotten used to the city I m sure I ll feel right at home here in Bristol I ll just have to keep repeating that to myself that until it s starts to feel true At that moment a spring pops in the single second hand mattress on which I m perched bouncing up with a dull resonating twang and jabbing me unexpectedly right in the behind For a second I m not sure whether I m about to cry or burst into hysterical laughter But then the first tear falls and before I know it I m in the foetal position my body shaking with self pity as I clench my mouth and eyes closed against the oncoming storm of sobs The last thing I need right now is for my three new peers downstairs to overhear my outburst but after weeks of holding it all in I guess that just like Yellowstone I ve been overdue for an eruption All I can do is bury my face in my knees and try to muffle my crying as my tears slowly soak through my jeans I m not supposed to be here I d had it all planned out and this this room this unfamiliar city this bleak future was not a part of it It s hard to believe that less than four months ago everything had been so perfect my life had been right on track and the future had been more than bright it had been positively gleaming But I should have known that any light that shines too brightly is bound to burn out sooner or later and mine was abruptly extinguished on a Wednesday afternoon in late June It was results day and for most of my fellow final year uni students it was the day that either makes us or breaks us I just didn t anticipate that it would break me in such a way

(BWWM Interracial Romance Short Stories) Viola Black,2016-09-14 My name is Lisa Simone Williamson and I used to be the luckiest girl in the world For starters I was rich Even better I was actually born into money My parents were once the proud owners of Simone Cosmetics one of the largest and most successful African American owned and operated cosmetic companies in the world My parents both came from very hard working families But their families worked hard for other people which was a concept that neither my mother nor father ever understood My parents believed that if they were going to work hard then they would work hard for themselves So when they met one another and realized just how like minded they were the twosome joined forces both personally and professionally got married and created what eventually became Simone Cosmetics After they had been married for a while and their company was up and running my parents decided that they were ready to start a family Not long after I came along I must admit I had quite a charmed childhood I lived in the most beautiful home that was located in the nicest part of town attended the best schools and had the greatest friends My parents also got me involved in their business early on because they had every intention on passing it down to me one day So I knew everything that there was to know about running Simone Cosmetics However my favorite aspect of the company was its dynamic marketing department I always loved watching the dapper men and glamorous women who worked in that area come up with creative and artistic ways to package and promote the wonderful products that my parents had created Once I graduated from high school and went off to attend one of the top universities in the country I decided to major in marketing Those college years were wonderful I met a lot of incredible people was taught by some of the best instructors and still remain close to the women I met when I pledged one of the top African American sororities in the country Alpha Kappa Kappa During the summers I would go home and intern at my parents company in the marketing department of course Those essential internships helped guide and motivate me and kept me focused Ultimately I always knew I would return to my parent s company upon graduation join the marketing team and work my way up until I was running the show But one of the most exciting experiences I had during college was meeting the man of my dreams David James David was the star of the basketball team and I was his biggest fan My sorority sisters and I were considered celebrities on our college campus and we always hosted the biggest parties and turned heads everywhere we went The basketball players were regular party goers and David and I would always flirt whenever we d see one another So I wasn t surprised when one of David s teammates who just so happened to be dating my best friend Janice passed a message along saying that David was interested in me
