A Boy And His Lunch:

Levittown LostLenny,2014-06-12 This novel starts at the very beginning in New York City when the Nilsson family moves all of their possessions to a brand new housing development on Long Island Then the novel shifts a few years ahead to our hero s first experiences in kindergarten in a rented room of an old Protestant Church As the novel moves on our hero continues his grade school education through sixth grade in a formal building where Lester is constantly confronted with other children his age some become close friends some are bullies and others mold his life as our hero interacts with him Not all the scenes in the story are school related Many deal in other areas where a child s imagination and a parent s involvement can turn a simple act like losing a rubber boot down a street drain into an interesting dilemma Often these situations involve people from other walks of life policeman construction people strangers Levittown was written to entertain the reader and I have purposely kept the pace of the plot moving so the reader will not dwell on one thing for too long However I hope that the reader will agree with me and our hero that Levittown was and I hope is still a child s paradise Harry

The Lunch Hour at School Katharine A. Fisher,1920 Oranges from Spain David Park,2004-01-01 By the author of The Big Snow this is David Park s first collection of short stories published by Bloomsbury for the first time to tie in with the publication of his wonderful new novel Swallowing the Sun The Preview and Other Stories Sŏn-jak Cho,2003

Cho Sun Jak is a prolific South Korean writer of many novels and short stories Many of his works have been adapted successfully as TV dramas and films but very few of his works have been available in English till now He presents an honest and frank view of the reality behind the successful development of modern Korea with humor and sensitivity The well known novella The Preview depicts the Korean War through the eyes of a young boy and the other stories in this collection reflect the aftermath of the war the desperate lives of the poor the corruption of moral values and the pathos of the lives of good hearted prostitutes The translations capture well the atmosphere and values of the period in which the stories were written Detailed notes clarify linguistic points and the social and cultural context Life Passages for Men James

Wilder,1997-04-04 We assume men grow up But do they Dr Jim Wilder contends that many men never fully mature because they fail to negotiate the passage from boyhood to manhood An almost equally tragic trend occurs when men never make the transition to grandfathers and elders in their families churches and wider communities God Is Not a Boy's Name Lyn

Brakeman,2016-03-02 Lyn Brakeman was among the first women to enter the ordination process in the Episcopal Church just after the General Convention voted in 1976 that women could be priests The bishop of her diocese had voted against ordaining women priests and hospitality towards female aspirants was guarded at best So why would a forty year old institutional naif suburban housewife and mother of four enter such unfriendly territory to seek priestly ordination at a time when her personal life was in chaos Things would have been easier had she been a man and had she not read Betty Friedan not been headed for divorce and not engaged in sins beginning with a How did she manage to stay this course Brakeman offers no easy answers but tackles difficult issues addiction death and grief divorce the nature of priesthood church politics Christian feminism and Jesus the Christ with candor Her story is held together by her spiritual connection to the voice of God from within and her growing conviction that the nature of divinity is gender free hence theological language in sanctuary and classroom must reflect this truth in a balanced way Zhero Vincent Egbuson,2011-12-29 An inspiring and intriguing tale of heroism Zheros quest for education and self worth takes him from the rustic village of Amabra to the cities of Port Harcourt and Lagos Armed with a determination to succeed against all odds his quest unearths a malignant problem in the society which is the degradation and loss of human values Vincent Egbusons book is compendium of issues pervading contemporary Nigerian society It beckons on its readers to emulate acts of kindness and self sacrifice
