Tomorrow Take Charge and Win! Robert Lee, 2010-05-01 The Buzzing Bee Once we left the patio door open a bee flew in It hit the window repeatedly trying to get out We could hear it buzzing from the top to the bottom of the window It saw the beauty outside and worked very hard trying to get out but we knew that its effort was futile If it were a fly we would have used the swatter and ended its misery However since it is a beneficial insect we opened the door and chased it out All of a sudden four important lessons came to mind 1 Hard work alone may not be able to solve our problem 2 Often the solutions come from doing it another way thinking outside the box 3 Sometimes the Almighty sees us in our predicament and shows us a way out 4 I believe that it is our mission in life also to show some struggling people the lessons we learned and the opportunities we saw and show them a way out Two roads diverge in the woods and I took the one less traveled and that has made all the difference Robert Frost 1920 Give the world the best you have and it may never be enough Give the world the best you ve got anyway Mother Teresa 19101997 Any fool can count the seeds in an apple Only God can count the apples from one seed Dr Robert H Schuller

Categorically Jewish, Distinctly Polish Moshe Rosman, 2022-03-16 Moshe Rosman s revolutionary approach has become a cornerstone of Polish Jewish historiography Challenging conventions he asserts that the marriage of convenience between the Jews and the Polish Lithuanian Commonwealth was a dynamic relationship that though punctuated by crisis and persecution developed into a saga of overall achievement and stability With that fundamental message this book forges a thematic survey of Jewish history in early modern Poland These essays written by Rosman over the course of a distinguished career have all been updated and enhanced with new detail and nuanced arguments taking account not only of new archival material and research but also of the ongoing evolution of the author s own knowledge and perspectives Some appear here in English for the first time The volume s structure highlights key topics for understanding the Polish Jewish past relations between Jews and other Poles

Jewish communal life Polish Jewish women and hasidism One section analyses how this past has been presented in both scholarly and popular modes The essays are crafted to place them in dialogue with each other Analytical introductions weigh their significance in the light of modern and postmodern Jewish and Polish historiography An extensive general introduction sets the context of the history portrayed here while a thoughtful conclusion elucidates the larger motifs that emerge

Portland Transcript ,1854      Ways of Being Bound: Perspectives from post-Kantian Philosophy and Relational Sociology Patricio A. Fernández,Alejandro Néstor García Martínez,José M. Torralba,2022-11-01 This book addresses the topic of being bound from a philosophical and a sociological perspective It examines several ways in which we are bound We are bound to acknowledge the truth and to follow laws we are bound to others and to the world Who we are is partly defined by those bonds regardless of whether we live up to them or even of whether we acknowledge them Puzzling questions arise from the fact that we are bound such as How are those bonds binding Wherein lies their normative character A venerable philosophical tradition particularly since Kant has provided an account of normativity that crucially appeals to such notions as self legislation But can our normative bonds be properly understood in these essentially first personal terms Many argue that our social condition resists any account of those bonds that fails to acknowledge the perspectives of the second and the third person The first part of the book explores these themes from a historical perspective in the tradition of transcendental philosophy Kant Fichte Hegel Husserl and Heidegger it examines the phenomenon of being bound i e why and how we are bound The second part of the book offers a sociological analysis of social bonds that is both historical and systematic Based on sociological approaches to solidarity and reflexivity it explores the way in which the phenomenon of being bound manifests through the concept of a social relation      Social Media in Southeast Italy Razvan Nicolescu,2016-10-07 Why is social media in southeast Italy so predictable when it is used by such a range of different people This book describes the impact of social media on the population of a town in the southern region of Puglia Italy Razvan Nicolescu spent 15 months living among the town s residents exploring what it means to be an individual on social media Why do people from this region conform on platforms that are designed for personal expression Nicolescu argues that social media use in this region of the world is related to how people want to portray themselves He pays special attention to the ability of users to craft their appearance in relation to collective ideals values and social positions and how this feature of social media has for the residents of the town become a moral obligation they are expected to be willing to adapt their appearance to suit their different audiences at the same time which is crucial in a town where religion and family are at the heart of daily life
