A Question Of Consensus The Doctrine Of Assurance After The Westminster Confession:

A Question of Consensus Jonathan Master, 2015-06-01 From the very earliest days after its completion in 1646 the Westminster Confession's position on assurance has been a subject of controversy In this exciting new work Jonathan Master considers the Westminster Confession's statements on assurance as a position of consensus among a diversity of viewpoints Master traces how from this one position the idea was expanded and modified even by the document's own authors just years after its reception in very distinct ways Each of these expansions on what was intended to be a consensus document forms the basis for later traditions regarding assurance within the Reformed and Evangelical traditions To date few studies have examined these expansions as a united whole and Master's work highlights the ways in which the streams of thought flowing out of Westminster are as important as those flowing into it raising as they do questions about confession and doctrinal freedom in the growing Reformed tradition

A Question of Consensus Jonathan Master, 2015 From the beginning the Westminster Confession's position on assurance has been a subject of controversy In this exciting new work Jonathan Master considers the Westminster Confession's statements on assurance as a position of consensus among a diversity of viewpoints By tracing how the idea was expanded and modified even by the document's own authors in very distinct ways the work highlights the importance of the understandings flowing out of Westminster and raises important questions about confession and doctrinal freedom in the growing Reformed tradition

The Marrow of Certainty Chun Tse, 2023-06-12 Assurance was a central issue for the eminent Scottish theologian pastor Thomas Boston long before it emerged as a focal point of the theological debate in the Marrow Controversy In The Marrow of Certainty Chun Tse presents the first full length study of Boston's theology of assurance in six dimensions trinitarian covenantal Christological soteriological ecclesiastical and sacramental This work not only furnishes the first ever intellectual biography of Boston in his Scottish context and controversies but it also cross studies the theology of the Marrow of Modern Divinity with Boston's notes This research argues that Boston's doctrine of assurance centres on union and communion with Christ the architectonic principle of his theology The book challenges the common conception that Boston's theology merely follows Calvin the Scots Confession the Marrow the Westminster Standards and Scottish federalism Boston most strikingly holds in tension assurance as intrinsic to faith itself a gift from God's sovereignty in election while insisting on self examination as a human responsibility This salient mark of his doctrine of assurance originates from his assertion that Christ died for the elect alone but all elect or not have the warrant to receive Christ As such assurance is theologically a divine gift and pastorally a human endeavour Certainty is thus both extra nos and intra nos Boston this study reveals has a potent and enduring power to speak on the perennial issue of assurance rooted in the person of Christ whom he considers as being the covenant itself

The Need for Creeds Today J. V. Fesko, 2020-11-03 This brief accessible invitation to the historic creeds and confessions makes a biblical and historical case for their necessity and shows why they are essential for Christian faith and practice today J V Fesko a leading Reformed theologian with a broad readership in the academy and the church demonstrates that creeds are not just any human documents but biblically commended resources for the well being of the church as long as they remain subordinate to biblical authority He also explains how the current skepticism and even hostility toward creeds and confessions came about

Trueman, 2017-10-17 At the 500th anniversary of the Wittenberg Reformation two highly regarded scholars compare and contrast the history and theological positions of the Reformed and Lutheran traditions The authors tackle nine theological topics significant for the life of the church that remain a source of division between the two traditions The book helps readers evaluate the strengths and weaknesses of the Reformed and Lutheran approaches to presenting the biblical message and invites honest irenic and open dialogue within the Protestant family A segurança da salvação Joel Beeke, 2020-04-01 Como posso saber se sou mesmo cristão Posso ter certeza da minha salvação Se você cristão então já se fez essas perguntas A resposta reside na certeza a certeza que vem da fé Mas o que essa certeza a convicção de que pertencemos a Cristo e de que desfrutaremos da salvação por toda a eternidade com essa definição que Joel Beeke abre o prefácio de A segurança da salvação seu centésimo livro A certeza da fé ou a convicção de que somos justificados pela fé sempre foi um tema vital para os cristãos e permanece relevante em nossos dias nos quais o desejo de muitos de ter comunhão com Deus parece estar diminuindo Quando isso acontece o melhor que podemos fazer mergulhar novamente na doutrina bíblica da certeza da fé Mais do que um tratado de teologia este livro um convite um chamado para que nos aproximemos de Deus com um coração sincero e com a plena certeza da fé Hebreus 10:22

A New Creation in Christ T. Michael Christ, 2024-08-08 What is the most important book on sanctification For John Murray it was Walter Marshall's The Gospel Mystery of Sanctification William Cowper praised Marshall I think Marshall one of the best and most spiritual expositors of Scripture The Marrow men also commended Marshall Even Andrew Murray believed Gospel Mystery to be the one book admitted by all to be the standard on sanctification Marshall's enduring value is well established yet scarcely any resources explain Marshall's theology T. Michael Christ's A New Creation in Christ fills this void by exploring Marshall's theology in the context of the antinomian and neonomian controversies of Marshall's day At a time when interlocutors were pushing one another to further extremes Marshall achieves balance because he grounds sanctification in the believer's union with Christ and deploys two limiting concepts that discourage using one error to refute the other He insists both that some measure of assurance of salvation must precede actual works of holiness refuting neonomians and that holiness is a necessary part of salvation countering antinomianism A New Creation in Christ explores how these limiting concepts translate into practical help for those who as Marshall says pursue holiness under the guilt and power of indwelling sin

Scottish Federalism and Covenantalism in Transition Stephen G. Myers, 2015-09-24 How freely can salvation be offered to people How do Law and Grace find balance What influence does Federal Theology have on the overall theological enterprise How does a confessional church interact with both the civil government and other religious communions These are the questions roiling the twenty-first century church these were the questions threatening to splinter the Scottish church in the early eighteenth century In those earlier days of mounting theological confrontation within the

Scottish church Ebenezer Erskine a parish minister renowned for his evangelistic zeal had a major role to play Through this examination of the theology and ministry of Erskine one therefore gains not only a deeper understanding of a man critically important within Presbyterian history but also insight into the pressing theological disputes of the day By analyzing Erskine s contributions to ongoing theological discussion greater clarity is gained on the development of Federal Theology on the root causes of the Marrow controversy and on the challenges involved as increasing religious diversity penetrated lands once dominated by national churches In these areas and more Erskine serves both to illuminate an obscure era and to refine modern understandings of still controversial theological issues

The Place of Methodism in the Catholic Church

Herbert Brook Workman,1921 The Independent ,1890 'Christ's Sinful Flesh' Byung Sun Lee,2014-01-08 Christ s Sinful Flesh explores the life and theology of Edward Irving a nineteenth century Scottish preacher and theologian focusing on his theological framework in the perspective of his understanding of Christ s humanity Irving is especially known for his teachings regarding the return of the gifts of the Holy Spirit pre millennialism and his distinct Christology Most scholarly interpretations of Irving have focused on particular aspects of his thought such as his teachings on the manifestation of the Holy Spirit his millenarianism or his understanding of Christology This book provides a new interpretation of Irving s contributions to developments in nineteenth century theology within the English speaking world examining the interrelationship of his theological ideas and exploring the development of them within the context of his life The book offers a fascinating historical account of Irving s ministry and theology bringing in the backdrop of his theological dissident companions and contemporary Romanticism coupled with the tension between his Presbyterianism and his desire of pursuing the truth Christ s Sinful Flesh shows that Irving s theological views including his views on the gifts of the Spirit and his millennialism formed a coherent system which focused on his doctrine of Christ and more particularly on his belief that Christ had taken on a fully human nature including the propensity to sin Only by sharing fully in the human condition with its sinful flesh concerning all temptations Irving believed could Christ become the true reconciler of God and humanity and a true exemplar of godly living for humankind This interesting study is a rare exception in the research of Irving in that it shows the origin of Irving s Christology and his methodology Its description of Irving s theological development in accordance with the critical moments in his life provides the reader with not only a more vivid interpretation of Irving s life and theology but also shows the coherence of the preacher s theological framework Debating Perseverance Jay T. Collier,2018 The Church of England during the late sixteenth and early seventeenth centuries is usually described as forming either a Calvinist consensus or an Anglican middle way steeped in an ancient catholicity Debating Perseverance sheds light on the influence of both the early church and the Reformed churches on the church by surveying debates on perseverance of the saints in which readings of Augustine were involved It begins with a reassessment of the Lambeth Articles 1595 and the heated Cambridge debates in which they were forged demonstrating that perseverance played a critical role It then investigates the failed attempt of the British delegation to the Synod of Dort to achieve solidarity with the international Reformed community on perseverance in a way that was also respectful of minority opinions The study returns to English soil to evaluate the supposedly Arminian Richard Montagu and the turmoil he caused by challenging the Reformed consensus and the Synod of Dort It finishes by surveying a Puritan debate that occurred following England's civil war when the pro Dort party had triumphed Jay T Collier's study uncovers competing readings of Augustine on perseverance within the Reformed tradition one favoring the perseverance of the saints and the other denying it Rather than emphasizing one source of England's religious identity to the neglect of another this study recognizes England's struggles with perseverance as emblematic of its troubled pursuit of a Reformed and ancient catholicity
