A Ouestion Of Silence:

A Question of Silence Janaki Nair, Mary E. John, 2000-10 The essays in this volume develop an understanding of the institutions practices and forms of representation of Indian sexual relations and their boundaries of legitimacy The Dark Side of the Nation Himani Bannerji, 2000 These feminist Marxist and anti-racist essays speak to important current political issues Though they begin from experiences of non white people living in Canada they provide a critical theoretical perspective capable of exploring similar issues in other Western and Third World countries This reading of difference includes and extends beyond the cultural and the discursive into political economy state and ideology It cuts through the conventional paradigms of current debates on multiculturalism These essays take up in particular the notion of Canada as the nation and the state as an unsettled ground of contested hegemonies They particularly draw attention to how the state of Canada is an unfinished one and how the discourse of culture helps it to advance the legitimation claim needed by any state especially one arising in a colonial context with unsolved nationalist problems. The myth of the two founding peoples Anglo and Francophone conveniently ignored the reality of First Nations More recently it has also ignored the entrance of non European immigrants who may have a history of being indentured and politically marginalized and have just begun struggling for political enfranchisement in their new homeland West Germany Under Construction Robert G. Moeller, 1997 Collects important recent essays in a critical reexamination of the Federal Republic's early history Unruly Woman Kathleen Rowe Karlyn, 2011-01-20 Unruly women have been making a spectacle of themselves in film and on television from Mae West to Roseanne Arnold In this groundbreaking work Kathleen Rowe explores how the unruly woman often a voluptuous noisy joke making rebel or woman on top uses humor and excess to undermine patriarchal norms and authority At the heart of the book are detailed analyses of two highly successful unruly women the comedian Roseanne Arnold and the Muppet Miss Piggy Putting these two figures in a deeper cultural perspective Rowe also examines the evolution of romantic film comedy from the classical Hollywood period to the present showing how the comedic roles of actresses such as Katharine Hepburn Barbara Stanwyck and Marilyn Monroe offered an alternative empowered image of women that differed sharply from the suffering heroine portrayed in classical melodramas Exploring Media Culture Michael R. Real, 1996-09-26 A beautifully written intellectually challenging and highly readable exploration of the mysteries of contemporary mass media and popular culture Real does a masterful job of empowering his readers Students will find this book fascinating and in some cases terrifying Arthur Asa Berger San Francisco State University A Question of Values Samantha Brennan, Michael Milde, Tracy Lynn Isaacs, 1997 This volume contains ten chapters each of which takes up a different question in contemporary moral or political philosophy The volume has three parts meta ethics issues in freedom and autonomy and contemporary political philosophy In the meta ethical section the chapters address issues concerning acts and their value the plausibility of aggregation and counting with respect to the value of human lives and the role of moral character in causing and explaining moral behavior In the second section the chapters take up questions about the connection between moral imagination and a plausible account of integrity the connection between autonomy and rights to property and the difficulties facing internalist accounts of autonomy In the final section the chapters address issues concerning feminist critiques of Rawlsian liberalism the limits of liberalism and communitarianism the importance of understanding Rawls's social contract as a contract for institutions and the morality of nationalist movements These chapters reflect a cross section of the issues concerning value that are of contemporary scholarly interest in Canada and the United Chick Flicks B. Ruby Rich, 1998 If there was a moment during the sixties seventies or eighties that changed the history of the women's film movement B Ruby Rich was there Part journalistic chronicle part memoir and 100% pure cultural historical odyssey Chick Flicks with its definitive the way it was collection of essays captures the birth and growth of feminist film as no other book has done For over three decades Rich has been one of the most important voices in feminist film criticism Her presence at film festivals such as Sundance where she is a member of the selection committee her film reviews in the Village Voice Elle Out and the Advocate and her commentaries on the public radio program The World have secured her a place as a central figure in the remarkable history of what she deems cinefeminism In the hope that a new generation of feminist film culture might be revitalized by reclaiming its own history Rich introduces each essay with an autobiographical prologue that describes the intellectual political and personal moments from which the work arose Travel softball sex and voodoo all somehow fit into a book that includes classic Rich articles covering such topics as the antiporn movement the films of Yvonne Rainer a Julie Christie visit to Washington and the historically evocative film Maedchen in Uniform The result is a volume that traces the development not only of women s involvement in cinema but of one of its key players as well The first book length work from Rich whose stature and influence in the world of film criticism and theory continue to grow Chick Flicks exposes unexplored routes and forgotten byways of a past that s recent enough to be American Domesticity Kathleen Anne McHugh, 1999-03-25 From the remembered and far away enough to be memorable cult of domesticity to the Semiotics of the Kitchen housekeeping has been central to both constructing and critiquing the role of women in American society Frequently domesticity s style has been to make invisible the labor that produces it allowing woman to be asserted or argued about in universal terms that downplay race class and material relations American Domesticity considers this relationship in representations of domesticity and domestic labor over the last two centuries in didactic cinematic and feminist texts While the domestic is usually conceived of as the antithesis of the public economical and political Kathleen McHugh demonstrates how domestic discourse established the terms within which the most crucial national issues the market economy universal white male suffrage slavery the construction of racial difference consumerism spectatorship desire and even feminism were conceived assimilated and understood Beginning in the nineteenth century the book investigates the historical roots of domestic labors invisibility in widely circulated didactic housekeeping manuals written by Lydia Child Catherine Beecher Mary Pattison and Christine Frederick It then considers how pedagogical discourses became entertainment discourses their focus shifting from the silent era of film to the twilight of the classical period The book concludes with an examination of the return of a pedagogical impulse within feminist film production concerning domesticity comparing it to the concurrent rise of feminist film theory in the academy Looking at this wide range of print and film texts McHugh traces the outlines of a discourse of domesticity that claims to be private and universal but instead brokers difference within the public sphere Scratching the Surface Enakshi Dua, Angela Robertson, 1999 Scratching the Surface brings together 14 anti racist feminists who examine ways in which race and gender interact to shape the lives of women of colour in Canada This collection of articles covers a broad range of topics such as the impact of colonialism and its associated discourses on First Nations and other groups of colonized women racism in the Canadian labour movement the impact of globalization on women of colour the ways in which the institution of the nuclear family shapes racism sexism in communities of colour and the ways in which the women s movement can create an anti racist praxis The book not only provides exciting new insights into how women of colour experience Canadian society but also provides instructors with a textbook that integrates anti-racist and feminist approaches A Question of Respect Robert L. Worley, 2006-07 The War of 1812 comes alive in this sweeping saga of a nation little prepared to fight an empire The political drama and stunning battle scenes keep the reader captivated Remote Control Barbara Kruger, 1994 Barbara Kruger is a talking viewer with a hit and run attitude Her vivid commentary on TV and film will galvanize even the most jaded with its social clarity and its savvy sense of cultural justice Ethics and Danger Arleen B. Dallery, Charles E. Scott, P. Holley Roberts, 1992-07-01 Ethics and Danger examines Heidegger's association with German National Socialism and attempts to understand both the question of politics in Heidegger's thought and the thought that gives rise to that question It explores the contribution of Heidegger's work to issues of ethics technology and social theory as well as his relationship to other thinkers such as Parmenides Aristotle Hegel Husserl Benjamin Levinas Rorty Foucault and Derrida Finally it addresses the more general question of the future of ethical thought within continental philosophy In order to engage the ethical issues surrounding Heidegger's life and thought the authors speak of dangers such as facism and the facile self congratulatory moral stance that Heidegger exemplifies The question of how to speak in the wake of Heidegger's thought takes many forms and the answers represent a diversity of viewpoints from both American and continental thinkers Women's Studies Stevi Jackson, 1993-05 A comprehensive selection of over 140 writings on women's studies representing a diverse set of current feminist thinkers Women's Studies Essential Readings provides a wide range of readers with an entirely comprehensive selection of ever 140 readings on women's studies representing the entire diversity of current feminist thinking The book is a divided into fourteen sections that reflect primary topics within women s studies covering theory and perspectives including feminist social theory psychological and psychoanalytic theory cross cultural perspectives and historical perspectives as well as themes such as education and work marriage and motherhood sexuality the law crime and deviance politics and the state science medicine and reproductive technology language and gender feminist literary criticism and the media tool Features Introductions to each section provide an overview of the main issues and debates Commentaries on each extract locate the work of individual authors within wider debates and identify the perspective from which they are writing Each section contains a guide to further reading Cool Men and the Second Sex Susan Fraiman, 2003 The author identifies a number of male figures with cool masculinity including Edward Said Henry Louis Gates Jr Quentin Tarantino Spike Lee and Brian de Palma A ^AQuestion of Genocide Ronald Grigor Suny, Fatma Müge Göcek, Norman M. Naimark, 2011-02-23 A collected volume featuring the work of Armenian Turkish and other scholars this book presents the story of the Armenian Genocide coolly and objectively exploring how and why the Young Turk government ordered and carried out the mass deportations and massacres of its Christian subjects The Final Foucault James Bernauer, David Rasmussen, 1988-03-18 The Final Foucault is devoted to his last published and some as yet unpublished work and includes a translation of one of his last interviews a comprehensive bibliography of his publications and a biographical chronology Michel Foucault left a rich legacy of ideas and approaches many of which still await exposition and analysis The Final Foucault is devoted to his last published and some as yet unpublished work and includes a translation of one of his last interviews a comprehensive bibliography of his publications and a biographical chronology Foucault was still working on his history of sexuality when he died in 1984 but his main concern remained as throughout his career a deeper understanding of the nature of truth His final set of lectures at the College de France described here by Thomas Flynn focused on the concept of truth telling as a moral virtue in the ancient world In the other essays Karlis Racevskis examines the questions of identity at the core of Foucault's work Garth Gillan takes up the problems inherent in any attempt to characterize Foucault's philosophy James Bernauer explores the ethical basis of Foucault's work and offers a context for understanding his late interest in the Christian experience and Diane Rubenstein offers a Lacanian interpretation of the last work The Final Foucault is based on a special issue of the Journal Philosophy and Social Criticism edited by David Rasmussen and published at Boston College HumAnimal Kalpana Seshadri, 2012 Power and counterpower in the space of silence Being Karin Holsinger Sherman, 2007-07-20 James Douglass's writings have been recognized as among the most challenging and inspiring explorations of nonviolence and Christian discipleship in the last century Throughout his career Douglass has argued forcefully for the integration of contemplation and resistance theology and cultural critique spirituality and prophetic involvement His work has inspired many of the key figures in recent debates regarding just war Christian nonviolence and radical discipleship and continues to be highly relevant in our contemporary situation In A Question of Being the first book length treatment published on Douglass's writings Karin Holsinger Sherman provides an introduction to and engagement with this important body of work through an exploration into its contextual history influences and main themes Moreover the author argues that these themes work together to create an ontology of nonviolence an ontology that integrates the forces of resistance and contemplation so important to Douglass The book begins by examining Douglass s biography and three broad historical trajectories that give context to his thought the fusion of Christianity and American nationalism in the early Cold War period the emergence of cultural critique in the late fifties and early sixties and the Catholic pacifist tradition and the post 1972 period of disillusionment Holsinger Sherman then considers the lives and thought of Dorothy Day Mahatma Gandhi and Thomas Merton as well as their unique intellectual and exemplary influence on Douglass's ideas After explicating the themes of the cross and the kingdom as they developed chronologically in Douglass's writing career this book draws together Douglass's thought to reveal an ontology of nonviolence In her conclusion Holsinger Sherman argues that this ontology of nonviolence is the key to understanding Douglass s integral theology of contemplation and resistance Identity Jonathan Rowe, 2005-09 Tabloid reporter David Fisher an overeducated underachieving scofflaw is wasting his talent and wallowing in a mid life crisis That is until the day he stumbles upon the story of a fugitive radical hiding in his hometown Fisher becomes obsessed with uncovering her true identity At the same time he becomes hopelessly bewitched by the sexy and mysterious Janet Fickle Fisher desperately pursues these women and soon the question of identity takes on a more mysterious and pressing relevance This is a clever funny and gritty book A Question of Murder John Leslie Evans, 2001-06-27 Gross ambition an obsession for money power leads to murder and betrayal On Saturday September 27 1969 two LAPD Homicide detectives Steve Keller and Joe Rodriguez are called to 1025 Sunset Plaza Drive the sprawling Spanish style Hollywood Hills home of tabloid publisher Randall Curtiss Curtiss wife Valerie has been found shot to death in the bathroom of the master bedroom Curtiss is discovered in the family den the victim of a self inflicted gunshot wound It becomes apparent that Curtiss was beset with heavy financial difficulties coupled with the fact that his smarmy scandal sheet Hollywood Confidential has been hit with a 50 million libel suit Screen actor Gregg Chandler was suing Curtiss for defamation of character invasion of privacy The stage is set for the murder suicide However following an intense investigation of the crime scene which includes a ballistics report and a phony suicide note the detectives come to the conclusion that the murder suicide was a set up that in actuality the Curtisses were both murdered Because of Curtiss affiliation with the notorious scandal magazine a host of possible suspects emerges including his ex wife Barbara his business partner Diane Walker a sleazy paparazzi Tony D Amato a competitor Marty Schwimmer a disgruntled and recently fired employee David Levine a Mafia connected hoodlum Nick DiNapoli Played against a background where the Curtiss Chandler trial is imminent and surprising testimony from a dying associate of Randall Curtiss surfaces the detectives investigation leads them into an intricate web of blackmail deception and murder
