A Room With A View E. M. Forster, 2016-01-13 In Santa Croce with No Baedeker It was pleasant to wake up in Florence to open the eyes upon a bright bare room with a floor of red tiles which look clean though they are not with a painted ceiling whereon pink griffins and blue amorini sport in a forest of yellow violins and bassoons It was pleasant too to fling wide the windows pinching the fingers in unfamiliar fastenings to lean out into sunshine with beautiful hills and trees and marble churches opposite and close below the Arno gurgling against the embankment of the road Over the river men were at work with spades and sieves on the sandy foreshore and on the river was a boat also diligently employed for some mysterious end An electric tram came rushing underneath the window No one was inside it except one tourist but its platforms were overflowing with Italians who preferred to stand Children tried to hang on behind and the conductor with no malice spat in their faces to make them let go Then soldiers appeared good looking undersized men wearing each a knapsack covered with mangy fur and a great coat which had been cut for some larger soldier Beside them walked officers looking foolish and fierce and before them went little boys turning somersaults in time with the band The tramcar became entangled in their ranks and moved on painfully like a caterpillar in a swarm of ants One of the little boys fell down and some white bullocks came out of an archway Indeed if it had not been for the good advice of an old man who was selling button hooks the road might never have got clear Over such trivialities as these many a valuable hour may slip away and the traveller who has gone to Italy to study the tactile values of Giotto or the corruption of the Papacy may return remembering nothing but the blue sky and the men and women who live under it So it was as well that Miss Bartlett should tap and come in and having commented on Lucy's leaving the door unlocked and on her leaning out of the window before she was fully dressed should urge her to hasten herself or the best of the day would be gone By the time Lucy was ready her cousin had done her breakfast and was listening to the clever lady among the crumbs course The British and the Continent language English abstract The novel A Room with a View by Edward Morgan Forster was published in 1908 It is considered as one of Forster's major novels and it is probably his most well liked novel perhaps because with the dubious exception of Maurice it is the only one to have a happy ending Cavaliero 93 His novels Where Angels Fear to Tread and A Room with a View are often referred to as Forster's Italian novels Immediately after his return from Italy and Greece Edward Morgan Forster took up the work with a novel that can be considered as the prototype of A Room with a View This work is known as the Lucy novel or the Lucy fragments But he stopped working on it for some time and a few years passed before he dealt again with it Only in A Room with a View Forster takes up the fragments contrasting Italy and England which are found in the early Lucy novels and brings them to a successful conclusion Cavaliero 93 The critic on the constrictive and rigid rules of social life in English society has often been an issue discussed by Edward Morgan Forster and it is a central issue in A Room with a View Furthermore Forster calls attention to the behaviour of the English people abroad He introduces very different characters in order to show different points of view and behaviours It is interesting that most of the English tourists described in A Room with a View are more or less presented as unpleasant people This is due to the fact that they do not fit into the Italian environment because of their affected behaviour By describing the behaviour of the English tourists and residents at Florence Edward Morgan Forster reveals a lot about English mentality and he sometimes overtly criticizes it As Forster himself travelled Italy and Greece it can be assumed that he made experiences and acquaintances that served as a model for some of the situations and characters described in A Room with a View Forster clearly distanced himself from this kind of people or more precisely tourists Edward Morgan Forster offers an interesting point of view to the reader because he was English himself but nevertheless critically observed the attitude of his fellow countrymen Furthermore the behaviour of the English tourists in Italy might be considered as representative for the attitude of the English people towards the Continent and therefore the topic of this research paper fits into the context of The British and the Continent
